Once a fishing community, Destin is now a popular resort destination and a desirable home for professionals and retirees.

With a year-round population of about 14,000, which can surge to nearly 100,000 during tourist season, the city experiences significant impacts on its parks and recreational facilities. According to the 2022 U.S. Census, 18% of Destin's population is aged 0-18, 19% are seniors (65+), and the median household income is $86,777.

Destin features 21 parks, 12 public beach trails (totaling 100 acres), one Community Center, and three sports complexes. The city also has agreements for the use and maintenance of 14.5 acres of school open space.

The master plan aims to address the current and future needs of Destin's parks and recreation system, accommodating both the year-round population and the seasonal influx of visitors. The process involves: 1) Master Planning, 2) a 5-year Capital Improvement Plan, and 3) a rate and impact fee study. This will help the City Council understand the issues, set policy, and establish funding decisions.

Scope of Work

The master plan will include the following four key components:

1. Park Facilities and Recreation Program Analysis

The purpose of this task is to provide an assessment of park facilities, recreation programs and revenue sites. This analysis is critical for determining facility, programming, and revenue strategies necessary to meet the needs of users and sustain and preserve facilities. This section will include inventory facilities, current & future personnel needs, and current & proposed services. Information from the current comprehensive and redevelopment study will be shared with the consultant.

2. Facility Maintenance Management Plan

The Facility Maintenance Management Plan will be for Recreation/Community Centers and other built structures within the Parks and Recreation Department. The plan will identify recommendations for routine and preventative maintenance programs, work management, asset lifecycle management, customer feedback program, performance measurements, staffing levels and equipment management.

Information from the City's Facility Condition and Needs Assessment will be provided to the consultant.

3. Grounds Maintenance Management Plan
Prepare the Grounds Maintenance Management Plan for the grounds maintained by the Parks and Recreation Department. The plan will identify recommendations for routine and preventative maintenance programs, work management, asset lifecycle management, customer feedback program, performance measurements, staffing levels and equipment management.

4. Departmental Fee Philosophy,
Review fees and develop a departmental fee philosophy, based on the City's Cost Recovery Program, through benchmarking best practices in comparable cities, community, and departmental input, etc.

Scope of Work, tasks in depth.

Inventory of the Current Parks and Recreation System: This section will inventory facilities, personnel, services, customer base, equipment, and current management practices (including preventative maintenance, work management, asset lifecycle management, customer feedback, performance measurements, staffing levels, and equipment management). The goal is to understand the system's comprehensive nature. To Support Section 1 the consultant shall compile an inventory and assessment of existing parks, trails, open spaces, and facilities with City staff assistance. Include a comparative analysis of similar-sized communities using nationally accepted standards. Evaluate each amenity (playgrounds, ball fields, trails, natural areas, special facilities, etc.) for capacity, connectivity, functionality, accessibility, condition, comfort, and convenience, from both resident and visitor perspectives, based on community values. Identify the best possible providers of community and recreation services and recommend ways to minimize duplication and enhance partnerships where appropriate.

Community and Vision Alignment: This section will review the Council's vision and survey the community for input, analyzing current and future program offerings based on this feedback. The consultant will create and implement a comprehensive citizen involvement strategy for the Master Plan, ensuring participation from residents, businesses, visitors, Destin Parks Foundation and other stakeholders. They will conduct at least three public meetings and two focus groups, including full-time residents, visitors, and business representatives. Additionally, the consultant will hold at least two progress update meetings with the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board. As facilitators, they will gather information on services, use, preferences, and identify strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats. The strategy will ensure a positive, proactive public participation process, using well-organized activities and techniques, and providing written summaries of all input. The consultant will build consensus and provide information for City Council decision-making if consensus is not possible. They will use methods to hear from as many people as possible, including both users and non-users of services.
The strategy will also include a statistically valid community needs assessment survey, accurately sampling the community to identify needs and issues in recreation and park programs and facilities. The survey will target full-time residents and business owners, using data from the City's Comprehensive Plan, the 2022 Citizen's Survey, and other sources to inform Sections 3 and 4 of the Master Plan.

Comprehensive Planning and Management:

a. Capital Improvement Plan: Each project will include a description, cost estimate (unadjusted for inflation to prevent future cost sprawl), the percentage of capacity increase (eligible for Development Impact Fee usage), future maintenance burden, and priority (high, medium, low). The plan will be formatted for easy transfer to Excel and will inform the 5-Year Capital Improvement Plan, guiding City Council's decisions on Development Impact Fee rates and funding strategies. To support Section 3a the consultant shall consider the following elements in addition to others identified by the master planning process:

-Improve trail connectivity and walkability between facilities.
-Develop a set of prioritized recommendations for interconnecting walking/biking pathways.
between City Parks (and other City facilities) making it a desirable means of accessing the facilities while encouraging healthy physical activities.
-Sports Tourism Expansion.
-Prioritize recommendations for needs regarding acquisition and/or development of additional sporting venues to encourage sports tourism in Destin.
-Eco Tourism Expansion.
-Prioritize recommendations for needs regarding land acquisition, and the development of parks, open space, and recreation facilities to encourage Eco-Tourism in Destin.
-Sustainability
-Develop a set of prioritized recommendations for maintenance and renovation of parks, trails, and recreation facilities, which shall be clear from the Capital Improvement Plan and Maintenance Plan.

b. Facility and Grounds Maintenance and Management Plan: This plan will cover preventative maintenance, work management, asset lifecycle management, customer feedback, performance measurements, staffing levels, and equipment management to support the Capital Improvement Plan.

Section 4. Funding Analysis: The plan will analyze funding options for transitioning the City to the desired future state, including:

a. A review of property and sales tax flows within the City and County, and how these support the City General Fund, aiming to balance funding needs with the City's millage rate cap.
b. A review of the City's chartered millage rate cap, comparing it to similar cities in Florida and exploring its long-term consequences (both positive and negative).
c. An exploration of methodologies for setting Development Impact Fees for future use by the City.
d. A review of the fee structure for activities and programs to determine if fees can sustain the programs while remaining affordable, avoiding a decline in participation and program viability.

J. Responsive-Responsible Proposals. Only those Proposals fulfilling all requirements outlined in this RFP will be considered.

K. Proposal Evaluations and Award Process.

- Bid Committee will review each written submission for compliance with the requirements of the RFP, including verifying that each response includes all documents required.

- Bid Committee members will review, analyze, compare, individually score and rank all responses based on the requirements of the RFP, information submitted and, but not limited to, qualifications and price.

- Bid Committee will conduct a public meeting chaired by the Bid Committee Chairman to discuss the individual scores and summarize the scores in a ranking matrix to be forwarded to the City Manager. Non-voting advisors of the Bid Committee may attend this meeting.

- The City Manager shall recommend award of the bid to the City Council.

- Pursuant to the RFP and to the City's Procurement Manual, the Bid Committee has now forwarded its rank-ordered list of proposals received in response to the RFP. Also pursuant to the RFP and the Procurement Manual, the City Council now has the task of deciding which proposal Council wants City Staff to pursue negotiations with. The Council has three procedural options for this decision, as follows:

  1. Adopting the scoring of the Bid Committee and directing City Staff to negotiate toward a contract with the proposer ranked highest by the Bid Committee;

  2. Re-scoring by each individual Council Member of all three proposers, using the same scoring criteria and calculations as applied by the Bid Committee pursuant to the RFP, and directing City

Staff to negotiate toward a contract with the proposer ranked highest by the Council's re-scoring of the proposals; or

3. Ranking the proposers on the basis of which proposers will, in the opinion of each Council Member and based on all available information, best meet the City's needs for the Undergrounding Project. This ranking would be done by applying a 1-2-3 scoring by each Council Member, with a value of "1" being highest or best and a value of "3" being lowest; the scores assigned by the Council Members would then be added together, with the lowest total points score being deemed the proposer with whom City Staff would be directed to negotiate toward a contract.

- In making a decision using the 1-2-3 scoring method, the City Council has broad discretion to make its decision based on all available information, and Council's decision would, if challenged, almost certainly be upheld by a reviewing court so long as the Council's discretion was exercised honestly and without illegality, fraud, or misconduct, even if the decision might appear erroneous or subject to disagreement by reasonable persons. The same principles would apply if the Council simply accepts the Bid Committee's ranking and directs City Staff to negotiate with the highest ranked proposer, or if the Council re-scores the proposals and directs Staff to negotiate a contract with the highest-ranked proposer.

- After a ranking of firms has been approved by the City Council, it is the intent of the City of Destin, in accordance with the RFP documents, to award a contract based on the proposal that best meets the project requirements, meets the required schedule, and will produce the highest quality product for the price. Accordingly, the City Council will direct City staff to negotiate a contract with the proposer whose proposal is ranked best by the Council. If such negotiations are successful, City staff would bring the resulting negotiated contract to the Council for Council's final approval; if the negotiations are unsuccessful, City staff are to come to the Council with a request to negotiate toward a contract with the second-best ranked proposer. A copy of the respondent's proposal and the RFP including scope of work, will be incorporated and become a part of the contract.

Dear Mr. Bailey and Bid Committee,

This is a very exciting time for the City of Destin is it embarks on developing a Parks and Recreation Master Plan! Over the last few years, parks and recreation systems have experienced tremendous interest. It is clearer now than ever before the important role that parks and recreation systems serve in communities. Across the Country, more people are turning to parks and recreation system to relieve stress and enjoy the health benefits of access to nature and open space, than ever before. In fact, more people are recognizing that parks, trails, and robust recreational and fitness programming are not "nice-to-have" community amenities; they are vital physical, environmental, economic, and social infrastructure.

Additionally, extensive funding from the Federal Government associated with active-transportation and parks have led to agencies across the Country to leverage their local funding with these Federal funds to maximize impacts in their local communities, especially related to resiliency needs. These opportunities make it an ideal time for the City of Destin to work towards the completion of this important plan that will help prepare the City for a more resilient and sustainable city!

For these reasons, the Perez Planning + Design, LLC Team (PP+D Team) is excited to submit our qualifications for the City's consideration to become partners in completing the City's first Parks and Recreation Master Plan!

There is no better team that is more experienced and qualified to collaborate with the City on this important project. The PP+D Team is comprised of local, regional, and national thought leaders and experts on the various topics requested by the City's Request for Proposal:

- Perez Planning + Design, LLC – Parks System Planning, Urban Design, and Landscape Architecture
- PROS Consulting, LLC – Parks and Recreation Operations, Management, Marketing, and Programming
- ETC Institute – Statistically Valid Survey
- RMPK Funding – Funding Alternatives

The PP+D Team has a comprehensive and proven approach for completing Parks and Recreation Master Plans. Our process is based on our collective Team's unparalleled experience in completing over four-hundred (400) Parks and Recreation Master Plans throughout the United States. The PP+D Team's approach is grounded in a time-tested and proven approach to Parks and Recreation Master Planning as well as research into innovative methods and the latest thinking in the parks and recreation industry, and our responsive and collaborative Client service.

3. Approach and Timeline for Preparation

The PP+D Team understands that the City of Desitn would like to develop a Parks and Recreation Master Plan (PRMP). As noted in the RFP, the plan should inventory the current parks and recreation system, including facilities, personnel, services, customer base, equipment, and management practices. It should also establish a roadmap for balanced facilities and amenities, aligned with the City's Comprehensive Plan 2020. Additionally, PP+D understands that the City would like the plan set achievable goals, policies, guidelines, and priorities, and include a Capital Improvement Plan, a Facility and Grounds Maintenance and Management Plan, and a funding options analysis.

The PP+D Team has reviewed the Scope of Work included in the City's RFP and finds it consistent with the Scope of Work that the PP+D Team has used to collectively complete over 400 Parks and Recreation Master Plans for agencies throughout the United States.

We have organized all of the City's proposed scope items under our typical, five phase approach that is time-tested, proven, and based on the research and the latest thinking in the parks and recreation industry. For the City's consideration, we have also recommended adding a few tasks that we have found to be important. These are shown in green italic fonts.

Prior to commencing the project, should the PP+D Team be fortunate to be selected for the project, we would conduct a "Scoping Workshop" - at no cost to the City - to review and discuss the project scope to make sure that it meets the City's specific needs.

PP+D takes pride in being very flexible and nimble with our Clients. If throughout the project the City learns that it is more beneficial for the project that we move, replace, remove, or adjust tasks, we are happy to do it to ensure that the City achieves their ultimate goal of having the plan adopted.

Scope of Work

Phase 1 – Context Analyses

Phase I is designed to establish a strong foundation for the master planning process through the analysis of three Contexts:

- Planned Context - Review of previous City planning studies.
- Demographic Context - Review of City's existing and projected demographics.
- Park System Context - Assessment of the existing state of the City's parks and recreation system.

Following are the tasks that PP+D proposes to complete for the Context Analyses Phase.

1.1 Project Management + Coordination: PP+D will coordinate our work with the City's Project Manager. PP+D will hold regular bi-weekly meetings with City staff depending on the phase of the project to review progress, present information, and discuss the direction of remaining portions of the project. In an effort to keep the project on schedule, we have found that pre-scheduling project milestone dates such as deliverable submittal dates, City review periods, public engagements, presentations, etc., is key to the project remaining on schedule. We will work with the City to develop this schedule and will review it during each review meeting to maintain momentum and/or make any revisions deemed necessary.

1.2 Project Branding: We have found that developing a brand for the project enhances awareness and public input for the project. PP+D proposes to develop three project brand options for the City including logos, fonts, and colors and submit them to the City for review. PP+D will revise one of the selected options per the City's comments and develop a final brand for the project. PP+D will then use the logo to develop business cards for the project that can be distributed to encourage participation in the planning process. Additionally, the project brand will be included in all project documents.

1.3 Interactive Project Website: PP+D propose to develop an interactive project website for the project. We propose using third party providers such as Publicinput.com or Social Pinpoint or similar that allow the project to no only have a presence in the internet, but also allow visitors to provide feedback about the process as desired by the City in multiple languages.

1.4 Project Kick-Off Meetings: PP+D will complete Kick-Off Meetings with City Staff and the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board. The purpose of the kick-off meeting will be to establish and discuss any technical and/or policy issues, objectives for the project, including confirming roles and responsibilities and finalizing the project methodology, scope of services, timeline and format and content of deliverables. PP+D will develop a meeting summary and submit to the City for review.

1.5 Review of Existing Conditions: Parks and Recreation Master Plans are never completed in a vacuum. PP+D will complete an existing plan and context review for all relevant surveys, studies, and planning documents from the City that may influence the plan. PP+D will provide a brief summary of the documents to identify relevant data that may include, but may not be limited to existing and proposed goals, objectives, policies, initiatives, standards, and projects.

1.6 Demographic and Trends Analysis: PP+D and PROS Consulting will also review demographic data for the City the latest trends in the parks and recreation industry. This data is important for providing the City with a data-driven, analytical framework. This framework is particularly important for understanding implications associated with existing and future park land, recreational facilities, program needs, operations, and maintenance.

1.7 Inventory + Base Map: PP+D will work collaboratively with staff to compile a comprehensive inventory of the existing and planned parks, trails, open spaces, and facilities. PP+D will also develop a GIS-based map that will illustrate the location, and type of each park. PP+D will submit the base map and inventory for the City's review to ensure accuracy and consistency and will revise the map and inventory per the City's written comments.

1.8 Park Site Evaluation: PP+D will spend four (4) days visiting parks using our custom Parks Evaluation Form as a starting point. Prior to these visits, we will work with the City to modify our Parks Evaluation Form to analyze the City's parks and recreation amenities (playgrounds, ball fields, trails, natural areas, special facilities, etc. for connectivity, functionality, accessibility, condition, comfort, and convenience, from both resident and visitor perspectives, based on community values. The form is a result of our experience in completing over four-hundred Parks and Recreation Master Plans nationwide. This evaluation helps us develop a "baseline" understanding of how well the current system functions and meets the community's need from both a resident and visitor perspective.

Lastly, while completing park evaluations, we will randomly interview park users, dog walkers, joggers, and other residents/visitors we encounter.

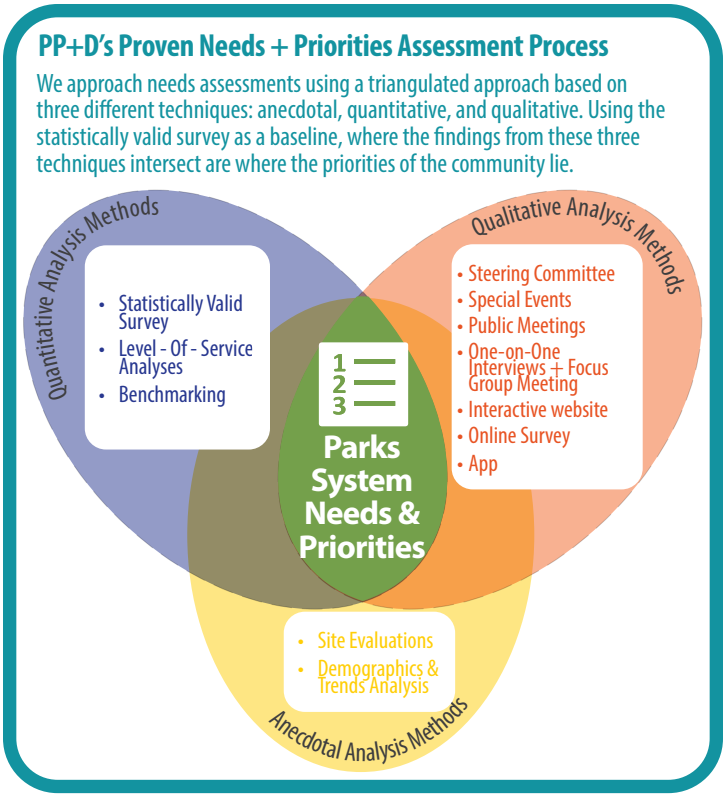
1.9 Program Analysis and Departmental Fee Philosophy: PROS Consulting will provide an assessment and analysis of the Parks and Recreation Department's current level of programs and revenue sites. This analysis will include inventory programmatic facilities, current and future personnel needs, and current and proposed services.

PROS will also review fees and develop a departmental fee philosophy, based on the City's Cost Recovery Program, through benchmarking best practices in comparable cities, community, and departmental input, etc. PROS will also complete a review of the fee structure for activities and programs to determine if fees can sustain the programs while remaining affordable and avoiding a decline in participation and program viability . Findings from this analysis will be used in Phase 3-Vision, to develop recommendations.

1.10 Facility Maintenance Management Plan: PROS Consulting will complete a facility maintenance and management plan for Recreation/ Community Centers and other built structures within the Parks and Recreation Department. The plan will identify recommendations for routine and preventative maintenance programs, work management, asset lifecycle management, customer feedback program, performance measurements, staffing levels and equipment management.

1.11 Grounds Maintenance Management Plan: PROS Consulting will prepare a Grounds Maintenance Management Plan for the grounds maintained by the Parks and Recreation Department. The plan will identify recommendations for routine and preventative maintenance programs, work management, asset lifecycle management, customer feedback program, performance measurements, staffing levels and equipment management.

1.12 Existing Conditions Summary Document: PP+D will compile all the information and data completed for Phase



I and will develop a summary document of the Existing Conditions. The Existing Conditions Summary will identify major issues, concerns, challenges, opportunities, and constraints. PP+D will submit the summary document to the City for review and will make revisions per the City's written comments.

Phase 1 Deliverables:

- Existing Conditions Summary Document
- Meeting Minutes + Summaries

Phase 2 – Needs + Priorities Assessment

We approach needs assessments using three different techniques: anecdotal, quantitative, and qualitative. The anecdotal techniques were covered in Phase 1 - Task 1.8: Park Site Evaluations. Phase 2 will focus on the qualitative and quantitative techniques. Following are specific types of public engagement techniques that we would recommend to gain public support for the project.

The following public engagement techniques are all based on PP+D's philosophy for public engagement:

"Bring me in early, and I'm your partner. Bring me in late, and I'm your judge"

Our process aims to develop partners that can help the City achieve its goals and objectives, including gathering specific information about services, use, preferences, and any agency strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats; and implement well-organized and directed activities, techniques and formats that will ensure that a positive, open, and proactive public participation process is achieved.

2.1. Engaging In-Person Public Workshops: PP+D will conduct three (3) public meetings. We have found that including a multitude of exercises in various stations

Engaging + Dynamic Public Workshops

Public workshops are typically the most visible qualitative technique method. In order to ensure that we not waste resident's time but rather make residents feel like they have effectively contributed to the process, we strive to provide a variety of engaging exercises in our public workshops.

Each of our public meetings begins with a brief 5 to 10 minute Power Point Presentation that provide attendees with a brief overview of the project and public workshop process.

Following the presentation, the public workshop transitions into a public open house format where residents have at least five (5) different exercise stations that they can visit to provide input. These typically include the following:

- Facility Needs and Priorities Matrix – Attendees are given dots to place on photos of facilities that they feel are most important, but not being adequately provided by the City.
- Programmatic Needs and Priorities Exercise - Attendees are given dots to place on photos of programs that they feel are most important, but not being adequately provided by the City.
- Funding Priority Buckets Exercise – Buckets are placed on a table, each with different capital and programmatic funding priorities. Attendees are given 2 sets of ten coins, each worth $10 and are asked to distribute the $100 in the funding priorities that they feel are most important.
- Open Discussion with the Director(s) – Flip charts are placed in a corner of the room where the Director(s) and representative of the PP+D Team stand to speak and document whatever topic is on an attendees mind.
- Improvements to Specific Parks – Aerial photographs of parks are printed on 24" x 36" plots and placed throughout the room. Residents are asked to provide comments on Posted-Notes of the park improvements they would like to see happen on each of the parks and are asked to place those improvements on the specific location of the park that they would like to see the improvement happen.

We have also found a way to complete similar exercises virtually using platforms such as Zoom, Social Pinpoint, and Mentimeter.

Findings from these qualitative technique methods are then compared with the findings from our anecdotal and quantitative techniques to see where we repeatedly hear and see specific patterns. The needs that we see and hear repeatedly throughout the various techniques are typically indicative of the priority needs. Using this transparent, engaging, and dynamic approach has helped us maximize public support for our Client's plans.

positioned throughout the room keeps attendees engaged while allowing the City to collect important information (See green text box on the following page). PP+D will develop a meeting summary and submit to the City for review.

2.2. One-on-One Interviews + Focus Group Meetings: PP+D will conduct up to sixteen (16) one-on-one interviews with key stakeholders including elected officials, the City Manager, and other key stakeholders. We have found that one-on-one meetings are invaluable for obtaining candid information and insights that help inform and address the priority parks and recreation needs and opportunities within the community. PP+D will also meet with Focus Groups intended to expand the overall number of participants and age range of participants including, but not limited to businesses, visitors, Destin Parks Foundation, seniors, children, youth, young adults, families, ethnic groups, etc. PP+D will develop meeting summaries and submit them to the City for review.

2.3. Statistically Valid Survey: PP+D will work with ETC Institute to create a statistically valid mail-in and telephone survey. PP+D and ETC will work with the City to develop a questionnaire that is appropriate for the City. Once approved by the City, ETC Institute will conduct a statistically valid community-wide needs assessment to determine needs, desires, and willingness to pay. ETC will evaluate the nature in which City of Marco Island's existing parks, facilities, and recreation programming meet, or do not meet user demands and expectations.

2.4. Online Survey: PP+D will complete an online survey via "Survey Monkey" or a similar on-line survey platform that the City is comfortable with, to expand the reach of public engagement. PP+D will use a slightly modified version of the statistically-valid survey for the online survey. PP+D will compile the findings from the online survey into a summary report of findings, and provide the City both with the summary as well as the raw survey results.

2.5 Special Events Input: PP+D proposes to attend up to two (2) special events during the Needs + Priorities Assessment phase of the project to collect additional input. In preparation for these events, PP+D will work with the City to provide the City with necessary graphical files for the City to print large banners, Step-And-Repeats, shirts, and other promotional elements that can be used to promote the project during the events. We have found that attending these events allows us reach people that otherwise may have not attended a public workshop.

2.6 Virtual Community Meetings: PP+D propose to conduct (2) virtual community meetings. PP+D will work with the City to determine the appropriate exercises to conduct during the virtual meetings, which will be based on the exercises completed during the In-Person Community Meetings. PP+D will develop a meeting summary and submit to the City for review.

2.7 Existing Level of Service Analysis: Unlike other planning disciplines such as transportation, waste water, potable water, etc., there are no standards or guidelines for the Level of Service (LOS) that parks and recreation departments should provide their residents. In order to assist the City in developing appropriate LOS standards, PP+D will analyze existing LOS for the following elements to establish a baseline understanding of the City's current LOS:

- Acreage LOS – Acreage in a ratio to the community's population (acres per 1,000).
- Indoor Recreation Center and Aquatics Space LOS – Quantity of square footage of indoor recreation center and aquatics facilities space per capita.
- Facilities/Amenities LOS – Facility/amenity capacity in a ratio to the community's population, and comparing against a standard or guideline. PP+D proposes to conduct Facilities/Amenities LOS for key facilities/ amenities in the system based on the priorities identified in the Statistically-Valid Survey.
- Access LOS – Travel distances to parks and individual facilities such as playgrounds, ball fields, trails, natural areas, special use facilities, etc. The best Access LOS analysis uses the exiting roadway to determine access, rather than "as the crow flies" radii around facilities. Additionally, we identify physical barriers, both man-made and natural, to provide a realistic access level service area. These barriers may include roads that while containing sidewalks, may not be safe to cross due to a variety of factors that, through our experience, we have identified to be important in determining a streets' crossability.
- Quality LOS – Quality of facilities across the community.
- Funding LOS – Parks and recreation operations and maintenance spending, capital spending, and total parks and recreation spending per park and non-park acre.
- Staffing LOS - Staff in a ratio to the community's population (FTE's per 10,000).

PP+D will then benchmark LOS findings to available standards such as National Recreation and Parks Association (NRPA) Park Metrics standards. PP+D will produce a series of maps and tables that illustrate this data and analysis. Findings will be particularly important for tasks outlined in the Phase 3-Vision and Phase 4-Implementation.

2.8. Needs + Priorities Assessment Summary Document: PP+D will compile all the information and data completed for Phase 2 and combine the findings with the findings from Phase 1-Context Analyses and develop a summary document.

PP+D will develop a Power Point Presentation that summarizes the findings from Phase 2 and combines it with the presentation from Phase 1. PP+D will submit the summary document and Power Point Presentation to the City for review and will make revisions per the City's written comments.

2.9. Parks and Recreation Advisory Board Presentation: PP+D will present the findings from the Context Analyses and Needs and Priorities Assessment to the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board and update it based on approved comments from the City.

2.10. One-on-One Interviews with Elected Officials: PP+D has learned that taking the time to meet one-on-one with the elected officials in specific and key phases of the project, is critical to receiving final City Council acceptance and approval of a plan. These one-on-one interviews encourage candid and invaluable input that help garner support for the project. PP+D will complete virtual one-on-one interviews with the elected officials to share with them the findings from the existing conditions and needs and priorities assessment.

2.11. City Council Presentation: PP+D has learned that presenting to the City Council at key points in the process is critical to receiving final approval of the plan. To that end, PP+D proposes to share the findings from the Context Analyses and Needs and Priorities Assessment with the City Council.

Phase 2 Deliverables:

- Digital files of Needs + Priorities Assessment Summary Document and Power Point Presentation including maps, charts, and tables
- Meeting Minutes + Summaries

Phase 3 – Vision

This Visioning Phase is unique to our process and was developed based on our extensive parks and recreation system master planning experience. PP+D believes that cities can achieve multiple benefits for residents through a collaboratively parks and recreation visioning process. Local residents, stakeholders, and City staff provide invaluable and intimate knowledge of the public realm that enriches the vision for the City and makes it more relevant, implementable, and sustainable. This phase begins with a Visioning Workshop. These workshops can be small staff-focused session or public and stakeholder-based efforts.

Regardless of the scale of the Visioning Workshop that the City may desire, it will provide an additional opportunity for City staff and/or residents and stakeholders to get involved in the planning process. Following are the tasks that PP+D proposes to complete for the Visioning Phase.

3.1. Parks and Recreation System Visioning Workshop: PP+D will complete a one (1) day Visioning Workshop to develop appropriate responses, goals, and objectives that articulate a clear vision and "road map" and model for the Parks and Recreation system. This will include, but may not be limited to: Provide useable and workable definitions and recommendations for designated park and open space with acreages and parameters defined as appropriate; Identifying the best possible providers of community and recreation services and recommend ways to minimize duplication and enhance partnerships where appropriate; Develop a definitive program for acquisition and development of parkland, recreation facilities, open space, trails and parks maintenance and administration of facilities for the future; Provide a clear plan for development of programming direction based on standards and demand analysis.

Additionally, PP+D will consider the following elements i the vision:

- Improve trail connectivity and walkability between facilities.
- Sports Tourism Expansion.
- Eco Tourism Expansion.
- Sustainability

3.2. City-wide Parks and Recreation System Vision Summary Document: Based on the findings from Phase 1-Context Analysis, Phase 2 -Needs + Priorities Assessment, and Task 3.1: Visioning Workshop, PP+D will refine and finalize recommendations. PP+D will submit the summary document to the City for review and will make revisions per the City's written comments.

3.3. Order of Magnitude Capital and Operations Costs Estimate: PP+D will prepare an order of magnitude, planning level cost estimate for parks and recreation recommendations (unadjusted for inflation to prevent future cost sprawl). Costs will include order of magnitude capital and operations costs. PP+D will submit the costs estimate to the City for review and will revise per the City's written comments.

3.4. Parks and Recreation Advisory Board Presentation: PP+D will present the Parks and Recreation System Vision to the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board. PP+D will develop a meeting summary and submit to the City for review. PP+D will collect input and will make revisions as deemed appropriate by the City.

Phase 3 Deliverables:

- Parks and Recreation System Vision Summary Document + Power Point Presentation
- Order of Magnitude Capital and Operations Costs Estimate
- Meeting Agendas + Meeting Minutes

Phase 4 – Implementation Strategy

Critical to realizing a vision is establishing a thoughtful and phased implementation strategy. Different from the vision, the implementation strategy will take elements from the vision and based on the findings from the needs assessment, suggest a phased, multi-year approach to implementing the vision. Following are the tasks that PP+D proposes to complete for the Implementation Phase.

4.1. Funding Options: PP+D will coordinate with the City's Finance Department to determine realistic future funding opportunities and amounts. This will include the following:

- A review of property and sales tax flows within the City and County, and how these support the City General Fund, aiming to balance funding needs with the City's millage rate cap.
- A review of the City's chartered millage rate cap, comparing it to similar cities in Florida and exploring its long-term consequences (both positive and negative).
- An exploration of methodologies for setting Development Impact Fees for future use by the City.

Additionally, RMPK Funding will identify a variety of different alternative funding sources, programs, and strategies that have been used by park systems in Florida and across the U.S. to leverage and stretch the City's available funding.

4.2. Prioritization Strategy and Project Scoring: PP+D will work with the City to develop a CIP Prioritization Strategy that aligns with the findings from Phase-1 Context Analysis, Phase 2-Needs + Priorities Assessment, and Phase 3–Vision. It is envisioned that this prioritization strategy will include criteria, metrics, and weights to score proposed projects. PP+D will score the projects and share a draft list of the projects with the City for review and will make revisions per the City's written comments.

Each project will include a description, cost estimate the percentage of capacity increase (eligible for Development Impact Fee usage), future maintenance burden, and priority (high, medium, low). The plan will be formatted for easy transfer to Excel and will inform the 5-Year Capital Improvement Plan, guiding City Council's decisions on Development Impact Fee rates and funding strategies.

4.3. Implementation Strategies Summary Document: Based on findings from Phase 1-Context Analysis, Phase 2 - Needs + Priorities Assessment, Phase 3–Vision, Task 4.1: Funding Options, and Task 4.2: Prioritization Strategy and Project Scoring, PP+D will develop an implementation strategy that includes strategies, priorities, budget support, and funding mechanisms for the short-term, mid-term, and long-term. The Implementation Strategy will be organized around the following topics:

- Funding Options
- Prioritization Strategy
- Prioritized CIP Projects
- Staff Actions

Phase 4 Deliverables:

- Digital files of Implementation Strategy including maps, charts, and tables
- Meeting Minutes + Summaries

Phase 5 – Final Report + Approval

Phase 5 gathers all the information developed during the project and compiles it into one holistic and comprehensive document. Following are the tasks that the PP+D Team proposes to complete for the Final Report + Approval phase.

5.1. Draft Final Report + Executive Summary + Power Point Presentation: PP+D will compile the summary documents from Phases 1 through 4 into a draft final document for the City to review. PP+D will complete a standalone executive summary and PowerPoint Presentation that summarizes key findings from the plan.

PP+D will submit the draft report, executive summary, and PowerPoint presentation to the City for review make revisions per the City's written comments.

5.2. Parks and Recreation Advisory Board and Local Planning Agency Draft Final Master Plan Presentation: PP+D will present the Draft Final Master Plan to the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board and Local Planning Agency (LPA). PP+D will develop a meeting summary and submit to the City for review. PP+D will collect input and will make revisions as deemed appropriate by the City.

5.3. One-on-One Interviews with Elected Officials: PP+D will complete virtual one-on-one interviews with the elected officials to review the Draft Final Master Plan.

5.4. City Council Draft Final Master Plan Presentation: After updating the Draft Final Master Plan based on the input from the Parks and Recreation Advisory Committee, the Planning Board, and the one-on-one interviews with the elected officials, PP+D will present the Final Master Plan to staff and City Council for approval.

Phase 5 Deliverables:

- Digital files of PowerPoint Presentation and a color version of the Draft Master Plan Report
- Digital files of PowerPoint Presentation and a color version of the Final Master Plan Report
- Digital files of the Executive Summary document

Project Schedule

The PP+D Team understands that the City of Destin Parks and Recreation Department would like to present to the City Council for Approval and Adoption of the Parks and Recreation Master Plan by May 5, 2025 with a final Project Closeout Meeting on May, 14, 2025.

Assuming that the project begins December 18, 2024, it would give the PP+D Team in collaboration with the City 5 months to complete all the technical and public engagement work of the project. Given our experience in working on Parks and Recreation Master Plans with similarly sized agencies, we believe this is a very aggressive schedule; especially considering the Holiday Season, which can present challenges from a public engagement standpoint. Additionally, it is important to note that and Statistically Valid Survey alone typically takes 3-4 months to complete.

Depending on the time of year when these projects are accomplished, we typically recommend a 8-12 month schedule. We recommend pre-scheduling project milestone dates such as deliverable submittal dates, City review periods, public engagement dates, presentations, etc. to help keep momentum. Additionally, we would recommend scheduling bi-weekly review meetings to keep the project moving.

The figure below illustrates a preliminary simplified project schedule for a 10 moth project schedule. We welcome the opportunity to speak with the City regarding the proposed project schedule in more detail and adjusting it per the City's desires.

CITY OF FORT MYERS PARKS AND RECREATION MASTER PLAN

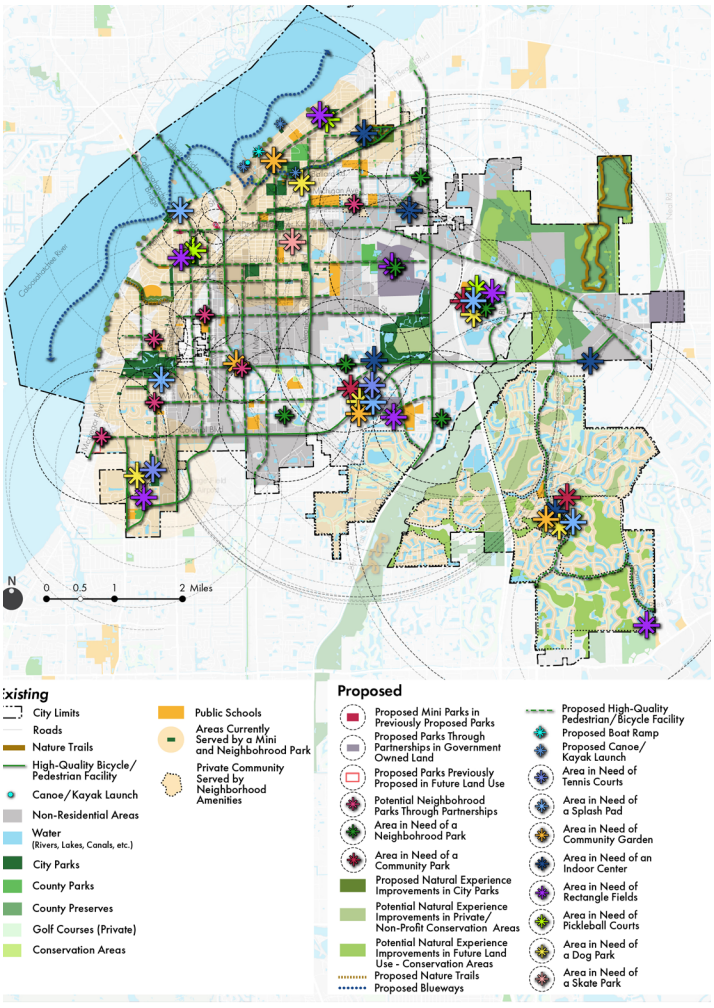
Contact Person: Elgin Hicks - Director
W: (239) 321-7533
E: ehicks@cityftmyers.com

Project Budget: $235,000
Project Completion Date: 2024

Perez Planning + Design, LLC (PP+D) was selected by the City of Fort Myers to complete the City's Parks and Recreation Master Plan. The purpose of the plan was to update the Parks and Recreation Master Plan completed in 2006; assist the City's new Director to restructure the Department, and develop a prioritized Capital Improvement Plan to inform the pursuit of a General Obligation Bond.

PP+D used its proven 5-phase approach to completing the project including Phase 1-Context Analysis; Phase 2-Needs and Priorities Assessment; Phase 3 - Vision; Phase 4 - Implementation; and Phase 5 - Final Plan and Adoption. The Team used a variety of public input strategies to receive input from the public including a mailed Statistically Valid Survey, an Online Survey, In-Person Public Meetings, Special Events, Focus Groups, and a Project Website.

The planning process led to the recommendation of four major Goals - 1) Revitalize. 2) Connect. 3) Expand. 4) Invest. Additionally, these goals included 52 supporting actions and 160 steps with Key Performance Indicators. The City is currently in the process of using the findings for the Master Plan to pursue a $75 Million General Obligation Bond in the November 2024 election. The Plan was adopted unanimously by the City of Fort Myers City Council.



CITY OF MIAMI PARKS AND RECREATION MASTER PLAN

Contact Person: Chris Evans - Director
W: (305) 416-1300
E: CEvans@miamigov.com

Project Budget: $499,000
Project Completion Date: 2023

Perez Planning + Design, LLC (PP+D) served as the Project Lead for the City of Miami Parks and Recreation System Master Plan.

Branded as Reimagine Parks Miami, the purpose of the Parks and Recreation Master Plan was to assess the existing conditions of the parks and recreation system including programs, services, staffing, and funding; Identify parks and recreation trends, needs, and priorities; Provide strategic and resilient recommendations for the improvement and provision of facilities, programs, services, park land acquisition, and development; and meet the requirements for the Commission of Accreditation of Parks and Recreation Agencies (CAPRA) for the re-accreditation of the Department, which the Department achieved.

PP+D used it's proven 5-phase approach to completing the project including Phase 1-Context Analysis; Phase 2-Needs and Priorities Assessment; Phase 3 - Vision; Phase 4 - Implementation; and Phase 5 - Final Plan and Adoption. Public Engagement was a critical part of the project and the Team received public input through a variety of techniques include a mailed Statistically Valid Survey, an Online Survey, In-Person Public Meetings, Virtual Public Meetings, Focus Groups, a Project Website, and an App.

The planning process led to the recommendation of four major Goals with 72 supporting actions and 150 steps with Key Performance Indicators for the City's Parks System - 1) Renew existing facilities programs, and services. 2) Connect the park system seamlessly into the community. 3) Grow the parks system (collaboratively, creatively, and aggressively) to catch-up with the city's growth. 4) Innovate to maximize equitable impact in the community. The Plan was adopted unanimously by the City of Miami Commission.

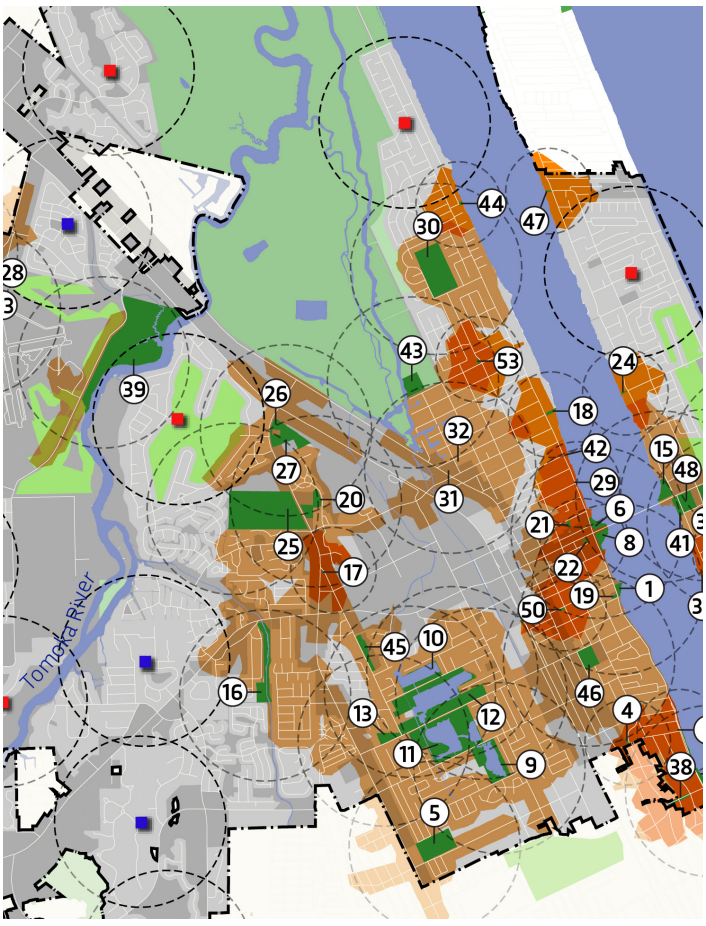
CITY OF ORMOND BEACH PARKS AND RECREATION MASTER PLAN

Contact Person: Robert Carolin - Director
W: (386) 676-3279
E: Robert.Carolin@ormondbeach.org

Project Budget: $125,000
Project Completion Date: 2022

Carlos Perez served as the Project Manager for the City of Ormond Beach Parks Master Plan. The purpose of the Plan was to establish a vision for the continued enhancement and development of the parks and recreation system of the City of Ormond Beach, including the City's Beach Parks.

The Plan followed a 4-step planning process that consisted of an analysis of the City's existing Context, a Needs and Priorities Assessment, a Long Range Vision, and an Implementation Strategy. The Needs and Priorities Assessment process included a variety of quantitative, qualitative, and anecdotal techniques including One-on-One Interviews with Elected Officials and Stakeholders, a Joint Advisory Board, Hybrid In-Person and Virtual Public Meetings, Focus Group Meetings, Site Evaluations, an Online Survey, a Statistically Valid Mail Survey, a variety of Level of Service (LOS) Analyses and Benchmarking. Over 1,100 individuals participated in the process that the led to a consensus of the high-priority parks and recreation needs of the community. These needs led to a Visioning Workshop with staff and stakeholders which informed a City-wide Parks and Recreation System Vision and Implementation Strategy with recommendations. These recommendations included prioritized Capital Improvements with implementation costs, operation costs, and staff actions currently being implemented by the City. The Plan was adopted unanimously by the City of Ormond Beach Commission.



CITY OF SARASOTA PARKS AND RECREATION MASTER PLAN

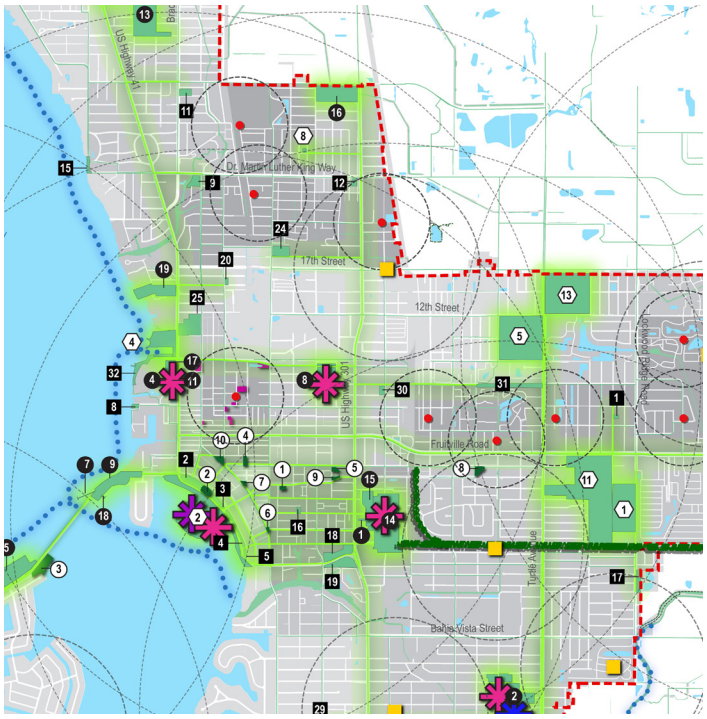
Contact Person: Jerry Fogle - Director
W: (941) 954-2683
E: Jerry.Fogle@sarasotaFL.gov

Project Budget: $140,000
Project Completion Date: 2018

Sarasota's natural beauty, thriving arts scene, and reinvigorated downtown have been getting noticed: in the past years, it has ranked near the top of the list of the "Best Small Cities in America"; one of the "Top 100 Best Places to Live 2018"; among "The South's Best Cities," and one of its "Prettiest Cities".

However, the City's glittering reputation and amenities belie the existence of a population that is struggling. Homelessness continues to be a major challenge, safety concerns in some of the City's poorer neighborhoods make certain recreation prohibitive, and many of the City's parks and recreation facilities are need of improvements. While a Parks and Recreation Master Plan is not a panacea for all the issues facing the City, it can help create a "framework" for a more livable, sustainable, and resilient community that leads to a degree of societal change as well as improving the quality of everyday life for Sarasota's residents.

Carlos Perez served as the Project Manager and Parks Planner for the project. The planning process consisted of four phases, including an evaluation of the existing system, a needs assessment, the development of a long-range vision, and an implementation strategy. The Parks and Recreation Master Plan was completed on schedule, on budget, and adopted unanimously by the City.



"The City of Sarasota has worked with Carlos Perez and hist Team for the past year on a Parks and Recreation Master Plan. I can attest that the level of services provided is of the highest quality."

"The Team was timely in their work and have been readily available and easy to contact to answer our questions. They are also very knowledgable, professional, and personable. I highly recommend the exemplary service of the Team."

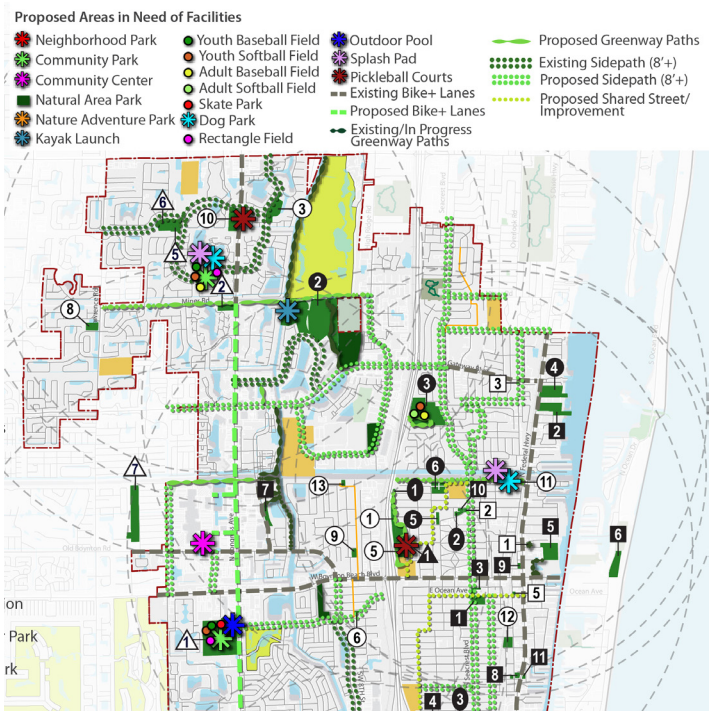
Project Budget: $180,000
Project Completion Date: 2023

Perez Planning + Design, LLC (PP+D) led the development of the City of Boynton Beach Recreation and Parks Master Plan.

A key outcome of the Recreation and Parks Master Plan was to achieve accreditation from the Commission of Accreditation of Parks and Recreation Agencies (CAPRA), which the Department achieved. Related to this requirement, the Recreation and Parks Master Plan assessed the existing conditions of the parks and recreation system including programs, services, staffing, and funding; Identify parks and recreation trends, needs, and priorities; And provide recommendations for the improvement and provision of facilities, programs, services, park land acquisition, and development, including improvements to their Beach Park.

PP+D used it's proven 5-phase approach to completing the project including Phase 1-Context Analysis; Phase 2-Needs and Priorities Assessment; Phase 3 - Vision; Phase 4 - Implementation; and Phase 5 - Final Plan and Adoption. The Team used a variety of public input strategies to receive direction from the public including a mailed Statistically Valid Survey, an Online Survey, In-Person Public Meetings, Virtual Public Meetings, Focus Groups, and a Project Website.

The planning process led to the recommendation of four major Goals - 1) Grow Awareness. 2) Enhance What We Have. 3) Connect Our Recreation and Parks System. 4) Expand Our Recreation and Parks System. Additionally, these goals included 23 supporting actions and 146 steps with Key Performance Indicators. The City is currently in the process of using the findings for the Recreation and Parks Master Plan to advocate for the continuation of the Palm Beach County Surtax in the future. The Plan was adopted unanimously by the City of Boynton Beach Commission.



SARASOTA COUNTY PARKS, PRESERVES, AND RECREATION SYSTEM STRATEGIC PLAN

Contact Person: Carolyn Brown - Former Director, Recently Retired

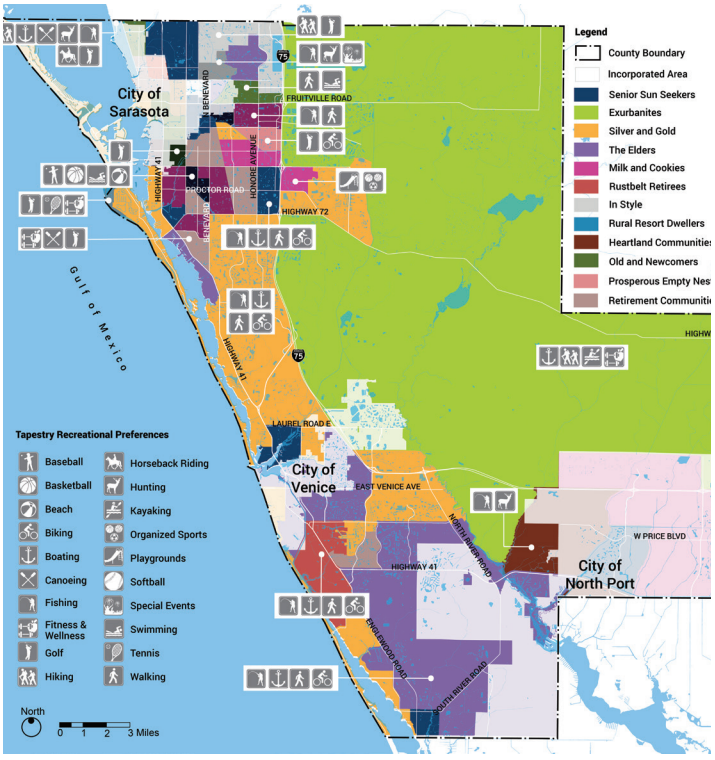
Project Completion Date: 2016

Carlos Perez served as the Project Manager / Parks Planner for the Sarasota County Parks, Preserves, and Recreation Strategic Plan (PPRSMP). Similar to the City of Destin Parks and Recreation Master Plan, the purpose of the PPRSMP was to create a clear set of goals, policies and objectives that provide County leaders and the Parks, Recreation and Natural Resources Department (PRNR) with direction for the development, redevelopment and enhancement of the County's parks, trails, natural areas, beaches, and civic spaces for the next 20 years.

During the planning process, it was determined that the traditional suburban classification system for parks and open spaces (e.g. neighborhood, community, and regional parks) has become obsolete and does not reflect the needs of urbanizing communities such as Sarasota County. Carlos and the Team developed a new, three-tiered classification system for each of Sarasota's subsystems. The plan has allowed the County to prepare for a future bond referendum that would facilitate improvements to the County's parks, recreation, natural lands, and beaches.



"Carlos and his Team worked tirelessly with internal staff, external stakeholders, organizations and the public. . . to develop implementation strategies within a "do able" Parks, Preserves, and Recreation Strategic Master Plan that provides focus and guidance over the course of many years into the future. [They] achieved all the project objectives and through their dedication, responsiveness, patience and professionalism exceeded our expectations."
- Carolyn Brown, Former, Recently Retired Director

6. COST FOR SERVICES

Based on the Approach previously discussed, the PP+D Team proposes to complete the project for one-hundred and thirty-one thousand, five hundred dollars ($131,500). The chart on the right illustrates the fee broken down per task as well as the costs for the additional tasks proposed.

We propose a firm, fixed-fee inclusive of all time, materials, and travel. If additional time or work is required to deliver the proposed scope of services, PP+D is committed to doing "whatever it takes" to complete the task to the City's satisfaction, with no cost increases to the City.

PP+D takes pride in providing assistance in a form that truly meets our Clients' needs and building a detailed project approach around a firm, fixed fee to negate any discussion related to change orders. While project needs may evolve during a project, PP+D is always committed to adapting and finding creative solutions that lead to our Client's satisfaction and the project's overall success. We encourage you to ask our References about our commitment to success and our lack of change orders.

Lastly, as we do with all our Clients, we are available to serve in a trusted advisory role after the project's formal conclusion and answer follow-up questions for a successful, long-term implementation.

As noted previously, prior to commencing the project, should the PP+D Team be fortunate to be selected for the project, we would conduct a "Scoping Workshop" - at no cost to the City - to review and discuss the Approach to make sure that it meets the City's specific needs and make any necessary changes. We have never lost a project due to our fees as we are always happy to discuss the scope in detail with our Clients to adjust the fees accordingly to their needs. PP+D takes pride in being very flexible and nimble with our Clients.

If throughout the project the City learns that it is more beneficial for the project that we move, replace, remove, or adjust tasks, we are happy to do it to ensure that the City achieves their ultimate goal of having the plan adopted.

City of Destin Parks and Recreation Master Plan
Phase 1 and 2 Scope of Work | January 13, 2025

Phase 1 – Context Analyses

1.1 Project Management + Coordination: PP+D will coordinate our work with the City's Project Manager. PP+D will hold regular bi-weekly meetings with City staff depending on the phase of the project to review progress, present information, and discuss the direction of remaining portions of the project. In an effort to keep the project on schedule, we have found that pre- scheduling project milestone dates such as deliverable submittal dates, City review periods, public engagements, presentations, etc., is key to the project remaining on schedule. We will work with the City to develop this schedule and will review it during each review meeting to maintain momentum and/or make any revisions deemed necessary.

1.2 Project Branding: PP+D will develop three project brand options for the City including logos, fonts, and colors and submit them to the City for review. PP+D will revise one of the selected options per the City's comments and develop a final brand for the project. PP+D will then use the logo to develop business cards for the project that can be distributed to encourage participation in the planning process. Additionally, the project brand will be included in all project documents.

1.3 Project Kick-Off Meetings: PP+D will complete Kick-Off Meetings with City Staff and the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board. The purpose of the kick-off meeting will be to establish and discuss any technical and/or policy issues, objectives for the project, including confirming roles and responsibilities and finalizing the project methodology, scope of services, timeline and format and content of deliverables. PP+D will develop a meeting summary and submit to the City for review.

1.4 Review of Existing Conditions: Parks and Recreation Master Plans are never completed in a vacuum. PP+D will complete an existing plan and context review for all relevant surveys, studies, and planning documents from the City that may influence the plan. PP+D will provide a brief summary of the documents to identify relevant data that may include but may not be limited to existing and proposed goals, objectives, policies, initiatives, standards, and projects.

1.5 Demographic and Trends Analysis: PP+D and PROS Consulting will also review demographic data for the City the latest trends in the parks and recreation industry. This data is important for providing the City with a data-driven, analytical framework. This framework is particularly important for understanding implications associated with existing and future park land, recreational facilities, program needs, operations, and maintenance.

1.6 Inventory + Base Map: PP+D will work collaboratively with staff to compile a comprehensive inventory of the existing and planned parks, trails, open spaces, and facilities. PP+D will also develop a GIS-based map that will illustrate the location, and type of each park. PP+D will submit the base map and inventory for the City's review to ensure accuracy and consistency and will revise the map and inventory per the City's written comments.

1.7 Park Site Evaluation: PP+D will spend four (4) days visiting parks using our custom Parks Evaluation Form as a starting point. Prior to these visits, we will work with the City to modify our Parks Evaluation Form to analyze the City's parks and recreation amenities (playgrounds, ball fields, trails, natural areas, special facilities, etc. for connectivity, functionality, accessibility, condition, comfort, and convenience, from both resident and visitor perspectives, based on community values. The form is a result of our experience in completing over four-hundred Parks and Recreation Master Plans nationwide. This evaluation helps us develop a "baseline" understanding of how well the current system functions and meets the community's need from both a resident and visitor perspective. Lastly, while completing park evaluations, we will randomly interview park users, dog walkers, joggers, and other residents/visitors we encounter.

1.8 Program Analysis and Departmental Fee Philosophy: PROS Consulting will provide an assessment and analysis of the Parks and Recreation Department's current level of programs and revenue sites. This analysis will include inventory programmatic facilities, current and future personnel needs, and current and proposed services. PROS will also review fees and develop a departmental fee philosophy, based on the City's Cost Recovery Program, through benchmarking best practices in comparable cities, community, and departmental input, etc. PROS will also complete a review of the fee structure for activities and programs to determine if fees can sustain the programs while remaining affordable and avoiding a decline in participation and program viability. Findings from this analysis will be used in Phase 3-Vision, to develop recommendations.

1.9 Facility Maintenance Management Plan: PROS Consulting will complete a facility maintenance and management plan for Recreation/ Community Centers and other built structures within the Parks and Recreation Department. The plan will identify recommendations for routine and preventative maintenance programs, work management, asset lifecycle management, customer feedback program, performance measurements, staffing levels and equipment management.

1.10 Grounds Maintenance Management Plan: PROS Consulting will prepare a Grounds Maintenance Management Plan for the grounds maintained by the Parks and Recreation Department. The plan will identify recommendations for routine and preventative maintenance programs, work management, asset lifecycle management, customer feedback program, performance measurements, staffing levels and equipment management.

1.11 Existing Conditions Summary Document: PP+D will compile all the information and data completed for Phase I and will develop a summary document of the Existing Conditions. The Existing Conditions Summary will identify major issues, concerns, challenges, opportunities, and constraints. PP+D will submit the summary document to the City for review and will make revisions per the City's written comments.

Phase 1 Deliverables:

- Existing Conditions Summary Document
- Meeting Minutes + Summaries

Phase 2 – Needs + Priorities Assessment

2.1. Engaging In-Person Public Workshops: PP+D will conduct three (3) public meetings. We have found that including a multitude of exercises in various stations positioned throughout the room keeps attendees engaged while allowing the City to collect important information (See green text box on the following page). PP+D will develop a meeting summary and submit to the City for review.

2.2. One-on-One Interviews + Focus Group Meetings: PP+D will conduct up to sixteen (16) one-on-one interviews with key stakeholders including elected officials, the City Manager, and other key stakeholders. We have found that one-on-one meetings are invaluable for obtaining candid information and insights that help inform and address the priority parks and recreation needs and opportunities within the community. PP+D will also meet with Focus Groups intended to expand the overall number of participants and age range of participants including, but not limited to businesses, visitors, Destin Parks Foundation, seniors, children, youth, young adults, families, ethnic groups, etc. PP+D will develop meeting summaries and submit them to the City for review.

2.3. Statistically Valid Survey: PP+D will work with ETC Institute to create a statistically valid mail-in and telephone survey. PP+D and ETC will work with the City to develop a questionnaire that is appropriate for the City. Once approved by the City, ETC Institute will conduct a statistically valid community-wide needs assessment to determine needs, desires, and willingness to pay. ETC will evaluate the nature in which City of Marco Island's existing parks, facilities, and recreation programming meet, or do not meet user demands and expectations.

2.4. Online Survey: PP+D will complete an online survey via "Survey Monkey" or a similar on-line survey platform that the City is comfortable with, to expand the reach of public engagement. PP+D will use a slightly modified version of the statistically-valid survey for the online survey. PP+D will compile the findings from the online survey into a summary report of findings and provide the City both with the summary as well as the raw survey results.

2.5. Existing Level of Service Analysis: Unlike other planning disciplines such as transportation, waste water, potable water, etc., there are no standards or guidelines for the Level of Service (LOS) that parks and recreation departments should provide their residents. In order to assist the City in developing appropriate LOS standards, PP+D will analyze existing LOS for the following elements to establish a baseline understanding of the City's current LOS:

- Acreage LOS – Acreage in a ratio to the community's population (acres per 1,000).
- Indoor Recreation Center and Aquatics Space LOS – Quantity of square footage of indoor recreation center and aquatics facilities space per capita.
- Facilities/Amenities LOS – Facility/amenity capacity in a ratio to the community's population, and comparing against a standard or guideline. PP+D proposes to conduct Facilities/Amenities LOS for key facilities/ amenities in the system based on the priorities identified in the Statistically-Valid Survey.
- Access LOS – Travel distances to parks and individual facilities such as playgrounds, ball fields, trails, natural areas, special use facilities, etc. The best Access LOS analysis uses the exiting roadway to determine access, rather than "as the crow flies" radii around facilities. Additionally, we identify physical barriers, both man- made and natural, to provide a realistic access level service area. These barriers may include roads that while containing sidewalks, may not be safe to cross due to a variety of factors that, through our experience, we have identified to be important in determining a streets' crossability.
- Quality LOS – Quality of facilities across the community.
- Funding LOS – Parks and recreation operations and maintenance spending, capital spending, and total parks and recreation spending per park and non-park acre.
- Staffing LOS - Staff in a ratio to the community's population (FTE's per 10,000).

PP+D will then benchmark LOS findings to available standards such as National Recreation and Parks Association (NRPA) Park Metrics standards. PP+D will produce a series of maps and tables that illustrate this data and analysis. Findings will be particularly important for tasks outlined in the Phase 3-Vision and Phase 4-Implementation.

2.8. Needs + Priorities Assessment Summary Document: PP+D will compile all the information and data completed for Phase 2 and combine the findings with the findings from Phase 1-Context Analyses and develop a summary document. PP+D will develop a Power Point Presentation that summarizes the findings from Phase 2 and combines it with the presentation from Phase 1. PP+D will submit the summary document and Power Point Presentation to the City for review and will make revisions per the City's written comments.

2.9. Parks and Recreation Advisory Board Presentation: PP+D will present the findings from the Context Analyses and Needs and Priorities Assessment to the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board and update it based on approved comments from the City.

2.10. One-on-One Interviews with Elected Officials: PP+D has learned that taking the time to meet one-on-one with the elected officials in specific and key phases of the project, is critical to receiving final City Council acceptance and approval of a plan. These one-on-one interviews encourage candid and invaluable input that help garner support for the project. PP+D will complete virtual one-on-one interviews with the elected officials to share with them the findings from the existing conditions and needs and priorities assessment.

2.11. City Council Presentation: PP+D will share the findings from the Context Analyses and Needs and Priorities Assessment with the City Council.

Phase 2 Deliverables:

- Digital files of Needs + Priorities Assessment Summary Document and Power Point Presentation including maps, charts, and tables
- Meeting Minutes + Summaries

ITEM # 2025-100

CITY OF DESTIN

AGENDA ITEM

COUNCIL MEETING DATE: February 3, 2025
TYPE OF AGENDA ITEM: Action Item
AGENDA OUTLINE NUMBER: 3.C.

TO: City Council

THRU: Larry Jones , City Manager
Kimberly Kopp, City Attorney

FROM: Jeffrey Cozadd, Projects, Grants and Contracts Manager
Krystal Strickland, Finance Director

DATE: January 28, 2025

SUBJECT: Coastal Engineering Services - Taylor Engineering, Inc.

I. BACKGROUND: Coastal Engineering Services will be required as part of the Harbor Dredging project and potentially other projects requiring this particular subset of engineering services.

II. DISCUSSION: The harbor dredging project will require coastal engineering services. The city does not have a continuing service contract with an engineering firm that provides coastal engineering. Okaloosa County does have a coastal engineer and the City can piggyback off the County's procurement to secure these services on the same terms as the County.

The County procurement took place in 2022 and Taylor Engineering is still in the first 3-year term of that contract.

A piggyback agreement is attached, as well as the Master contract with Taylor Engineering that includes the county RFQ solicitation and the Taylor Engineering proposal.

A. Link to Strategic Goals / Objectives:

B. Effect on Budget (EOB): An effect on budget will be determined when a scope of work and work authorization is issued. Adopting to piggy-back upon the County's master services agreement with Taylor Engineering does not obligate city funds.

Only work authorizations issued by the City that exceed the City Manager's spending authority will be brought back to Council once the contract is approved, unless otherwise directed by the City Council.

C. Level of Service (LOS): LOS will be increased

D. Legislative Sponsor:
E. Business Impact Statement:

III. CONCLUSION: Utilizing the piggyback of the County's contract with Taylor Engineering allows the city to ensure this project can be completed promptly.

IV. RECOMMENDED MOTION: I move the City approve the piggyback agreement for Coastal Engineering and Environmental Services with Taylor Engineering and authorize the City Manager to execute.

4.2. Should Consultant be obstructed or delayed in the prosecution or completion of its services as a result of unforeseeable causes beyond the control of Consultant, and not due to its own fault or neglect, including but not restricted to acts of God or of public enemy, acts of government or of the County, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine regulations, strikes or lock-outs, then Consultant shall notify County in writing within five (5) working days after commencement of such delay, stating the cause or causes thereof, or be deemed to have waived any right which Consultant may have had to request a time extension.

4.3. No interruption, interference, inefficiency, suspension or delay in the commencement or progress of Consultant's services from any cause whatsoever, including those for which County may be responsible in whole or in part, shall relieve Consultant of its duty to perform or give rise to any right to damages or additional compensation from County. Consultant's sole remedy against County will be the right to seek an extension of time to its schedule. This paragraph shall expressly apply to claims for early completion, as well as claims based on late completion. Provided, however, if through no fault or neglect of the Consultant, the services to be provided hereunder have not been completed within the schedule identified in the Notice to Proceed, the Consultant's compensation shall be equitably adjusted, with respect to those services that have not yet been performed, to reflect the incremental increase in costs experienced by Consultant.

4.4. Should the Consultant fail to commence, provide, perform or complete any of the services to be provided hereunder in a timely and reasonable manner, in addition to any other rights or remedies available to the County hereunder, the County at its sole discretion and option may withhold any and all payments due and owing to the Consultant until such time as the Consultant resumes performance of its obligations hereunder in such a manner so as to reasonably establish to the County's satisfaction that the Consultant's performance is or will shortly be back on schedule.

The Consultant shall notify the County's Representative in writing when 90% of the "not to exceed amount" has been reached.

5.3. Invoices received by the County from the Consultant pursuant to this Contract will be reviewed and approved in writing by the County's Representative, who shall indicate whether services have been rendered in conformity with the Contract, and then sent to the County's Office of Management and Budget for processing payment. All invoices shall contain a detailed breakdown of the services provided for which payment is being requested. This final invoice shall also certify that all services provided by Consultant have been performed in accordance with the applicable Notice to Proceed and all charges and costs have been invoiced to the County. Because this account will thereupon be closed, any and other further charges not included on this final invoice are waived by the Consultant. Acceptance of final payment by Consultant shall constitute a waiver of all claims and liens against County for additional payment.

8.3. County shall have the right to terminate this Contract, in whole or in part, without cause upon seven (7) calendar days' written notice to Consultant. Re: RFQ TDD 25-22: Okaloosa County Coastal and Environmental Engineer Services

Dear Mr. Hyde:

Taylor Engineering, Inc. welcomes this opportunity to submit our qualifications to provide coastal and environmental engineering services to Okaloosa County. With this submittal, we intend to demonstrate our experience in delivering leading-edge engineering and environmental solutions in the coastal environment. We also intend to communicate our continued commitment to address Okaloosa County's long-term coastal and environmental needs — those that extend beyond that of a single contract. We proudly offer multiple representative projects in Tab 2 that reflect long-term client relationships with Okaloosa County and other government agencies for similar services.

We intend for this submittal to underscore a salient point — namely, that no other company headquartered in Florida can match Taylor Engineering's depth and breadth of corporate experience in this field of practice. Specifically to Okaloosa County, no other engineering firm can show the same level of experience on County projects or match the understanding of local areas further enhanced by our Destin office leader and project manager Mr. Duncan Greer, P.E.

Granted, other companies will make claims similar to ours. They will emphasize their extensive experience, personnel with specialized expertise, and familiarity with permitting requirements. However, we contend that few companies, if any, can match Taylor Engineering's combination of assets: our superb working relationship with local, regional, state, and federal agency personnel; our proven ability to design constructible and cost-effective coastal projects; and our strength in construction engineering and administration. Our marine, coastal, and dredging engineers and environmental scientists work only on projects in the water or near the water's edge. This true specialization demands we succeed on every project to survive as a company, and that success leads to our client's success.

Taylor Engineering's six core values — integrity, service, excellence, responsibility, commitment, and teamwork — guide our everyday activities and relationships and support our vision of "delivering leading-edge solutions to challenges in the water environment." Our commitment to these values results in clients' high regard for Taylor Engineering. Ninety percent of Taylor Engineering's annual revenues derive from repeat business. No higher compliment exists in our field.

Taylor Engineering is an employee-owned company. Therefore, every employee has a stake in maintaining our reputation and ensuring that the quality of our work meets and exceeds the standards of practice. Employee ownership also means that accountability rests in our Destin, Jacksonville, Sarasota, and Tampa offices. Our ability to remain both flexible and responsive is without equal. We are proud to serve Florida and the nation, and to remain accountable right here at home.

To address the additional services requested in the RFQ, we have enlisted the assistance of six other firms: Larry M. Jacobs & Associates, Inc. (inshore geotechnical engineering and analysis); Amdrill/AVS (offshore geotechnical investigations and vibracoring); Northern Gulf Environmental, LLC (local environmental support); Seaside Engineering and Surveying, LLC (inland, offshore, and beach surveying); GPI Geospatial, Inc. (aerial/photogrammetric services); and, Halff Associates, Inc. (civil site engineering, landscape architecture). Notably, Taylor Engineering has a successful history working with all of the team subconsultants. Each firm has knowledge of key project issues within Okaloosa County and direct project experience with coastal and environmental projects in Okaloosa County, Destin, and the Florida panhandle. Notably, Taylor Engineering, Larry Jacobs & Associates, Northern Gulf Environmental, Seaside Engineering and Surveying, and Halff Associates all maintain local offices in Okaloosa County, and are readily available to respond to the County's immediate needs. This local team is committed to meet to meet the County's coastal, marine, environmental, and natural resource management needs in a timely and efficient manner.

Taylor Engineering will lead and manage the Coastal and Environmental Engineering Services contract from its local Destin office:

Duncan Greer, P.E.
Taylor Engineering, Inc.
4300 Legendary Drive, Suite C246
Destin, FL 32541
Phone: (850) 460-7040 | Fax: (850) 460-7042
E-mail: dgreer@taylorengineering.com

Duncan Greer, P.E. will serve as the project manager for this contract. His broad experience in Okaloosa County and the panhandle region provides detailed understanding of the County's coastal, marine, environmental and natural resource management needs. He has also proven his understanding of the County's Tourist Development Department mission and objectives. Mr. Greer, like our other Destin staff, is closely familiar with the County's beaches, coastlines, Gulf of Mexico waters, Choctawhatchee Bay, as well as many other natural areas. Over the last 9 years in Taylor Engineering's Destin office, Mr. Greer has worked closely with County staff to accomplish numerous innovative beach, inlet, public works, and artificial reef projects. In addition, Mr. Greer has also been fortunate to complete projects with local governments and agencies on coastal and waterfront projects within Okaloosa County, including the Cities of Destin, Niceville, and Valparaiso; Florida Department of Environmental Protection; US Army Corps of Engineers; and the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission. Mr. Greer is a native Floridian and a lifelong angler and diver. His hobbies, experience, and advanced education in civil, environmental, and coastal engineering have rooted his profession in environmental stewardship, sustainability, and resiliency. The County will not find a more knowledgeable, dedicated, and responsible project manager, nor a more integrated and local project team.

If you have any questions about this submittal, please contact me at (904) 731-7040 or jmarino@taylorengineering.com, or Mr. Greer at (850) 460-7040 or dgreer@taylorengineering.com. I appreciate this opportunity to present our qualifications and look forward to providing the highest quality services to Okaloosa County.

Sincerely,

James N. Marino, P.E., D.CE
President

Taylor Engineering's Life-Cycle Approach to Providing Leading-Edge Solutions

Throughout Taylor Engineering's 35+ year history, we have developed a well-established portfolio with thousands of successful coastal and marine projects throughout the eastern and southern United States, Puerto Rico, and South America. Our diverse project experience includes coastal program planning and management; planning, design, permitting, and construction management for beach restoration, shore protection and inlet projects; coastal and erosion control structures; coastal and marine habitat restoration; environmental restoration; constructed wetlands/living shorelines; artificial reefs; physical and environmental assessments; flood control and water resources; and advanced mathematical modeling of complex water systems. Taylor Engineering applies a "long-haul" approach to projects — one that focuses on application of the problem-solution cycle of engineering and program development. This philosophical approach has served our clients well for decades.

Specific Capabilities and Experience

This section provides a brief overview of our specialized experience and technical competence to address the County's selection criteria.

Norriego Point Stabilization Project and East Pass

To demonstrate our experience, as well as our ability to perform reliably and efficiently within the County from our local office, much of the discussion is related to local projects. However, Taylor Engineering has completed a broad and diverse array of projects that include beach restoration, environmental restoration and living shorelines, coastal structures (breakwaters, groins, jetties, etc.), erosion control coastal structures (seawalls, revetments, etc.), as well as detailed and regional coastal inlet hydrodynamics and morphology modeling, and artificial reefs.

Taylor Engineering has the current workload capacity to provide Okaloosa County efficient, attentive, and effective service. We maintain ample staff of qualified professionals in the coastal engineering and environmental science disciplines that are committed to serve the County. We will manage this project from our Destin office and are able to respond expeditiously to the County's needs.

1. Beach Restoration Experience

Experience in design/permitting and construction management of beach restoration projects. (25 Points)

Taylor Engineering has conducted all aspects of beach restoration projects, including but not limited to: feasibility studies; management plan formulation; design; federal, state, and local permitting; geotechnical investigations and engineering; surveying; aerial photography; development of plans and specifications; bid administration assistance; construction observation and management; post-construction monitoring and reporting; and economic elements. We have performed these services for local government and state agencies in Okaloosa County, East and West Destin, Okaloosa Island, Eglin Air Force Base (AFB), Walton County, Marco Island, Jupiter/Carlin, Ocean Ridge, Jupiter Island, Hillsborough Inlet, Bakers Haulover Inlet, New Smyrna Beach, Summer Haven, and Anastasia State Park. We have also been responsible for similar elements of federal beach restoration projects in Walton, Bay, Lee, Nassau, St. Johns, St. Lucie, and Martin Counties, Venice Beach, Key Biscayne, and Lido Key, Florida. In total, we have designed and permitted over 44 federal and non-federal beach nourishment projects, which collectively have or will restore over 63 miles of beach with over 34,000,000 cubic yards (cy) of sand.

Beach Planning, Design, and Construction

Taylor Engineering prepared both regional- and project-level feasibility studies and plan formulation documents for Okaloosa (Destin) and Walton counties, including a comprehensive regional feasibility study of 32 contiguous miles of shoreline. The study integrated engineering, environmental, and economic elements and ultimately recommended, as a top priority, a seven-mile beach restoration project in eastern Destin and Walton County to mitigate prior storm erosion and to protect upland property and infrastructure. Following these recommendations, we performed additional geotechnical investigations, designed a highly-innovative borrow area surrounding the East Pass ebb shoal, and designed, permitted and administered the construction of the 3,000,000 cy project. At key project milestones, Taylor Engineering conducted meetings with technical review committees, citizens' advisory councils, and public workshops to receive community input and to facilitate public education. The regional partnership allowed for significant cost savings for the individual participants and resulted in a larger, more resilient beach restoration project. Following project construction, Taylor Engineering produced annual and biennial post-construction physical monitoring reports as required by FDEP permits, utilizing survey data collected by our subcontractor. The monitoring results indicate the project exceeded performance expectations — with approximately 80% of the placed fill remaining as of July 2014 (7 years post-construction) — with no adverse impacts. In conjunction with the post-construction monitoring, Taylor Engineering also conducted extensive historical shoreline and volume change analyses demonstrating the project did not cause undue erosion or interruption of littoral transport within the vicinity of the East Pass ebb shoal system. Consequently, Taylor Engineering successfully requested FDEP remove specific permit requirements to place an additional 50,000 cy of sand west of East Pass, eliminating the financial burden on the City of Destin, Okaloosa, and Walton County. Notably, American Shore & Beach Preservation Association (ASBPA) named the project a 2008 Best Restored Beach.

During construction of the Destin/Walton Beach Restoration, we commenced the second phase of the management plan with design and permitting of the Western Destin Beach Restoration. Taylor Engineering expedited the project permitting; however, petitions from upland property owners and administrative hearings significantly delayed permit issuance. Due to these delays, Taylor Engineering permitted and managed construction of an emergency beach fill project along Holiday Isle in 2010 due to severe storm impacts from Hurricane Ida. Taylor Engineering expedited construction documents, assisted with bid administration, administered construction, prepared post-construction certification, and performed post-construction monitoring. The following year, FDEP issued the Western Destin permit following the recommendations of the administrative law judge. Taylor Engineering modified the FDEP and USACE permits per the City's request, prepared construction drawings and technical specifications, assisted with bid administration, and managed project construction. Both the Holiday Isle and West Destin projects were constructed within very short windows (7 days for Holiday Isle and 28 days for West Destin) to avoid impacts to the tourist season and both large-scale projects were constructed on time and under budget with no change orders. Since construction, Taylor's has collected physical survey data, performed data analysis, and prepared monitoring reports documenting project performance per FDEP permit requirements. The project continues to exceed performance expectations and was also awarded by ASBPA as a Best Restored Beach.

For years, Taylor Engineering has performed post-storm beach assessments and provided design, permitting, and construction administration services for emergency dune restoration projects within Destin and other panhandle counties following severe storms such as Hurricanes Ivan (2004), Dennis (2005), and Sally (2020).

Taylor Engineering has also assisted Okaloosa County with FEMA mitigation and is well prepared to assist the County with disaster mitigation.

Taylor Engineering also supported the County and City of Destin with construction administration for the 2020 USACE East Pass Maintenance Dredging Project. The result of a long effort to modify multiple permits for alternative fill templates within the Western Destin Project area.

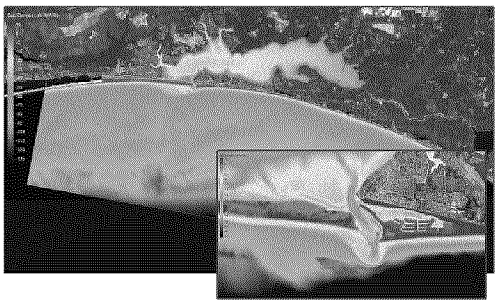
2020 East Pass Maintenance Dredging

Taylor Engineering prepared a beach management and feasibility study for Okaloosa Island which included a literature review, physical characteristic and natural resource investigation, regional coastal processes evaluation, risk analyses of shorefront development, identification of beach management alternatives and feasibility, and recommendations.

Taylor Engineering has also provided design, permitting, and construction-phase assistance to USACE in support of numerous federal beach restoration projects, including the Okaloosa County Coastal Storm Risk Management (CSRM) Feasibility Study and the Walton County Hurricane Storm Damage Reduction Project. From 2018 through 2021, Taylor Engineering provided assistance to Okaloosa County during the USACE Mobile District Okaloosa CSRM Feasibility Study. During the CSRM Feasibility Study, the USACE assessed the feasibility of providing shoreline erosion control, beach restoration, storm damage reduction, environmental restoration and protection, and related improvements along the Okaloosa County's Gulf of Mexico shorelines. Taylor Engineering supported Okaloosa County by attending project update meetings, reviewing draft reports and analyses, and evaluating the general study recommendations in terms of effectiveness as related to the County interests.

Having been involved with the County's coastal management program for over 25 years, we maintain a library of reference materials and reports related to the County's coastal management efforts and maintain databases of county beach surveys, coastal processes, and environmental data. These in-house resources provide a unique advantage over other consultants by allowing us to most rapidly and cost-effectively respond to the County's coastal management needs.

Given our commitment to the life-cycle approach, we encourage regional planning and resource management. For example, in 2007 we facilitated a partnership between Okaloosa County, Destin, and Eglin AFB for regional beach and offshore sand resource management affording these stakeholders significant time and cost savings during design, permitting and construction. Taylor Engineering was also responsible for the regional partnership planning of the Walton County/Destin Beach Restoration Project which extended the design life of both projects and saved the project partners significant time and substantial costs during planning, design, permitting, and construction phases of the project.



Choctawhatchee Bay System Model

Coastal Processes, Modeling, and Analysis

Understanding a region's coastal processes and their effects on the coastal system is a crucial element of coastal engineering and beach restoration projects. Taylor Engineering has extensive experience in every aspect of coastal processes analyses including shoreline changes, beach volume changes, empirical orthogonal analyses, sediment budgets, littoral transport, wave modeling, tidal hydrodynamics modeling, beach morphology modeling, storm effects, storm damage assessments, inlet management, and sand bypassing. We apply in-house wave transformation and sediment transport models to estimate sediment transport in the littoral zone, design coastal structures, investigate borrow site mining impacts on fronting beaches, analyze inlet shoaling, assess the effects of structures on adjacent shorelines and shoal systems, analyze the effects of hardbottom on nearshore beach behavior, and provide input to shoreline change and dune erosion models. Taylor Engineering has performed all of these services in support of numerous Okaloosa County projects. As such, we have existing, in-house hydrodynamic, wave, and sediment transport numerical models for both the Gulf of Mexico and Choctawhatchee Bay shorelines of Okaloosa County.

These existing resources will allow Taylor Engineering to quickly and cost-effectively respond to any coastal program management needs as they arise. In fact, given our existing modeling resources and experience, USACE contracted us directly to perform the wave transformation and beach modeling for the Panama City Limited Re-Evaluation Report (LRR).

Borrow Area Design & Sand Compatibility

Taylor Engineering and Amdrill/American Vibracore Services have conducted several sand source investigations and Taylor has designed and permitted borrow areas for various government entities including Okaloosa County, City of Destin, Eglin AFB, Walton County, Palm Beach County (Jupiter/Carlin), St. Lucie County, and the USACE. The projects include reconnaissance and detail-phase sub-bottom seismic surveys, bathymetric surveys, cultural resource surveys, and vibracore collection. Engineering evaluations include characterization of native beach sand and potential borrow material, overfill analysis, design of borrow area dredging templates, and borrow area excavation impact (modeling) analyses. In addition to the highly-innovative borrow site for the 2006 Destin/Walton Beach Restoration Project, we also designed and permitted a regional offshore borrow source for Okaloosa County, Destin, and Eglin AFB that provides over 17 million cy of high-quality beach sand – a volume sufficient for the initial construction of all local projects and numerous follow-on nourishment projects. Though these sources will require future permitting, identification of these areas has proved crucial for supporting the County's overall long-term planning of regional beach management activities and potential federal beach restoration project. Most recently, in 2019, Taylor collected vibracores and performed sediment analysis for potential supplement dredge areas in East Pass. Finally, from our vast experience in the Florida panhandle, we are keenly aware of the area's high quality, sugar-white beaches, the strict requirements for sand compatibility, and the high-quality offshore sand required to preserve these precious resources.

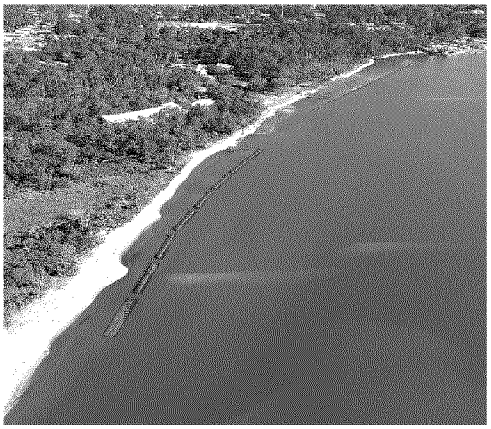
2. Environmental Restoration and Living Shoreline Project Experience

Experience in design/permitting and construction management of environmental projects, (i.e. restoration of living shoreline projects). (20 Points)

Taylor Engineering takes great care to integrate its projects with the natural environment and most of our projects have an environmental restoration component. Some projects focus entirely on restoration, such as living shorelines, incorporating nearshore breakwaters (reefs) to attenuate waves approaching the shoreline and mitigate ongoing erosion, as well as native vegetation restoration.



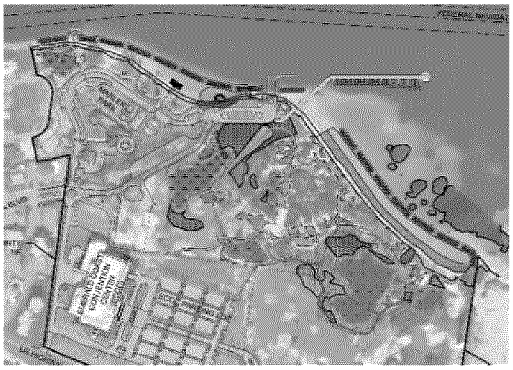
Cat Point Living Shoreline

We have substantial experience with the full range of environmental issues commonly encountered during coastal projects, including environmental permitting (USACE, state, and local); submerged land lease and legal land boundary issues; upland/estuarine/marine habitat and impact assessments; environmental restoration design; mitigation design and long-term monitoring; and field data collection and analysis. Nearly all of our coastal engineering projects have required environmental investigations and assessments, environmental permitting, and coordination with state and federal environmental and regulatory agencies. We understand permitting issues and over the years have developed valuable professional relationships with both state and federal regulatory agencies. Our experience with coastal resources such as listed species, wetlands, marine/estuarine critical and essential habitat, and mitigation has proven invaluable during the permitting process.

Taylor Engineering has designed, permitted, and constructed hundreds of environmental restoration projects ranging from small (<1 acre) living shorelines; seagrass, mangrove, and saltmarsh restoration; to 4,000+ acre wetland restoration, creation, and enhancement projects. We understand the complexities of appropriate environmental restoration design and construction within highly sensitive systems. We have the expertise and experience to achieve project success with minimal impact to existing resources.

Throughout the panhandle, and within Okaloosa County, we have designed, permitted, and constructed numerous beach, dune, and back-bay/estuarine restoration projects.

In 2020, Taylor Engineering completed the Cat Point Living Shoreline Project, in Eastpoint, Florida, providing FDEP design, permitting and construction management for the 1,600 ft restoration project incorporating ephemeral low-crested segmented breakwaters and native marsh planting.



Okaloosa County Baywalk

For the Okaloosa County Baywalk (Veteran's Park) project, we designed and permitted living shorelines including offshore oyster reef breakwaters and salt marsh to restore and stabilize eroded shoreline habitat. The project also includes offshore docking facilities, boat ramp improvements and a series of upland boardwalks to enhance public access. Notably, Genesis provided landscape and planning support for the upland improvements. The boat ramp improvements will not only enhance boat launching and recovery efficiencies, but dock and sheet-pile wall components will greatly reduce the County's required facility maintenance. FDEP permits have been deemed complete and we anticipate USACE permits within the coming months.

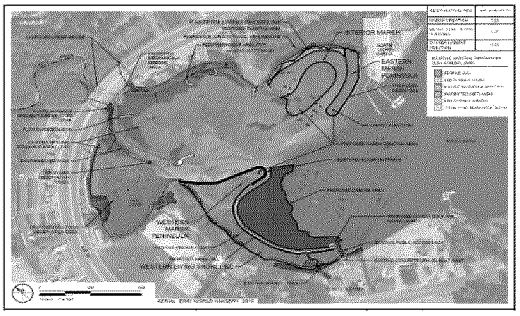
Taylor Engineering also conducted design and regulatory permitting assistance to the City of Niceville for the restoration of the Boggy Bayou headwaters. The project includes environmental assessments, alternatives analyses, and design and permitting of stream stabilization measures (along Turkey Creek), removal of deposited sands with beneficial use of the removed sand to create marsh islands and living shorelines that will enhance water quality, fish, and bird habitat, and provide shoreline stabilization and storm protection benefits.



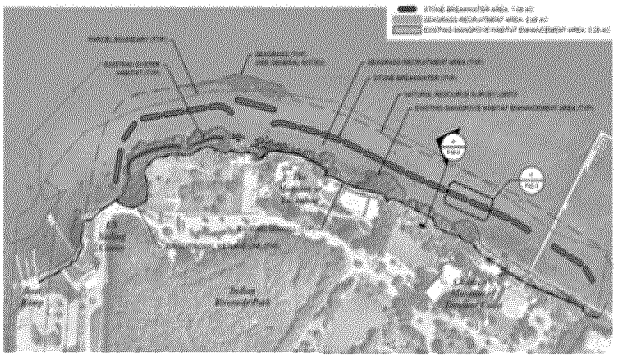
NFWF Boggy Bayou Headwaters

Taylor Engineering has also designed and permitted living shoreline projects (oyster reef breakwaters and saltmarsh restoration) to stabilize shorelines and enhance natural resources at Poquito Bayou Park (Okaloosa) and Lincoln Park (Valparaiso).

The Okaloosa Island Dune Restoration Project included design, permitting, and construction-phase services (i.e., construction drawings, specifications, bidding, construction administration, observation and final certification) for a 3-mile long dune restoration effort. The project created a more aesthetically pleasing recreation experience for residents and tourists by restoring a diverse dune flora community, enhancing public access, and providing educational signage. The project also provides increased storm protection to upland property and infrastructure. The FDEP-funded project included native dune species, sand fencing, post and rope walkways, educational signage, and six elevated beach access boardwalks. The project was successfully constructed on-time and within budget requirements of the FDEP grant.

Okaloosa Island Dune Restoration

Currently, the Taylor Engineering Project Manager is also working with Martin County on the Indian Riverside Park Living Shoreline Project. Taylor Engineering helped County staff develop the project and secure FDEP grant funding for design, permitting, and construction of the ~2,500 ft coastal living shoreline. Taylor is performing coastal conditions analyses, numerical wave modeling, sea level rise projections, and evaluating the structural resiliency to future storm events (2050). The project incorporates a stone segmented breakwater, mangrove habitat restoration, and seagrass recruitment areas.



Martin County Indian Riverside Park Living Shoreline

Taylor Engineering also has a long-standing working relationship with the local non-profit Choctawhatchee Basin Alliance (CBA) and regularly coordinates with CBA on local restoration projects to enhance project partnerships and public outreach through educational signs, demonstration areas, and other education opportunities for grade-school children and waterfront property owners. No other coastal engineering consultant can show the same level of expertise, project experience or resources for environmental restoration and living shorelines experience within Okaloosa County.

3. Coastal and Erosion Control Structure Experience

Experience in design/permitting and construction management of seawalls breakwaters and other erosion control structures. (15 Points)

Taylor Engineering has a proven track record in the planning, design, evaluation, rehabilitation, permitting, and construction of coastal and waterfront structures including seawalls, bulkheads, and retaining walls; breakwaters, jetties, and groins; shoreline protection systems (e.g., rock revetments, geotubes, gabions); and hydraulic control structures. Our project experience also includes marine and land-based pile foundation structures including bridges, piers, and boardwalks; boat launching, marina and wharf structures; port and transportation terminals; berthing areas, mooring systems, and fenders; and underwater concrete. Our project experience covers the full range of project development, including planning, assessment and evaluations, design, permitting, geotechnical and environmental investigations, cost estimating, bid assistance, and construction-phase services (project management, scheduling, observation, and final certification).

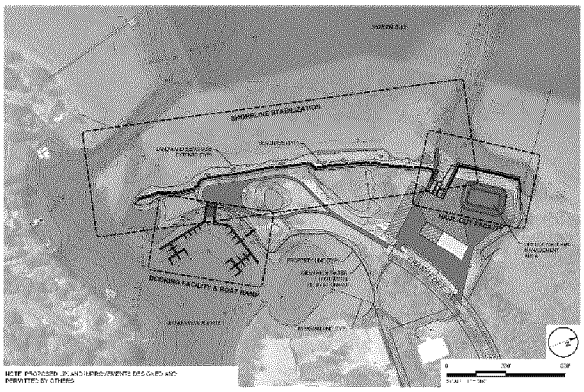
Norriego Point Stabilization Project

Within Okaloosa County, Taylor Engineering staff members have designed, permitted, and constructed numerous challenging coastal structure projects. These projects include numerous marinas, design support for the Eglin AFB seawalls along Okaloosa Island to protect mission-critical infrastructure, and value engineering review and design of the Norriego Point Stabilization Project within East Pass. Taylor Engineering originally provided the County with design alternatives in 2013 for a first-phase of construction to stabilize the damaged Norriego Point structures and reduce the shoreline erosion and channel shoaling causing hazardous navigation conditions within Destin Harbor. We assessed the existing structures, reviewed existing permit and construction documents, and provided design alternatives coupled with advantage/disadvantage summaries and cost estimates to allow the County and City to select the most robust and cost-effective alternative within the available budget. The resulting first phase modified the existing T-groin (landward sheet pile return wall) to minimize the potential for structure flanking and increase shoreline stabilization. The selected alternative resulted in a cost savings of over $100,000 — a cost reduction of over 50% compared to the original design. Taylor Engineering administered nearly all phases of the project (i.e., preliminary design, permit modifications, construction drawings/specifications, and administration). Subcontractors provided survey support and environmental (shorebird) monitoring services.

Given the success of the first phase and our in-depth understanding of the project and East Pass, FDEP selected Taylor Engineering to value engineer existing construction documents (prepared by a separate consultant) and re-design the full stabilization project to meet the State's $10M budget. We reviewed the existing plans, recommended design revisions, obtained permit modifications, and prepared updated construction plans and technical specifications that ultimately saved the FDEP and City millions of dollars. Notably, LMJ provided geotechnical services. FDEP contracted Taylor Engineering to provide construction administration, observation, and final certification services for the highly successful project. Construction included rehabilitating existing T-groins with enhanced scour protection, constructing two sand-tight T-groin breakwaters and a sheet pile wall and rock terminal structure, dredging East Pass and Destin Harbor, and restoring Norriego Point beach and dunes with the dredged sand. Taylor Engineering also prepared final designs for recreational components including bathroom facilities, upland boardwalks and dune walkovers, roadway extensions, and increased parking.

As an example of our seawall design experience, Florida Power & Light Company (FPL) retained Taylor Engineering to provide coastal and structural engineering design and environmental permitting for a seawall and breakwater/artificial reef to protect a nuclear power plant discharge canal and headwall structure from severe coastal erosion. To work around the existing subaqueous 12-ft diameter discharge pipe, Taylor Engineering designed a braced excavation structure to allow seawall construction without anchor interferences or vibratory damages to the critical existing structures. Taylor Engineering also has extensive experience in the planning and assessment of coastal structures. After years of successfully assisting the Town of Manalapan with its coastal engineering needs — particularly with the design, permitting, and construction phases of seawalls — the Town contracted Taylor Engineering to conduct a technical review and provide recommendations for its new seawall ordinance.

Project manager Duncan Greer, P.E.'s local experience includes design, permitting, and construction of numerous marina/waterfront facility structures, including, shoreline erosion control, docking, and access structures at parks with innovative designs. He has also designed and permitted numerous bulkheads and rock revetments for shoreline stabilization and storm protection along the Gulf of Mexico and bay shorelines.



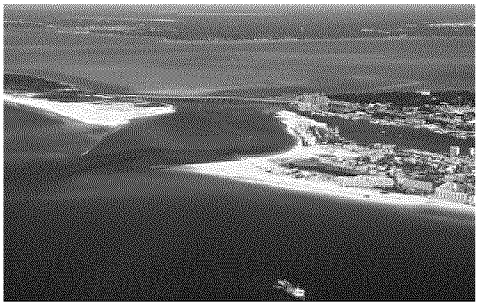
Suzuki Marine Technical Center, Panama City

Recently, Mr. Greer led design and permitting efforts for the waterfront facilities of Suzuki Marine Technical Center in Panama City including revetments, vessel haul-out expansion, jetty structure, bulkheads, boat ramp, fixed and floating access piers, dredging and shoreline stabilization. The project also has required extensive coordination with regulators due to sensitivity of archaeological/cultural resources at the site.

Most projects Mr. Greer has managed or assisted have considered a variety of proposed structures and geotechnical conditions, sensitive environmental areas, and included coastal conditions analyses and numerical modeling to evaluate configurations and anticipated performance. For nearly every major project, he has prepared cost estimates, construction drawings, and technical specifications; assisted with bid administration; performed construction administration and observation to ensure compliance with contract documents; and prepared final certifications.

4. Coastal Inlet Hydrodynamics, Morphology, and Structure Experience

Experience evaluating coastal inlet hydrodynamics, morphology, and structures. (10 Points)



East Pass Inlet

We believe Taylor Engineering's inlet-related experience is second to none in the coastal engineering field. We have thoroughly modeled Okaloosa County's East Pass Inlet (including Destin Harbor and Choctawhatchee Bay) as well as all of the major inlets within the Florida panhandle. We have also modeled every Atlantic Ocean inlet from the North Carolina/South Carolina border south through Key West, Florida as part of our detailed regional modeling work for FEMA. Beyond that, we have completed detailed sediment transport studies of multiple inlets on Florida's panhandle, east and west coasts. Since the 1990's, Taylor Engineering has authored five state-adopted inlet management plans, including the East Pass plan. All of these plans involved close coordination with local sponsors, technical advisory committees, project stakeholders, FDEP, and USACE Jacksonville or Mobile Districts. Coupled with our numerical wave and sediment transport models, we also apply tidal hydrodynamic models to compute storm surge; design inlet jetties; assess inlet impacts on adjacent beaches; define inlet dredging templates by examining impacts on inlet shoaling, navigation, and adjacent beaches; and examine flushing and water quality for various beach and estuary restoration projects.

The first project Taylor Engineering performed directly for Okaloosa County was the development of a comprehensive management plan to improve the sand bypassing capabilities of East Pass (1999 East Pass Inlet Management Plan). The project included documentation and analysis of the physical characteristics of the inlet, beaches, and sea bottom within the area of inlet influence and assessed pre-project (1967) and existing (1996) inlet conditions, jetty configuration modifications, navigation channel relocations, and potential breaching of Norriego Point. This work addressed littoral processes; inlet hydraulics; effects of structures and channel maintenance operations; historic changes in beaches, bathymetry and shoreline positions; wind and wave characteristics; littoral sediment characterization; development of a sediment budget; and identification and evaluation of various management alternatives. The sediment budget provided a means to evaluate inlet impacts on sand bypassing and to determine inlet management alternatives for mitigation of detrimental impacts. The project also involved stakeholder outreach and regular project updates with the technical advisory committee formed with members from Okaloosa County, City of Destin, Eglin AFB, FDEP, USACE and the U.S. Coast Guard. Following evaluations of environmental and physical impacts and construction costs to determine feasibility, Taylor Engineering recommended a specific management plan that addressed the concerns of all the plan participants. Notably, the 1999 plan recommendations included the need for stabilizing Norriego Point.

From our design and post-construction monitoring of the Eglin AFB, West Destin, and Destin/Walton Beach Restoration Projects, we also have detailed local knowledge and a comprehensive understanding of the ebb shoal system and the inlet's effect on adjacent beaches, providing us the information necessary to make recommendations regarding East Pass inlet management. Furthermore, local Taylor Engineering staff attended all Norriego Point blue ribbon panel (design) meetings. Our project manager provided numerous design recommendations for increased Destin Harbor protection and cost savings based on his local knowledge and experience and presented project alternatives for increased funding opportunities that were ultimately selected as the preferred solution.

More recently, FDEP adopted an updated East Pass Inlet Management Implementation Plan (2013) that addressed recent changes to the inlet occurring from the 2004 and 2005 hurricane seasons. During the development of the updated plan, local Taylor Engineering staff attended numerous technical advisory committee meetings, thoroughly reviewed the plan, and provided comments to both Okaloosa County and FDEP prior to the plan's adoption. In summary, the FDEP-adopted 2013 Implementation Plan outlines four strategies for managing East Pass. Given our local knowledge and experience, Taylor Engineering has been selected by various entities to implement these strategies. The strategies and our involvement are summarized below.

1. Implement a Comprehensive Beach and Inlet Monitoring Program – Taylor has monitored East Pass ebb shoal and adjacent beaches for 13+ years and maintain a database of all survey data.
2. Modify the Inlet Sand Transfer Protocol to Allow Sand Placement Both East and West of East Pass – Taylor Engineering obtained FDEP and USACE permits that authorize the City of Destin to dredge material from the inlet and place material east or west of the inlet per State Statute. The disposal location will be determined from the monitoring protocols established by Taylor and approved by FDEP. We also assisted the USACE with modifying its existing authorization for the same activity.
3. Complete the Stabilization of Norriego Point – As previously mentioned, we were FDEP's project engineer for designing and managing the Norriego Point Stabilization Project.
4. Investigate Availability and Feasibility of Supplemental Inlet Sediment Excavation – In support of this strategy, we submitted a funding request to FDEP on behalf of the County for performing the feasibility study. The funding request was granted, and Taylor Engineering completed the East Pass Supplemental Sediment Excavation Feasibility Study in 2021. The study included a performance evaluation of preliminary basin alternatives and developed a sediment basin configuration that could save Okaloosa County around $700,000 per year over the existing East Pass dredging protocol.

Taylor Engineering has also managed numerous dredging projects within Destin Harbor and East Pass. We maintain a database of past navigation channel dredging projects and surveys within East Pass which give us a significant advantage for quickly assessing shoaling patterns, past dredging efforts and potential future inlet management (dredging) initiatives. We also supported the County with its federal Section 204 study (beneficial use of dredged material) by providing support and oversight services to ensure the study's effectiveness regarding County inlet issues.

East Pass Supplemental Inlet Sediment Excavation Morphological Modeling

With our local knowledge and comprehensive understanding of the East Pass Inlet, Choctawhatchee Bay and Destin Harbor areas, coupled with our experience with the past and present Inlet Management Plans, Destin Harbor dredging projects, and the current Norriego Point Stabilization Project, Taylor Engineering is most qualified to assist the County with any future East Pass inlet and beach management initiatives. Additionally, as a local and avid boater who frequently navigates East Pass, Project Manager Duncan Greer has practical knowledge of East Pass.

5. Capability and Current Workload

Current workload and capability of personnel to provide desired service. (10 Points)

The Taylor Engineering team includes highly qualified personnel experienced in the major tasks and technical abilities outlined in the RFQ. As evidenced throughout this submittal, our team has unmatched experience working on coastal projects within Okaloosa County and the Florida panhandle and has the capacity to perform all services as described in the RFQ. The previous sections detail Taylor Engineering's technical capabilities and project experience and clearly indicate our capability to perform the requested services. This section contains additional information on Taylor Engineering's capacity to perform the required work. Tab 3 provides additional information on key personnel for this contract.

The organizational chart in Tab 3 identifies our project leadership structure and proposed key personnel for the County's Coastal and Environmental Engineering Services contract. The chart also identifies names and functions of additional support (sub-contractor) personnel that may be assigned to work on this project. A Personnel Qualifications Matrix following the organizational chart summarizes the team's key personnel experience with major tasks and technical requirements associated with Okaloosa County's requested coastal and environmental engineering services. Notably, all proposed personnel have vast experience within Okaloosa County, understand the unique coastal environment, and are highly proficient in the services described in the RFQ. Individual experience and qualifications summaries for key personnel are provided in Tab 3. Together, the organizational chart, matrix, and personnel summaries evidence the Taylor Engineering team's comprehensive qualifications and professional abilities to address challenges associated with each of the requested coastal and environmental engineering services.

As evidenced by the chart below, Taylor Engineering's available work capacity exceeds its present and anticipated workload. Staff will be consistently available to provide service to Okaloosa County and Taylor Engineering commits to providing the human resources necessary for this contract.

We stand prepared to allocate professional resources effectively and prosecute multiple projects concurrently. As an example, Taylor Engineering managed the $8M Western Destin Beach Restoration while concurrently designing, permitting, and providing bid administration for the Okaloosa County Dune Restoration and Beach Access Management Project. During this time, Okaloosa County and the City of Destin requested Taylor Engineering provide expedited design and permitting services for the Destin Harbor Emergency Dredging Project. Sufficient professional staff and skilled project management allowed Taylor Engineering to obtain survey data, design the project, and submit permit applications within 10 days following authorization. Through close coordination with state regulators, the FDEP permit was issued within two weeks following submittal. We performed the Destin Harbor Emergency Dredging work while concurrently managing the two ongoing, large-scale projects. Should a financial windfall (e.g., NRDA, RESTORE ACT) occur within the County or panhandle area or a major storm event impact the region, Taylor Engineering is fully committed to meeting the potential workload demand from the County. Notably, nearly all the projects mentioned in this solicitation have been managed by our Destin office clearly demonstrating our track record for successfully managing numerous large- and small-scale projects concurrently and our commitment to unmatched service to Okaloosa County.

6. Office Location

Due to occasional unanticipated project meetings, location of personnel providing desired services is considered to be a key factor. Less than a half day travel time (12 hours) is preferred. Indicate your staff's estimated response time for meetings of short notice. (10 Points)

We will manage and perform work for this contract from our existing full-service Destin office, located in Okaloosa County approximately eleven miles east of the Okaloosa County Tourism Development Department (TDD) (Visitor's Center) on Okaloosa Island.

The travel time between our offices is approximately 16 minutes. Upon a call from the County at any given time, Taylor Engineering guarantees staff can join an in-person meeting within 12 hours. Our response time for meetings of short notice is almost immediate, and often anticipated during construction administration. Following an urgent request, Taylor Engineering staff could normally meet County staff anywhere within the County in under 2 hours.

Our local office provides us immediate proximity to the Tourist Development Department administration. Our project manager, Duncan Greer, P.E. has a proven history of being able to respond to emergency issues or short notice meetings without additional charges or per diem requirements, providing substantial savings and value to the County. As an example of our commitment to Okaloosa County, below is a short list of sites and occasions where Taylor Engineering staff have met on short notice upon request by the County.

- Okaloosa Island and Destin pre-storm documentation prior to numerous storms (recently Hurricanes Hermine in 2017, Michael in 2018, and Sally in 2020)
- Okaloosa County beaches to review and document sand quality
- Panama City Beach to review new shell screening technology in operation
- Numerous visits to County beaches to investigate reports of increased erosion
- Veteran's Park with County staff, Commissioner, and regulatory staff to discuss concerns related to potential species impacts (less than 4 hours' notice provided)
- Numerous artificial reef material inspections at County facilities (Arbennie Pritchett) and Eglin AFB Ranges
- Offshore fishing buoy retrieval structural inspection (2022)

Over the past 25+ years we have presented project concepts and study results and spoken at numerous Board of County Commissioners (BCC) and TDD meetings as well as public workshops for public engagement and community relations. We have also attended many individual meetings with County commissioners, staff and third parties to discuss coastal engineering or environmental issues. Our local staff members also regularly attend TDD and Board meetings to remain informed of County matters and directives. Notably, for these services, Taylor Engineering did not request payment for additional travel or per diem charges. We will continue to make available any of the team resources to attend project meetings or provide input to County staff.

Taylor Engineering staff works diligently to ensure County staff members stay informed through all phases of ongoing and potential projects. We provide regular project updates and immediately inform County staff of potential project issues. We update County staff on industry news, funding opportunities, and potential partnerships for County projects. We meet deadlines, educate County staff about the technical aspects of our work, and respond to the County's requests even at our expense. Project manager Duncan Greer, P.E. regularly makes himself available to ensure the County stayed informed of critical issues and projects stayed on-track. We encourage you to contact Mr. Alex Fogg to discuss our commitment to Okaloosa County, availability to meet critical deadlines and address issues, and our past performance record on attending short notice meetings.

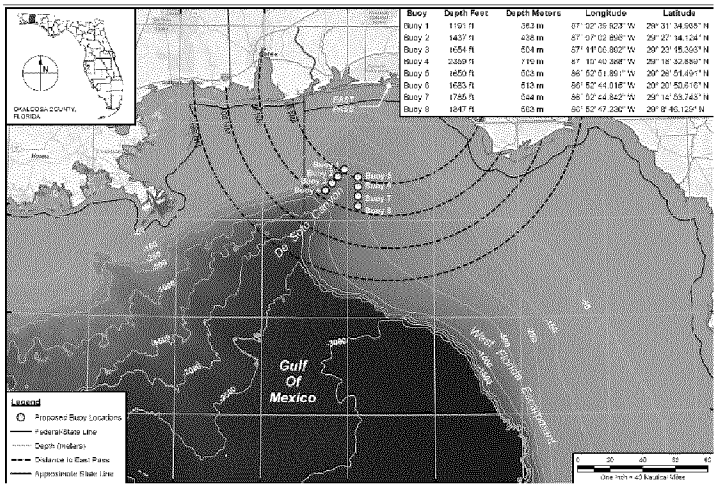
Our invaluable knowledge of Okaloosa County's natural areas enhanced by our long-term local presence, long-term history and familiarity with the TDD, and our existing professional relationships with County staff provide Taylor Engineering a unique advantage for cost-effective problems solving and practical solutions that fit the County's goals and budget.

7. Artificial Reef Experience

Experience in design/permitting and construction management of artificial reefs. (10 Points)

Taylor Engineering has a tremendous amount of artificial reef experience and has performed conceptual and final design, planning, permitting, and construction-phase services for dozens of artificial reef projects. Our artificial reef experience ranges from large-scale reefs for fisheries habitat, storm protection and mitigation (creating reefs in nearshore and estuarine environments) to relatively small-scale reefs for snorkeling or oyster restoration. We have also provided permitting assistance for large vessel deployments to enhance fishing and diving opportunities along the Gulf and Atlantic coasts.



Offshore Fishing Buoy Network

Taylor Engineering provided feasibility, design, permitting and construction administration for the eight Offshore Fishing Buoys, which were completed in 2021. This project is the first of its kind in the contiguous United States. Recently, Taylor Engineering also completed the County's Artificial Reef Management plan, which documents the program's framework and future initiatives have unmatched artificial reef experience in Okaloosa County. Our most significant involvement began in 2011 following the BP oil spill. To support the County's desire to mitigate impacts to offshore resources, fisheries, and public access to the Gulf, we worked with Scott Henson to quickly plan and design four artificial reefs areas (two offshore fishing/diving reefs and two nearshore snorkel reefs) and then prepared permit application packages to support the County's NRDA applications. Following the preliminary approval of these artificial reefs, we began working to develop a long-term plan for the County which ultimately included seven offshore fishing/diving reef areas (each ¼-mile or ¼-nautical mile square), eight snorkel reef areas, and the reauthorization of the County's three Large Area Artificial Reef Sites (LAARS) in federal waters. In total, the 18 regulatory permits authorize approximately 250 square miles of Gulf bottom for artificial reef development. Excluding the LAARS, the permitted reef areas within Fish Havens 13-19 and nearshore reefs provide the County over 70 individual artificial reef sites.

Most recently, Taylor Engineering obtained FDEP authorization for 3- 1-nm square reef sites (LAARS) in state waters, allowing for vessel deployments in state waters, another step towards County goals of yearly vessel deployments in recreationally accessible waters. Taylor Engineering has also conducted vessel stability analysis on-call for the County, with quick tools to evaluate specific vessels and their minimum required depth of deployment for stability during return-period storm events. Taylor Engineering understands the County's ambition to develop vessel deployments in state waters and has helped site and develop a clear path toward that goal.

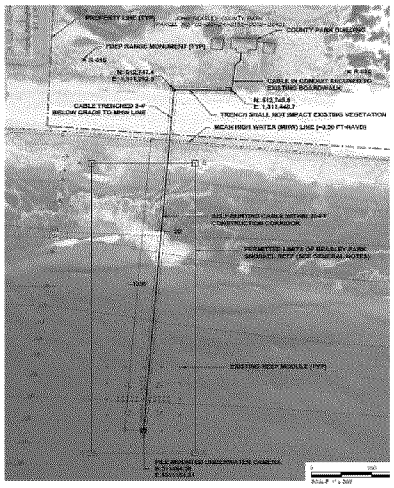
Artificial Reef Planning and Design Example

For these projects, Taylor Engineering performs desktop investigations and offshore bottom surveys of the proposed areas to ensure the sites were devoid of submerged resources and were suitable for reef deployment. Given our long history with Okaloosa County, our thorough understanding of the local area, in-house data libraries, and project stakeholder input, we quickly addressed regulatory concerns regarding long-range strategic planning, offshore resources, beach borrow area conflicts, construction methodologies, and structure stability and settlement. We prepared and submitted permit application packages, including a biological assessment, certified permit drawings, and all required support information. This close coordination resulted in the FDEP issuing permits for the offshore and nearshore artificial reef sites within 30 days of receiving the applications. Our development of a county-wide biological assessment and permitting template for artificial reefs greatly expedited the permitting process and provides the County framework for cost-effective reef permitting in the future.

Over the last 10 years, Taylor Engineering has obtained regulatory permits for nine nearshore reefs, Fish Havens 13-19, Fish Havens 20-22 (three state water LAARS), reauthorization of LAARS A-C (including the private reef deployment program), and the eight offshore fishing buoys. Over the last five years, Taylor Engineering provided Okaloosa final design and construction-phase services of eight nearshore reefs areas, dozens of offshore patch reefs, and the offshore fishing buoys. Currently, Taylor Engineering is assisting the County with final engineering for an underwater camera system at the nearshore reef off John Beasley Park.



Underwater Camera at Beasley Park

In addition to the planning, design, and permitting services mentioned above, our Destin office has also been instrumental in assisting the County with developing the partnership with Eglin AFB (through the tri-County partnership initiative), wherein Eglin will provide significant volumes of re-purposed concrete materials for artificial reef creation. Taylor Engineering managed the first phase of project construction in 2016 (design, bidding, construction, and final certification) which included two large-scale fishing reefs. The reefs have been very successful in attracting the targeted reef fish and proven very popular with local fisherman, divers, and project stakeholders. Notably, although the pioneering project faced significant challenges, the project was constructed on-time and under budget with no change orders.

Taylor Engineering is also well equipped to support funding acquisition efforts, having drafted the current template for the FWC Artificial Reef Construction Grant Application. We have also successfully assisted Okaloosa County with obtaining grant funding for artificial reefs. We have prepared numerous FWC grant applications for artificial reef construction and have received three grant awards totaling over $200,000 (the previously mentioned Eglin AFB projects are both partly grant funded). Additionally, we have provided the County support for numerous other successful grants including approximately $1.7M from NRDA and $1.2M from RESTORE. We have also provided support for NRDA, FDEP, FWC, and other grant funding requests and provided on-call assistance for the following phases of NRDA project construction. The following phases of the project provided even greater funding for construction in 2021.

Other Gulf of Mexico and panhandle project experience includes assisting Walton County and the local non-profit South Walton Artificial Reef Association (SWARA) with creating an entirely new artificial reef program, developing an artificial reef management plan, and design and permitting of 11 ¼-nautical mile square reef areas, four snorkel reefs, and a five-square nautical mile LAARS. Our local Destin staff frequently coordinated with project stakeholders (county and local state park staff, local fisherman, and regulatory staff) throughout the management plan development and permitting, resulting in expedited plan development and regulatory authorizations. Taylor Engineering was also selected by Santa Rosa County to manage their $1.4M NRDA-funded artificial reef construction project. We prepared construction drawings and specifications and provided construction administration for expanding their existing nearshore reef and for 12-14 offshore artificial reef sites.

In summary, no other coastal engineering company can match our level of experience and knowledge of artificial reefs within the Florida panhandle. Further, with our extensive involvement in not only Okaloosa's artificial reef program, but also Walton and Santa Rosa Counties, we have built strong relationships with other panhandle artificial reef managers (Escambia County), and we regularly participate and contribute to panhandle reef manager meetings to share project experiences, recommend future initiatives, and provide recommendations for future follow-on monitoring. Additionally, these relationships and working experience with neighboring counties will likely also provide cost savings to Okaloosa County through regional partnerships and joint construction projects.

Team Member Qualifications

As mentioned in the Letter of Interest, the Taylor Engineering team includes six subconsultant firms to supplement our expertise, provide complimentary services, and to meet the County's needs. Notably, Taylor Engineering maintains a successful history of relevant experience with all team subconsultants. Projects include numerous coastal and environmental projects in Okaloosa County, Destin, and the Florida panhandle. Additionally, nearly all of these team members are on the County's current Coastal and Environmental Engineering Contract.

Seaside Engineering & Surveying, LLC (SEAS), a certified small business, maintains a full-service surveying office in Baker and has been in Okaloosa County since 2002. SEAS will provide Land Surveying and Mapping services. SEAS possesses vast knowledge of local conditions in addition to extensive tools, equipment, and personnel to provide efficient surveying and mapping services. SEAS realizes cost efficiency through their locality and is qualified to work on complex surveying beach, inlet, and dredging projects. SEAS has worked for the USACE surveying beaches throughout the state, and often has worked with Taylor Engineering on projects with the Port Panama City and FDEP.

With more than 40 years of geotechnical engineering experience, Pensacola-based Larry M. Jacobs & Associates, Inc. (LMJ), a veteran-owned small business, will provide In-shore Geotechnical Engineering and Analysis services. The firm specializes in professional geotechnical engineering, drilling, and materials testing services. With over 7,000 successfully completed projects, LMJ's local in-house drilling department remains one of the best equipped in the region, facilitating expedited project schedules. LMJ maintains a wide range of certifications, accreditations, and qualifications and an internal quality control program in accordance with the American Associate of State Highway and Transportation Officials (AASHTO) and the American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM). Notably, LMJ maintains a local office in Okaloosa County and provided geotechnical engineering services to Taylor Engineering for the Norriego Point Stabilization Project and numerous other waterfront development projects in Okaloosa County and the panhandle.

Geospatial, Inc. (GPI) has been a premier provider of geospatial solutions for over 49 years and maintains an office in Pensacola. GPI provides Precision Mapping, Aerial Imagery, and LiDAR Acquisition as well as surveying services for transportation, planning, design, construction, energy, and government clientele. GPI owns and operates multiple aircraft and vehicles equipped with advanced imagery and LiDAR sensors, providing customized solutions for our clients whether it's from the air, ground, or mobile platforms. Our team can gather, assess, standardize, and optimize geospatial data for use across the enterprise using GIS technology. Under a previous title (American Cartographics of America), GPI has completed numerous coastal imagery projects with Taylor Engineering and other team members, including aerial monitoring for the Destin/Walton and West Destin Beach Restoration Projects.

Amdrill, Inc./American Vibracore Services, Inc. (AVS) will provide Offshore Geotechnical Investigations and Vibracoring services for this contract. Since 1978, AVS has specialized in offshore and onshore geotechnical drilling, vibracore collection, and marine support services. AVS's USACE-certified lab offers a variety of laboratory testing methods. AVS has provided services for many projects throughout Florida and the Gulf of Mexico. Regionally, AVS has performed vibracoring and laboratory services for Taylor Engineering on projects such as Eglin Air Force Base/Okaloosa County/City of Destin Sand Source Investigation, Walton County Sand Source Investigation, and the Panama City Dredging Project. Taylor Engineering has also worked closely with AVS on numerous projects onshore and offshore of Florida, including for Ft. Pierce and Kings Bay Naval Base.

Northern Gulf Environmental, LLC (NGE) will provide Environmental Services support to Taylor Engineering's robust staff of environmental scientists and engineers. NGE's senior staff have been providing natural resource consulting services in Okaloosa and surrounding counties for nearly 20 years. NGE's Niceville-based staff provides a variety of professional environmental consulting services ranging from large public works projects and watershed management studies to small-scale site development. In Okaloosa County, our experience with NGE staff includes environmental service support on numerous projects including the Western Destin and Eglin AFB Beach Restoration and Norriego Point Stabilization Projects. The company's local experience includes environmental permitting (e.g., FDEP, USACE, FWC, and NWFWMD), natural resource studies, monitoring and water quality sampling for harbor and dredging projects, beach nourishment, dune planting, waterfront development, military projects, and habitat restoration and design.

With local offices in Crestview and Miramar Beach, and Florida offices in Pensacola, Tallahassee, Jacksonville, and Tampa, Halff Associates, Inc., (Halff) specializes in planning, landscape architecture, and civil engineering. The company will provide Landscape Architecture, Site, and Civil Engineering support for this contract. Our experience has shown that projects under this contract may require such services (e.g., beach access development/enhancement). Key staff from Halff have worked on County beach accesses and parks for decades under the name Genesis, which was acquired by Halff. These team members, including Joe Petrich, PLA, have been on Taylor's current Coastal and Environmental Engineering team and were instrumental in the planning and landscape design for numerous County projects including the Okaloosa County Baywalk Project (Marler Park). Under their own contract, Halff designed and permitted the County's 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, & 6th Beach Park Accesses. In some form, the company has provided strategic planning and design services to the Tourist Development Council since 1991. Early works in support of the County's Beach Improvement and Resource Access Program that identified and mapped resource-based recreation opportunities on Okaloosa Island, the Choctawhatchee Bay planning area and within the beach and bay areas of the City of Destin. The purpose of this program remains to preserve and maintain high quality, public beach and bay access for tourists and residents. This program has led to the development of four beach access parks on Okaloosa Island, the June White Decker Beach access for the City of Destin, and the redesign and construction of Marler Park, a 13-acre park on Choctawhatchee Bay. Halff, partnered with Taylor Engineering, brings generational knowledge and provides continuity between County parks landscape architecture and site design, if needed.

Small Business Designations

While the RFQ does not have a stated requirement or threshold for utilizing small, minority, and women-owned businesses, the Grant Funded Clauses form requires respondents to take all necessary steps to assure these businesses are utilized when possible, in accordance with 2CFR 200.321. Taylor Engineering reached out to various organizations to obtain listings of potential subconsultants in the region to support our team. After reviewing the on-line databases of certified small businesses, Taylor Engineering staff reached out to numerous firms to inquire about their abilities to perform the requested subconsultant services.

Taylor Engineering has enhanced its team with the small businesses listed below. Given our familiarity with Okaloosa County and the services requested, many small businesses do not have the specialized expertise or equipment to perform the work likely required.

Team Member	Specialized Services	Small Business Designation
Taylor Engineering (Prime)	Coastal and Environmental Engineering	Federal Small Business
Larry M. Jacobs & Associates, Inc. (LMJ)	Geotechnical Engineering	Veteran-Owned Small Business
Seaside Engineering & Surveying, LLC (SEAS)	Nearshore and Upland Surveying and Mapping	Small Business
Geospatial, Inc. (GPI)	Aerial and Photogrammetric Services	N/A
Amdrill, Inc./American Vibracore Services (AVS)	Offshore Vibracoring and Geotechnical Engineering	Federal Small Business
Northern Gulf Environmental, LLC (NGE)	Local Environmental Support	N/A
Halff Associates, Inc., (Halff)	Landscape Architecture and Civil Engineering Support	N/A

As the true spirit and intent of the small business program has been achieved with these companies, and given their unmatched highly-specialized services and extensive direct experience with Okaloosa County and Taylor Engineering, we have included these firms on our team. Should additional services be required to the County, Taylor Engineering will continue to seek out qualified small, minority, and women-owned businesses to remain compliant with 2CFR 200.321.

Understanding of the County's Coastal Management Environment

Not only is Taylor Engineering qualified by the experience listed above, but it is also notable that Taylor Engineering has historical and recent knowledge of the County's beaches, coastal environmental resources, and ample experience with numerous regional coastal and environmental engineering projects over the last 25+ years. The section below describes our past and ongoing work with Okaloosa County in relation to future projects and our comprehensive understanding of the County's coastal management environment.

East Pass Inlet Management, Norriego Point, and Destin Harbor

Taylor Engineering first became involved with management of East Pass, Norriego Point, and Destin Harbor with the development of the East Pass Inlet Management Plan, which the Florida Department of Environmental Protection (FDEP) approved in 1999. More recently, FDEP adopted the East Pass Inlet Management Implementation Plan. During the development of the plan, local Taylor Engineering staff attended numerous technical advisory committee meetings, thoroughly reviewed the plan, and provided comments to both Okaloosa County and FDEP prior to the plan's adoption. We have also gained insight into the inlet's effect on adjacent beaches through beach monitoring efforts. Taylor Engineering has performed the physical monitoring for the Western Destin Beach Restoration Project. In addition, we performed the monitoring for the Destin/Walton and Eglin AFB projects. We also designed, permitted, and managed numerous Destin Harbor dredging projects. The above work experience provides us with the local knowledge and comprehensive understanding of the navigation channels and inlet system necessary to make recommendations regarding East Pass inlet management activities. Furthermore, as the design consultants for the Norriego Point Stabilization Project, our staff is intimately familiar with the inlet's coastal conditions, the proposed stabilization design and channel dredging project. With our local knowledge and comprehensive understanding of the Destin Harbor and Inlet area and our experience with the past and present inlet management plans, Destin Harbor dredging projects, and the Norriego Point Stabilization Project, Taylor Engineering is well suited to assist Okaloosa County with any future East Pass inlet management initiatives.

Federal Project Assistance

Taylor Engineering is intimately aware of the recent Federal Project activities and initiatives in Okaloosa County. From 2018 through 2021, Taylor Engineering provided assistance to Okaloosa County during the USACE Mobile District Okaloosa County Coastal Storm Risk Management (CSRM) Feasibility Study. During the CSRM Study, the USACE assessed the feasibility of providing shoreline erosion control, beach restoration, storm damage reduction, environmental restoration and protection, and related improvements along the Okaloosa County's Gulf of Mexico shorelines. Taylor Engineering supported Okaloosa County by attending project update meetings, reviewing draft reports and analyses, and evaluating the general study recommendations in terms of effectiveness as related to the County interests. Prior to the authorization of the CSRM project funding, Taylor Engineering assisted the County and the Mobile District with a Section 204 study (beneficial use of dredge material) to continue federal interest in the area. Taylor Engineering provided support and oversight services to ensure the study's effectiveness regarding County issues. For example, upon learning of the USACE's potential termination of the study, we worked with the County's lobbyist to prepare a letter of support for the Section 204 study and accompanied County staff to Washington D.C. to ensure congressional members and USACE headquarters staff fully understand the issues surrounding East Pass, Norriego Point, and Okaloosa County shorelines. We continue to work with the County and its lobbyist to support the implementation of the proposed Okaloosa County Federal Feasibility Study. Given our working relationship with the USACE Mobile District during the Walton County Federal Feasibility Study, our intimate knowledge of Okaloosa County projects, our existing resources (e.g., numerical models, project designs), and our vast federal project experience throughout Florida, Taylor Engineering has effectively assisted Okaloosa County and the USACE during the feasibility phase and hopes to continue through additional federal studies. In developing federal feasibility studies and general reevaluation reports for the USACE's projects in Amelia Island, Lido Key, Fort Pierce Beach, and Jupiter/Carlin, we have gained intimate knowledge of the federal plan formulation process.

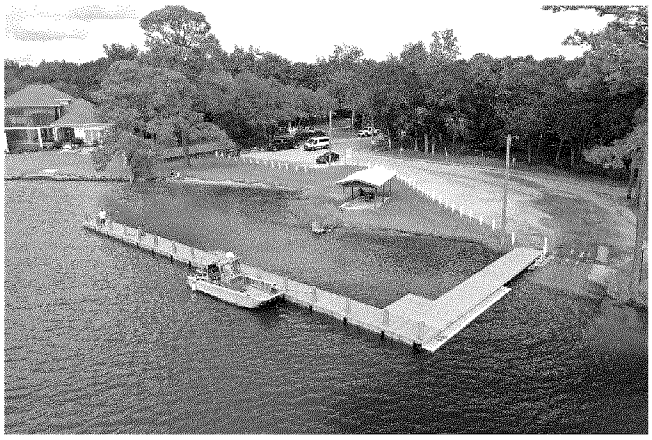
County Parks and Public Works

Taylor Engineering has performed conceptual design, planning, permitting, final design, and construction-phase services for numerous beach and bay access facilities. We have performed planning, design, and permitting services for the Okaloosa County Baywalk Project, Poquito Bayou Park (Longwood Park), as well as several City parks and currently provides design and permitting services for numerous other living shoreline projects within Choctawhatchee Bay. Our extensive experience and in-depth understanding of coastal erosion and natural resource issues help us determine the most effective restoration solution(s) to meet project goals. Our work products, relationships with project stakeholders, and overall project understanding provide us a significant advantage for future final engineering design and construction-phase services required for project implementation. Taylor Engineering has also designed and permitted numerous waterfront and coastal structures such as marinas, boat ramps, dune walkovers, and supporting upland facilities. We are well qualified to provide in-house engineering design services for County park improvements such as parking facilities, beach accesses, boat ramps, bathroom facilities, and ADA facilities.



Poquito Bayou Park Wave Fence and Dock Extension

Choctawhatchee Bay Watershed Projects

Taylor Engineering is familiar with the formation of the Okaloosa and Walton County partnership for the restoration of the Choctawhatchee Bay watershed. Our staff participated in numerous watershed partnership meetings and has made recommendations regarding oyster reef restoration, living shorelines, and water quality initiatives within Choctawhatchee Bay.

Disaster Response

With its local Destin office, Taylor Engineering is well equipped to provide rapid assistance to the County prior to or following a severe storm or environmental disaster (oil spill, etc.). We have assisted various government entities throughout Florida with post-hurricane beach assessments and design, permitting, and construction administration services for emergency restoration projects. Locally, we assisted the City of Destin and Walton County with post-storm assessments and dune restoration projects following hurricanes Ivan and Dennis and assisted Okaloosa County and Destin with additional emergency beach and dune restoration projects along Holiday Isle in 2008 and 2010. Our experience includes design, permitting, and construction of FEMA-sponsored projects, which include a host of FEMA-specific design standards and submittals.

In short, our local office, with unwavering support from our other full-service offices, has the experience and staff necessary to provide the County immediate assistance in emergency situations. Should a severe storm or other disaster occur, our vast project experience and in-house work products (e.g., historic beach survey databases and numerical models) will enable us to rapidly provide post-storm beach assessments and, if necessary, expedite design, bid and construction-phase services. In addition, our relationships with the City of Destin, Eglin AFB, and Walton County will allow us to facilitate regional cooperation with potential simultaneous projects, providing significant cost savings to the County and its partners.

Western Destin and Okaloosa Island Beach Restoration Projects

As the County's coastal engineering expert witness and design engineer during the design and permitting phase of the Western Destin and Okaloosa Island Beach Restoration Projects, Taylor Engineering possesses crucial knowledge and understanding of these projects. The Western Destin project was constructed early 2013. Taylor Engineering performed construction administration as well as annual monitoring since project construction. Given the increased erosion within the western project area and the potential for renourishment in the near future, Taylor Engineering's existing work products will provide the County the most cost-effective solution for rapidly performing construction phases services, if needed.

Regarding the Okaloosa Island Project, FDEP authorized the project on February 6, 2012; however, outspoken opposition from local groups prompted the Okaloosa Board of County Commissioners to delay project construction. Should a severe storm or other factors sway public opinion in favor of the project, our extensive project experience and in-house work products will enable us to rapidly provide post-storm beach assessments, if necessary, and expedite bid and construction-phase services.

Summary

Taylor Engineering provides unsurpassed knowledge of the solicited services and thoroughly understands past, current, and upcoming Okaloosa County projects. We understand the level of complexity and demand that may accompany simultaneous beach restoration and shoreline protection projects or assessments, and we possess the professional staff and working relationships to manage increased workloads and accelerated schedules resulting from numerous concurrent projects. As the County's current Coastal and Environmental Engineering Consultant and expert witness for previous beach restoration projects, we fully understand the controversial nature of coastal projects and have the professional integrity, technical expertise, and community relations skills necessary to manage and implement coastal projects from concept through completion. With over 25 years of experience with Okaloosa County beaches, intimate local knowledge and involvement with recent projects, and comprehensive understanding of the process and requirements of coastal and environmental engineering projects, Taylor Engineering is most qualified to assist the County with its current and upcoming projects.

We contend that few companies, if any, can match Taylor Engineering's combination of assets: our superb working relationship with local, regional, state, and federal personnel; our proven success with coastal planning, management, and engineering projects; and our dedicated, Destin- and Florida-based staff. For Okaloosa County, no other engineering firm or project manager can show the same level of experience on County projects or match our understanding of the local area.

SUBJECT: Dredge Interlocal with the County

I. BACKGROUND: The harbor channel requires regular dredging to maintain the ability of larger vessels to navigate safely in the harbor. The County has agreed to partner with the City at this time to accomplish the dredging. In September 2024, council adopted $435,000 towards dredging the Destin Harbor channel. At the October 24, 2024 regular council meeting, Council accepted a grant from FDEP in the amount of $100,000 to dredge the Destin Harbor. At the December 16, 2024 regular council meeting, Council accepted the bid committee's recommendation to hire Gator Dredging in the amount of $648,170 and for staff to negotiate contract terms. The Gator Dredging contract is currently undergoing legal review.

II. DISCUSSION: The County has agreed to partner with the city on this project. The attached interlocal agreement between the BOCC and the City proposes a 50/50 split of expenditures to dredge the Destin Harbor. The agreement assumes a maximum project amount of $800,000, and therefore, a maximum commitment by the BOCC of $400,000. The City shall submit invoices to the County as work progresses, and the County will reimburse the City as per customary terms (within 30 days). The BOCC has permission and support to use TDC funds, and the BOCC passed this interlocal on January 7th, 2025.

A. Link to Strategic Goals / Objectives:

B. Effect on Budget (EOB): A budget amendment is attached to increase the FY 2025 Budget revenues and expenditures in the amount of the grant agreement to dredge the harbor channel. Below is the estimated effect on budget if this grant is accepted and if the contract is successfully negotiated with Gator Dredging in the amount of $648,170:

THIS INTERLOCAL AGREEMENT ("Agreement") is entered into by and between OKALOOSA COUNTY, FLORIDA, a political subdivision of the State of Florida (the "County") and the CITY OF DESTIN, a municipality organized under the laws of the State of Florida (the "City") (collectively, the County and City will hereinafter be referred to as the "Parties").

WHEREAS, the Board of County Commissioners and the City Council agree that the maintenance of the East Pass Channel and the Destin Harbor Channel are preeminent goals, the furtherance of which ensures the continued economic viability of the City and County as a whole, as well as specific benefits to tourism and the general public; and

WHEREAS, in furtherance of this preeminent goal, the County and the City desire to work together to dredge the Destin Harbor Channel ("Harbor"); and

WHEREAS, the City has completed much of the ground work by securing permits, obtaining estimates, and laying out a plan as shown in various attachments in Attachment A; and

WHEREAS, the City's dredging plan has laid out a project consisting of the dredging of approximately 10,000 cubic yards via a Baskerville-Donovan, Inc. survey ("Project"); and

WHEREAS, the Parties agree the dredging is needed now and both desire the implementation of this dredging to occur in near future, as soon as possible; and

WHEREAS, the City has previously performed a harbor dredging project and has agreed to be the lead on this dredging project through procurement, Project oversight and closeout, and all other activities necessary to complete the Project; and

WHEREAS, the County has agreed to providing funding for 50% of the dredging costs for external expenses up to a maximum of $400,000 dollars, with the City being responsible for any overage; and

WHEREAS, both Parties agree this is a valid tourism expenditure that further promotes tourism and facilitates the promotion of the many tourism activities located within the harbor; and

WHEREAS, this Agreement is intended to formalize the Parties' relationship and describe how the Project will proceed forward.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the above recitals, mutual covenants, promises and agreements contained herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are acknowledged, the County and the City agree as follows:

SECTION 1. AUTHORITY. This Agreement is entered into pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 163.01, Florida Statutes, and other applicable provisions of law.

SECTION 2. RECITALS. The above recitals are true and accurate and are incorporated herein as essential terms of the Agreement.

SECTION 3. PARTIES. The Parties to this Agreement are the County and the City.

SECTION 4. DETAILS OF THE PROJECT.

A. The Project is permitted and must follow FDEP permit 0288799-003-JC, which expires February 26, 2030 and is hereby incorporated by reference.

B. Additionally, the Project is based on the 2-page survey dated November 7, 2023, a 2-page cut/fill report from the City Engineer, and a 5-page "Destin Harbor Maintenance Dredging" design plan. The survey, Cut/fill Report and the Plan are all part of Attachment A of the Destin Harbor Maintenance Dredging design plan and incorporated herein by reference.

C. City shall handle all aspects of the Project, including design, permitting, public coordination, procurement, scheduling, contracting for dredging, inspection, etc. The County is responsible solely for providing funding for half of the estimated project costs capped at $400,000 dollars. The Parties agree to coordinate on major decisions and provide necessary support to ensure project success.

D. The Parties intend to work collaboratively throughout all phases of this Project.

E. Public credit for the Project shall be equally shared by the City, County, and Destin-Fort Walton Beach Tourism in press releases, signage, website, interviews, social media, and other public information disseminated from the Parties. The Parties agree to use their best efforts to coordinate with each other on all media related releases.

SECTION 5. FUNDING/EXPENDITURES OF THE PROJECT.

A. Funding and Use of Funds. The Parties agree to fund the Project engineer's estimate for up to $800,000 in total, with 50% in funding from each Party, including contingency. Any additional amount in excess of that total shall be the responsibility of the City. None of the funds shall be used for employees of either Party, any attorney/legal fees, design/permit costs, or costs already incurred prior to the approval of this Agreement. Funds that are unexpended at the conclusion of the Project shall be no longer considered pledged.

B. Expenditure of funds - The City shall be reimbursed by the County as expenses are incurred and paid. The City may bill the County monthly for its portion of any permitted costs, providing detailed invoices and proof of payment. The County shall process and reimburse the City within 30 days of receiving the invoice, once determined to be complete and accurate. The City may expend eligible Project funds any time after the effective day of this Agreement.

SECTION 6. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE. The Parties agree to utilize best efforts to timely complete this Project as quickly as possible, but still in a fiscally responsible manner.

SECTION 7. EFFECTIVE DATE/TERM. This Agreement shall take effect upon full execution by both Parties and recording of this Agreement as set forth in Section 21 below. The warranties and covenants described herein shall continue until project completion or Jan 1, 2026 whichever occurs first.

SECTION 8. RECORDS AND REPORTING.

A. The Parties agree to maintain books, records, documents, and other evidence according to generally accepted governmental accounting principles, procedures, and practices, which sufficiently and properly reflect all costs and expenditures of any nature incurred in connection with the Project. Records shall be maintained for a minimum of five years after the completion of the Project, or for as long as the State Retention schedule in effect at the time of completion of the Project requires, whichever is longer.

B. Neither the City nor the County shall assume any responsibility for the other entity's failure to respond, timely, or at all, to a public records request. A request upon one entity shall not be deemed to be a request on the other entity.

SECTION 9. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES. Each party hereby represents and warrants to the other that it has all requisite power, authority and authorization to enter into this Agreement, has taken all necessary actions required to enter into this Agreement, and to fulfill any and all of its obligations, duties, and responsibilities provided for or required of it by this Agreement, whether exercised individually or collectively.

SECTION 10. AMENDMENTS. Neither this Agreement nor any portion of it may be modified or waived orally. The provisions hereof may be amended or waived only pursuant to a written instrument approved by the City Council and the Board of County Commissioners, and jointly executed by the Parties. This Agreement shall be enforced and be binding upon, and inure to the benefits of, the Parties hereto and their respective survivors and assigns, if any. This Agreement shall not be assigned without the prior written permission of all Parties to the Agreement.

SECTION 11. DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND VENUE. The Parties shall first attempt to resolve any dispute that arise under this Agreement in good faith by participating in mediation. This mediation shall be in lieu of the requirements of the "Florida Governmental Conflict Resolution Act." The mediator shall be mutually agreed upon by the Parties and the cost of mediation shall be borne equally between the Parties. In the event the matter is not resolved through the mediation process, each party shall be free to pursue any of its available remedies. Upon failure of such mediation, venue for disputes shall be in the circuit courts of Okaloosa County, Florida for state law matters, and the Northern District of Florida for federal matters.

SECTION 12. JURY TRIAL WAIVER. IN THE EVENT THAT LITIGATION IS FILED BY ANY PARTY TO ENFORCE ANY TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT, THEN ALL PARTIES AGREE THAT THEY HEREBY WAIVE ANY RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL ON ANY ISSUES ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT.

SECTION 13. ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS. If litigation is instituted seeking to enforce the terms of this Agreement, or in any way related to this Agreement, then the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in the litigation, including fees and cost incurred in any resulting appeal, and any fees and costs incurred litigating entitlement to and the reasonableness of any attorney's fees and costs.

SECTION 14. SEVERABILITY. If any one or more of the provisions of this Agreement shall be held contrary to any express provision of law or contrary to any policy of express law, then the remainder of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

SECTION 15. GOVERNING LAW. The validity, construction and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Florida.

SUBJECT: Contract Approval - Paystar

I. BACKGROUND: The City of Destin has been using Global Payments for payment processing services for over three years but is seeking a more cost-effective solution that integrates with our new software packages.

II. DISCUSSION: Although Global Payments is one of the few providers that work with Tyler Technologies, the City is moving from Tyler to MGO (for Permitting and Licensing) and Aclarian (for Accounting). This transition creates an opportunity to switch to Paystar, which integrates with both MGO and Aclarian, is significantly more cost-effective, and is recommended by the software vendors.

A. Link to Strategic Goals / Objectives: I. Financially sound city providing service excellence
B. Effect on Budget (EOB): Global Payments charges the City a 7% transaction fee, averaging about $15,000 per month.
Paystar charges a 3% fee expected to average $6500 per month.

Each of PAYSTAR and City may be individually referred to herein as a "Party" and, collectively, as the "Parties".

WHEREAS, PAYSTAR is in the business of providing services to third parties using its proprietary Platform (defined below) which facilitate the online payment or collection of account receivables, fines, fees, taxes, utility bills, and other similar amounts, via credit or debit cards or ACH transactions and providing other services that are ancillary thereto; and

WHEREAS, City, as part of its business operations, has a need to receive the payment of, or to otherwise collect, such amounts, desires to engage a provider of services relating to such receipt or collection, and desires to enter into this Agreement to engage PAYSTAR for the performance of such services.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants contained herein, and other good and valid consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

1. SERVICES.

1.1. Scope. PAYSTAR will perform (or otherwise make available) the Services and functions described in Section I of Appendix 1 for City, which includes the facilitation of electronic payments that is provided via the PAYSTAR Payment Platform and its associated modules, web applications, and configurable features (collectively the "Platform").

1.2. City Responsibilities. PAYSTAR's performance of the Services is dependent upon City's proper performance of the City 'Dependencies and Obligations' as set forth in in Section II of Appendix 1, and PAYSTAR shall not be responsible for any liabilities or Services failure arising out of City's failure to perform or provide these responsibilities.

1.4. Updates. As part of the Services, PAYSTAR will make all updates, bug fixes, and minor enhancements to the Platform (collectively, "Updates") available to City that, in each case, are made available by PAYSTAR at no additional charge to its other customers. PAYSTAR shall have the right to make such Updates to the Platform from time to time at its discretion, so long as they do not result in a material degradation to the functionality of the Platform. All references to the Platform hereunder shall be deemed to include such Updates.

1.5. Upgrades. PAYSTAR may, from time to time, offer to City those enhancements, improvements, developments, new versions, new releases and other changes of or to the Platform that it makes generally available to its other customers for a separate fee or an increase to its then-current fees ("Upgrades"). In such case, PAYSTAR will provide City with written notice thereof, which notice will include (i) a description of the subject Upgrade, (ii) the Fees or changes to the then-current Fees that is required in connection with the subject Upgrade, and (iii) any changes or additions to the terms of this Agreement that would be required in connection with the subject Upgrade. Following such notice, City shall have a reasonable opportunity to review the contents thereof and inform PAYSTAR whether it desires to accept the subject Upgrade and its related Fees and changes, or to forego receiving the same. 3. CONSENT AGENDA

A. RFB 24-08-REC, Independence Day Fireworks Bid
B. RFB 24-13-PW, Old Pass Lagoon Navigational Channel Dredging Project bid
C. RFB 24-14-REC, Morgan's Sports Complex Lighting Project
D. RFB 24-04-PW ROW and Grounds Maintenance, authorization to enter into a contract
E. Approval of minutes of November 4, 2024, Regular City Council Meeting
F. Approval of minutes of October 21, 2024, Regular City Council Meeting

Councilmember Destin noted a typo in Consent Agenda 3B, pointing out that there is a reference to Clement Taylor Park being part of the dredging project. He clarified that this is a mistake and emphasized that, as long as everyone understands that the park is not part of the project, it should be corrected accordingly.

Councilmember Schmidt requests Consent Agenda item 3C be pulled for further discussion.

Councilmember Schmidt moved for approval of Consent Agenda items 3A, 3B, 3D, 3E, and 3F; seconded by Councilmember Destin. Motion passed 6-0 (Council members Schmidt, Geile, Bagby, Destin, Trammell, and Braden voted "yes"; Councilmember Hebert was absent from the meeting).

Referencing Consent Agenda item 3C, expressed his gratitude for ensuring that this project was sent out to bid. Initially, they were looking at approving a contract worth approximately $1.3 million. However, by putting this out for competitive bidding, they are now anticipating savings of around $400,000 to $500,000 for the city, depending on the final outcome of the contract. He urged the council to continue following this practice with future large contracts and projects, as it is clearly a responsible approach that benefits the city financially.

Councilmember Schmid moved to approve Consent Agenda item 3C, seconded by Councilmember Destin.

Councilmember Bagby noted that both this project and others highlight the need for this council to take a closer look at their procurement process. He emphasized the importance of establishing a policy that requires large contracts to come back before the Council for review and approval if they exceed a certain dollar threshold — for instance, $500,000. He added that he is not comfortable approving contracts worth $700,000 or more on the consent agenda without more oversight. When we have multiple bidders on a large project, I believe the top two or three should be invited to present their proposals directly to the council. They need to do more than just rely on a small group of staff members to evaluate these bids on paper. We need to ensure that the selected vendors are credible, reliable, and fully invested in the work they're proposing to do for the city.

Councilmember Bagby requested that when the updated procurement policy is brought back for consideration after the first of the year, that it includes a provision requiring any project over a certain amount to come before the council for a formal review. At that point, they should have the opportunity to hear directly from the top bidders and ask questions before approving such significant expenditures.

Motion passed 6-0 (Council members Schmidt, Geile, Bagby, Destin, Trammell, and Braden voted "yes"; Councilmember Hebert was absent from the meeting).

Councilmember Destin moved for the city to establish a policy that any project costing $500,000 or more must be forwarded to the council for review and approval but not placed on the consent agenda. The motion was seconded by Councilmember Bagby and passed unanimously, 6-0 (Council members Schmidt, Geile, Bagby, Destin, Trammell, and Braden voted "yes"; Councilmember Hebert was absent from the meeting).

4. CITY MANAGER REPORTS

A. Linear Trail Project Update by DAG

Mr. Levi Weigand from DAG Architect, Inc. provided the following update on the Linear Trail project.

Overview of the Linear Trail Project Update by DAG Architects

The Linear Trail Project is a 1.7-mile trail running from the intersection of Airport Road and Commons Drive, extending under power lines to U.S. Highway 98. Mr. Levi Weigand from DAG Architects provided a comprehensive update to the council on the project's progress, challenges with obtaining easements, permitting, and grant funding. The trail is designed to be a multi-use pathway, with educational signage and learning modules along the way. Mr. Weigand highlighted their efforts to move the project through the various design and permitting phases and emphasized that the remaining roadblock is securing final easement agreements from property owners, HOAs, and utility companies.

Mr. Weigand walked the council through the timeline of the project, work completed, outstanding tasks, and next steps. Despite delays, the project remains on budget, with an estimated construction cost of $7.5 million. The remaining obstacle is finalizing easements from nine impacted parties. DAG has received verbal approvals from most stakeholders but has encountered delays in obtaining signed agreements.

1. Timeline and Phases:
    - The project began in early 2023.
    - The most time-consuming task was completing topographical surveys for the 1.7-mile trail area, which includes working with Florida Power & Light (FPL) and addressing wetlands and other easements.
    - DAG has completed 30%, 60%, and 90% design approvals with the city.
    - The city now holds all necessary documents for the development order and permitting, but the process cannot be finalized until the remaining easements are signed.
2. Easement Challenges:
    - Initially, there were 24 required easements. DAG has reduced this number to 9.
    - Six of the remaining easements have verbal approvals but not formal signatures.
    - Two property owners have not been contacted yet.
    - DAG emphasized that obtaining easements has taken longer than anticipated due to the need to coordinate with private homeowners, HOAs, and utility companies.
3. Permitting:
    - Permitting is currently in progress with the City of Destin, Florida Department of Environmental Protection (FDEP), Army Corps of Engineers (ACOE), and FPL.
    - DAG assured the council that all permits are on track once the easements are secured.
4. Project Cost:
    - The estimated construction cost for the trail is $7.5 million, which includes civil work, stormwater management, trail construction, elevated boardwalks, and bridges.
    - Despite delays, the project remains within the original budget estimates.
5. Grant Funding:
    - The project has been supported by a state grant, which has been extended by one year. DAG confirmed that there is no risk of losing the grant funding.

6. Educational Signage:
    - DAG presented concept designs for educational signage along the trail. The signage will include informational panels and learning modules about the trail and the surrounding environment.
    - There was some discussion about ensuring the signage refers to the project correctly as a "trail" and not a "park," as the trail cannot include rest areas due to FPL restrictions.

Councilmember Destin expressed concern about the remaining easements, specifically those involving utility companies Florida Power & Light (FPL) and Destin Water Users (DWU). He asked if there were any issues or concerns with obtaining easements from these entities.

DAG confirmed that they are not anticipating any problems with FPL or DWU easements. They have had ongoing conversations with both entities and have received verbal support. The delay is primarily due to the time it takes for these organizations to review and approve easement agreements internally. DAG mentioned they had recently resubmitted updated plans to DWU for their board's approval.

Councilmember Bagby pressed DAG for more specifics about the remaining easements and expressed concerns about the timeline for obtaining them. He asked for details on which easements are still outstanding and which HOAs or property owners need to be contacted.

Outstanding Easements Identified by DAG:

1. Twin Lakes HOA:
    - DAG has not received a response to their outreach efforts.
    - Councilmember Bagby suggested checking with former HOA board member Ken Wampler for assistance.
2. Troy and Paige Dooley Residence (1219 Quail Ridge Road):
    - This is a private residence where the owners are not currently living on the property. The renters have been contacted, but DAG has not been able to present the plans to the owners.
    - DAG is confident that once they meet with the owners and explain the project, they will gain their support.
3. Tuscan Village HOA:
    - DAG reported that they have verbal approval from this HOA, but they need formal documentation.
    - The easement being requested is an adjustment to an already existing easement to align with the trail's path.

Councilmember Bagby reiterated the importance of securing these easements as quickly as possible, suggesting that DAG follow up with the Twin Lakes HOA and Tuscan Village HOA and ensure that any management companies involved are contacted directly.

DAG assured the council they are actively pursuing these easements and are prepared to make adjustments if any easement cannot be obtained. They noted that it has taken longer to secure approvals from HOA boards due to meeting schedules and quorum requirements.

Councilmember Braden asked for clarification on the issues with the private property owners, particularly the Troy and Paige Dooley property. He was concerned about whether the trail would impact property owners' fences or create issues with private land.

DAG explained that the trail runs behind the Dooley property fence line. They have not yet had a direct conversation with the property owners to explain the scope of the project, but they are confident that once they do, the owners will be in favor of the easement. DAG noted that they have been successful in similar conversations with other private property owners by explaining that the trail will not negatively impact their property.

Councilmember Braden also inquired about the cost estimate for the project, asking DAG to clarify the overall construction budget.

DAG confirmed that the total estimated construction cost is $7.5 million. This includes civil work, stormwater management, trail paving, boardwalks, and bridges. The budget has remained steady, and there have been no significant increases.

Councilmember Schmidt asked about the trail signage and whether the language would reflect that it is a “trail” and not a “park.” He also asked if the project cost estimate included the design work or if it was limited to construction costs.

DAG clarified that the $7.5 million estimate is for construction costs only and does not include the original design costs. They also assured that the signage will be updated to refer to the project as a “trail” to avoid confusion.

B. 2025 Budget Amendment - 2024 Loan

The Interim City Manager noted that on September 18, 2024, the city adopted the 2025 Budget. On November 7, 2024, the city closed on a $25 million loan with Trustmark Bank. The assumptions creating the loan-related budget items for 2025 were different than the actual loan taken. The budget amendment revises total amounts available to pay principal and interest debt service, cost of issuance, and construction during FY 2025. Staff recommend adoption of the budget amendment in order to ensure compliance with the loan covenants and for most expedient encumbrance and expenditure of the loan proceeds to meet IRS arbitrage rules.

Councilmember Schmidt moved to adopt the budget amendment for the 2024 Loan as shown in the detailed amendment provided to the council. Councilmember Bagby provided a second to the motion, which passes 6-0 (Council members Schmidt, Geile, Bagby, Destin, Trammell, and Braden voted “yes”; Councilmember Hebert was absent from the meeting).

C. All Employee Satisfaction Survey

The Interim City Manager explained that on November 4th, staff presented three options to the council for conducting the All-employee Satisfaction Survey. The council directed staff to conduct the survey via SurveyMonkey. Staff presented a draft copy of the survey on December 2nd. After receiving feedback from the council, staff have made adjustments and are ready to disseminate the survey to employees. Staff will send an email link to employees in the first week of January and will leave the survey open for two weeks. Once the results are compiled, staff will prepare a report of the findings and present them to the council.

Motion by Councilmember Trammell, seconded by Councilmember Destin, to direct staff to conduct the All-Employee Satisfaction Survey passed 6-0 (Council members Schmidt, Geile, Bagby, Destin, Trammell, and Braden voted "yes"; Councilmember Hebert was absent from the meeting).

D. Community Development Director Confirmation

The Interim City Manager informed the council that he has reappointed Mr. Louis Zunguze as the Community Development Director. Mr. Zunguze was previously the department director form December 2018 – June 2024. The position has recently been vacated with the resignation of the current director.

Councilmember Bagby moved to confirm Louis Zunguze as the Community Development Director in the Community Development Department; seconded by Councilmember Schmidt. Motion passed 6-0 (Council members Schmidt, Geile, Bagby, Destin, Trammell, and Braden voted "yes"; Councilmember Hebert was absent from the meeting).

E. Committee Appointments

The Interim City Manager noted that at the December 2, 2024, meeting, the council approved a motion to defer all committee appointments until January 2025. This decision was made to allow time for a comprehensive review of all committees and boards, aimed at assessing their relevance, efficiency, and effectiveness. The review will involve examining each committee's original purpose, its legislative foundation—whether established by ordinance, resolution, or statute—and evaluating whether these purposes remain pertinent. The council authorized him and staff to lead the review, in collaboration with Councilmember Trammell, who volunteered to serve as the legislative sponsor for this initiative. A detailed proposal is expected to be presented at the council's first meeting in the new year.

Staff seek appointments to the Local Planning Agency (LPA), established pursuant to Florida Statute Section 163.3174 and Land Development Code (LDC) Section 4.05.00. The LPA, a statutorily mandated committee, plays a critical role in planning and development. Meetings are scheduled twice monthly, on the first and third Wednesdays, with the next session scheduled for January 9th. These appointments are particularly urgent due to the ongoing Land Development Code rewrite, a major initiative requiring the LPA's active involvement. The LPA will function as a standalone committee and will not merge with other groups.

Also, during the December 2nd meeting, the council appointed the following representatives to the Tourist Development Council:

- Primary Representative: Councilmember Hebert
- Alternate Representative: Councilmember Schmidt

Subsequently, Councilmember Hebert requested that the roles be reversed, with Councilmember Schmidt serving as the primary representative and herself as the alternate.

Motion by Councilmember Braden, seconded by Councilmember Schmidt, to appoint Mr. Jim Wood to the LPA passed 6-0 (Council members Schmidt, Geile, Bagby, Destin, Trammell, and Braden voted "yes"; Councilmember Hebert was absent from the meeting).

Motion by Councilmember Trammell, seconded by Councilmember Schmidt, to appoint Mr. Ken Wampler to the LPA passed 6-0 (Council members Schmidt, Geile, Bagby, Destin, Trammell, and Braden voted "yes"; Councilmember Hebert was absent from the meeting).

Motion by Councilmember Destin, seconded by Councilmember Geile, to appoint Ms. Tammy Weidenhamer to the LPA passed 6-0 (Council members Schmidt, Geile, Bagby, Destin, Trammell, and Braden voted "yes"; Councilmember Hebert was absent from the meeting).

Councilmember Bagby moved to appoint Councilmember Schmidt as the primary representative to the Tourist Development Council, and Councilmember Hebert as the alternate. Motion passed 6-0 (Council members Schmidt, Geile, Bagby, Destin, Trammell, and Braden voted "yes"; Councilmember Hebert was absent from the meeting).

F. Destin Town Center Master Plan Update - Synalovski Romanik Saye, LLC (SRS) Presentation

Synalovski Romanik Saye, LLC (SRS) provided a comprehensive update on the progress of the city's long-term vision for revitalizing key municipal and recreational spaces, including the development of a new City Hall, Community Center, Civic Campus, and a Fishing Village at the Gateway District. The SRS team provided detailed site analyses, building concepts, community feedback, logistical plans, and cost estimates for the proposed projects. The presentation aimed to provide the council and public with a roadmap to develop a cohesive civic campus while celebrating Destin's historic roots and improving the city's infrastructure to meet future growth.

1. Project Background and Community Input:

- SRS engaged the community through two in-person meetings and an online survey, which received 301 responses (noted as one of the most active surveys in Destin's history).

- Meetings were held with various city departments, council members, developers, and the Chamber of Commerce to gather input on programmatic needs.

- The primary goals were to:
    - Update municipal facilities to accommodate future growth.
    - Centralize recreational programming.
    - Celebrate Destin's history through public spaces.

2. Facility Needs Analysis:

- City Hall:
    - Current facilities are split between two buildings, which creates inefficiencies.
    - The proposed new City Hall would be 30,000 square feet, allowing for current operations and future growth.
    - It would include public meeting spaces and secure administrative offices with modern amenities.

- Community Center:
    - The new Community Center would grow to 40,000 square feet, offering expanded programming with two basketball courts instead of one to increase flexibility for events and recreational use.
    - The Parks and Recreation Department offices would be centralized in this facility.

3. Site Exploration and Recommendations:

- SRS evaluated multiple sites in Destin to determine the best locations for the City Hall and Community Center.
- The analysis concluded that the Morgan Sports Complex site was the best option to create a unified Civic Campus, connecting City Hall, the Community Center, and various recreational facilities.
- The plan also includes improvements to Morgan Sports Complex, such as:
    - Enhanced parking.
    - A fitness trail.
    - A potential skate park.
    - Improved pedestrian and vehicle connectivity across Commons Drive.

4. The Fishing Village Concept:

- The existing Community Center site at the Gateway District could be transformed into a Fishing Village that celebrates Destin's history as a fishing town.
- The Fishing Village would include:
    - A History Museum (6,250 square feet).
    - Replica buildings such as the original Destin Home, Fish Camp, and Schoolhouse.
    - A 300-space parking garage to accommodate tourists and special events.
    - Spaces for small cafes, gift shops, and community gatherings.
    - The concept is to create a public space and tourist destination that honors Destin's heritage while supporting local tourism and events.

5. Architectural Vision:

- The proposed architecture for the new City Hall and Community Center would reflect a "nautical" and "tropical Florida vernacular" style, which aligns with Destin's coastal identity.

- The design incorporates natural light, elevated walkways, and outdoor spaces to encourage community interaction and provide modern amenities for city employees and residents.

6. Cost Estimates:

- Fishing Village and Parking Garage:
  - Total estimated cost: $22 million, with the parking garage representing a significant portion of that cost.

- Morgan Civic and Recreational Complex:
  - Total estimated cost: $42 million, which includes:
    - City Hall: $11 million for a 30,000-square-foot building.
    - Community Center: $16 million for a 40,000-square-foot building.
    - Site Development Costs: Approximately $1 million.
  - A 30% contingency was included in the budget to account for future market fluctuations.

Councilmember Geile questioned how much of the original $150,000 contract with SRS has been utilized, and how much remains?

- SRS Response:
  - Approximately one-third of the contract value has been billed.
  - Additional billing from SRS partners is pending, so the remaining amount will be invoiced soon.

Councilmember Schmidt expressed excitement about the overall project and its potential to transform Destin's future. He highlighted the importance of presenting the Fishing Village concept to the community, as most residents have not seen such ambitious ideas. He asked if the 300-space parking garage could be built separately from the Fishing Village.

The SRS team responded that the parking garage could be built as a standalone project, separate from the Fishing Village. The garage is intended to serve both the Fishing Village and Harbor District, providing much-needed parking for tourists and community events.

Councilmember Bagby referenced previous city planning initiatives, such as Vision 2000 and the Sasaki Plan, and noted that several elements of those plans (like the Harbor Boardwalk and park improvements) have since been implemented. He acknowledged that long-term planning often evolves over time, and some elements will be funded while others may not. He emphasized that this process is typical in municipal planning, where plans are developed in phases, with funding secured as needed.

Councilmember Destin stated that there are elements of the plan he supports, but there are others he could not back. He specifically expressed concerns about closing the current community center and relocating it to the Morgan Sports Complex. He raised concerns about the parking garage, suggesting that residents in the Gateway District may not support it, as it could facilitate more development in that area. He highlighted the need to determine funding sources before moving forward with any large-scale projects, as the estimated costs are substantial (nearly $60 million).

Councilmember Trammell commented on the community engagement process, praising the SRS team for their thorough engagement with the public during the planning process and noted that community input was clearly reflected in the presentation.

The presentation concluded with council members expressing their appreciation to SRS for their work and indicating that further discussions would take place during the Visioning Session planned for early next year. Councilmember Schmidt expressed enthusiasm for championing the project, while others expressed caution regarding costs and community support. SRS committed to providing a finalized report to help guide future decision-making.

G. TDC Monthly Report - Informational Only
H. Operations Financial Report - Informational Only
I. Announcements:

1. The city's legislative delegation meeting is scheduled for tomorrow, December 17th. Ahead of this meeting, staff met with Representative Maney's office and the City's lobbyist to review the proposed legislative priorities that were previously presented to the council on November 7th. Based on the recommendations received from Representative Maney's staff, it was suggested that the city narrows its focus to three to four priority items for presentation. Following these recommendations, the items that the mayor will present during the delegation meeting, pending final approval from the Council, are as follows:

    a. Stormwater Infrastructure Project: M. Kelly Outfall
    b. Capacity Project: Cross-Town Connector
    c. Recreational Project: Clement Taylor Park

    All these items were originally presented to the council on November 7th. Additionally, a fourth item, the Stahlman Intersection Project, may also be submitted to the legislative delegation once more detailed information is received from Baskerville-Donovan. Staff are still gathering the necessary data for this project and will prepare it for submission before the deadline of February 15th. Staff are prepared to move forward with the current list of priority items but also welcome any further input from the council. If there is a need for additional discussion or adjustments to the list of projects, staff are willing to regroup and proceed based on the council's direction.

Councilmember Bagby raised concerns about the lack of progress on the Stahlman Avenue Intersection improvements, noting that an engineering firm had been hired a year ago to assess the intersection and provide recommendations, but the council had not yet received an update. He emphasized that the Stahlman Intersection should be prioritized higher than other projects, stating that waiting until the last minute to request legislative funding was ineffective, as state legislators are already filing bills by early February.

Councilmember Bagby stressed that legislative priorities must be approved by the council before being presented to the legislative delegation, noting that these should be council-approved priorities, not the staff or the mayor's priorities.

Councilmember Bagby moved to direct staff to ensure that future legislative priorities are brought to the council for discussion and approval at least one month before the legislative delegation meeting; seconded by Councilmember Trammell.

Councilmember Bagby volunteered to be the Legislative Sponsor for this item starting next year.

Motion passed 6-0 (Council members Schmidt, Geile, Bagby, Destin, Trammell, and Braden voted "yes"; Councilmember Hebert was absent from the meeting).

Councilmember Destin provided an update on a recent meeting with Baskerville-Donovan, the engineering firm working on the Stahlman Intersection study. He noted that the firm is exploring cost-effective solutions for improving the intersection's traffic flow and pedestrian safety, with a focus on overpasses or underpasses to separate pedestrians from vehicle traffic. He added that removing pedestrians from the intersection could improve traffic efficiency by 25-30%. Local businesses near the intersection, including Emerald Grande, have expressed willingness to collaborate on solutions to help with pedestrian crossings.

Councilmember Destin also emphasized that short-term, affordable improvements are being prioritized to secure state legislative support and funding. He mentioned that another meeting with Baskerville-Donovan was scheduled for the following day and anticipated that concept designs would be ready to present to the council in January.

Councilmember Braden raised questions about a previous $50,000 allocation for a redesign of the Stahlman Intersection that was approved by the council three to four years ago. He wanted to know what happened to that money and whether a design was ever completed. He expressed frustration that there has been no visible progress despite the previous spending.

City staff clarified that the $50,000 was spent on a study conducted by Volkert Engineering several years ago. The study explored potential design options to improve traffic and pedestrian safety at the intersection but did not produce a finalized design. Baskerville-Donovan is now incorporating the results of that study into their current work to avoid duplicating efforts. The study was initially delayed due to coordination issues with the county and other agencies, but the results are now being utilized in the current design process.

The mayor opened a public hearing to receive comments for or against the proposed ordinance.

Mr. Ken Wampler, 4320 Comm Drive, addressed the Council regarding the proposed short-term vacation rental ordinance. He expressed frustration that condominiums are now being included in the registration process, despite condo associations already handling services such as security, trash, and parking. He questioned why other multifamily properties, such as timeshares, hotels, motels, and bed-and-breakfasts, were not included in the ordinance. He urged the Council to ensure the fees for registration are fair and reasonable and noted that without the fees being specified yet, it is difficult to support the ordinance.

Having no further comments from the public, the mayor closed the public hearing and turned the matter over to the city council for their discussion and deliberation.

Councilman Braden questioned why all property types were not included in the ordinance.

The City Attorney explained that hotels, timeshares, and other commercial properties are being handled separately in a forthcoming ordinance. The residential ordinance was prioritized, and the commercial regulations will be introduced in January, along with a fee resolution.

Councilmember Schmidt moved to table this item to a council meeting in January 2025 when a similar ordinance for commercial uses is brought before the council; seconded by Councilmember Destin. Motion passed 4-2 (Council members Schmidt, Bagby, Destin, and Trammell, voted "yes"; Council members Geile and Braden voted "no"; Councilmember Hebert was absent from the meeting).

6. COMMENTS / PRESENTATIONS FROM MAYOR, COUNCIL, AND CITY ATTORNEY

A. Councilmember Braden

1) Noise Ordinance

Councilmember Braden opened the discussion by raising concerns about the city's current noise ordinance, which allows noise up until 10:00 PM. He criticized the ordinance as overly complicated and outdated, noting that residents, particularly those with children, find the 10:00 PM limit disruptive to their quality of life. He shared complaints from residents who have called multiple times about noise issues without seeing effective enforcement. He proposed simplifying the ordinance and reducing the allowable noise hours to 8:00 PM for residential areas Sunday through Thursday, with commercial areas allowed to continue until 10:00 PM on weekends. He emphasized the importance of protecting the quality of life for families in the community and expressed frustration over the lack of enforcement.

Councilmember Braden made a motion to direct staff to rewrite the noise ordinance, seconded by Councilmember Schmidt.

Councilmember Braden volunteered to be the legislative sponsor of the proposal.

Councilmember Destin questioned who holds primary responsibility for enforcing noise violations, the city's code compliance officers or the Sheriff's Office. He noted that Okaloosa County Sheriff's deputies have been reluctant to dedicate time to noise complaints, and that the city no longer has code compliance officers working overnight. He stated that code enforcement used to use noise meters, but this practice was discontinued due to legal challenges from violators questioning the accuracy of the equipment and the officers' training. He suggested that code enforcement officers could resume noise monitoring if they received proper training and that sheriff's deputies could assist when repeat violations occur or if there are concerns about safety.

Councilmember Schmidt sought clarification on the ordinance's maximum noise distance rule, which states that noise is considered a violation if it is plainly audible at 150 feet from the property line. He asked whether this meant a neighbor could only complain if the noise traveled that distance.

The city attorney clarified that if noise is audible at 150 feet or more from the property line, it is a violation, regardless of the time of day.

Councilmember Schmidt agreed that construction noise should be restricted to 7:00 AM to 10:00 PM, but he questioned whether residents fully understand how noise complaints are handled.

Steve O'Connor, Deputy Community Development Director, addressed the public's misconceptions about the noise ordinance, stating that many residents believe noise complaints cannot be filed before 10:00 PM, which is incorrect. He explained that the ordinance applies at all times of day, and code compliance officers can issue written warnings or citations for violations if the noise exceeds the allowable distance limit. He also confirmed that construction noise is allowed from 7:00 AM to 10:00 PM, and he agreed that this timeframe could be reconsidered. He noted that many residents seem unaware that they can report noise violations during the day and offered to speak directly with residents to clarify the process.

Mr. O'Connor added that the city is conducting a comprehensive review of its code compliance processes, including how complaints are handled, enforcement procedures, and how to improve consistency in the way officers follow up on complaints.

Councilmember Braden suggested that the city should issue fines for noise violations rather than multiple warnings. He proposed a system where first-time violators receive a written warning, but subsequent violations result in escalating fines. He suggested fines could start at $100 for a second violation, increasing to $200 or $500 for repeat offenses. He argued that hitting violators in their wallets would be more effective than warnings, especially in areas with short-term rentals, where out-of-town property owners are often unaware of noise complaints until it impacts them financially.

Councilmember Braden also emphasized the need for clear communication between code compliance officers, residents, and property owners to ensure everyone understands the rules and consequences.

Councilmember Schmidt expressed support for adjusting the allowable construction hours to ensure the work does not continue late into the evening. He agreed with Councilmember Braden that 10:00 PM is too late for construction activities, and the city should consider ending such activities at an earlier time, such as 7:00 PM. However, he cautioned against rewriting the entire ordinance and instead recommended focusing on specific problem areas, such as construction noise.

Councilmember Geile raised a question about the city's contract with the Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office, which costs the city over $1 million annually. He asked whether the contract specifies which code violations deputies are required to respond to and whether the sheriff's office can refuse noise complaints. He also wanted clarification on whether the sheriff's deputies are obligated to assist with noise enforcement as part of their contract.

Captain Fulghum, representing the Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office, confirmed that there is no language in the contract allowing deputies to refuse noise complaints. He explained that deputies will assist with code compliance if requested but emphasized that noise complaints are a low priority for deputies compared to life safety issues. He noted that if a code compliance officer feels unsafe, deputies are available to accompany them on noise complaint visits, especially if repeat violations have occurred or if there are threats of violence. He reiterated that deputies would respond to noise complaints, but life-threatening emergencies will always take precedence. He suggested that code compliance officers should be the first responders to noise complaints, with deputies stepping in when needed.

Mr. O'Connor confirmed that the city is working to improve follow-up procedures for noise complaints. He stated that all complaints are logged, and officers are being trained to consistently follow up with residents after a complaint is resolved. He acknowledged that there have been inconsistencies in the past, with some complaints falling through cracks, but assured the council that the city is working to improve communication and follow-up procedures. He also emphasized that the city is reviewing its entire code compliance process and will bring recommendations to the council soon on possible changes to shifts, hours, and procedures to improve enforcement.

The Interim City Manager recommended that Councilmember Braden meet with Deputy Community Development Director O'Connor, Captain Fulghum, and himself to review the current noise ordinance, enforcement procedures, and proposed changes. He emphasized the need to ensure that any changes are aligned with the council's goals and that the city is moving forward in the right direction. He suggested a collaborative approach, where Councilmember Braden and staff can work together to ensure everyone is on the same page before bringing a formal proposal back to the council.

Councilmember Braden withdrew his motion to rewrite the noise ordinance, agreeing instead to work with city staff and the Sheriff's Office to bring back specific recommendations to the council for consideration. He maintained his position as the legislative sponsor for any future changes to the ordinance.

B. Councilmember Trammell
C. Councilmember Destin
D. Councilmember Bagby
    1) Larry Jones - City Manager Contract

The Council discussed the hiring of Mr. Larry Jones as the City's new full-time City Manager, following his interim appointment. The conversation focused on the terms of his compensation, his qualifications, and the structure of his contract.

The HR Director was asked to provide a breakdown of the compensation package previously offered to the former City Manager Louis Zunguze.

The HR Director explained that the total compensation package for the former City Manager, including salary and benefits, amounted to $273,566. This package consisted of the following:

- Base Salary: $205,000
- Vehicle Allowance: $6,000
- Retirement Contributions: $32,000
- Medical, Dental, and Vision Benefits (including disability insurance): $29,000

Councilmember Bagby moved to instruct the City Attorney and the HR Director to confer with Interim City Manager Larry Jones to negotiate a contract for a full-time City Manager position with total compensation not to exceed $255,000. The contract will include clauses specifying a five-day work week and prohibiting Mr. Jones from taking on new contracts for his consulting company for the duration of his contract with the City of Destin. Councilmember Destin provided a second to the motion.

Councilmember Braden raised concern regarding the proposed compensation package for Mr. Jones. He questioned why the proposed total compensation for Mr. Jones was lower than what had been paid to the previous City Manager, especially given Mr. Jones' extensive experience.

Councilmember Bagby explained that the proposed contract was structured in a way that would save the city money while also providing flexibility for Mr. Jones. He clarified that the difference in total compensation was due to Mr. Jones' personal preference to forgo certain benefits, such as health insurance, which reduced the overall package cost. He further explained that Mr. Jones would be hired as a contractual employee rather than a regular employee, which would allow for more flexibility in structuring his compensation. Mr. Jones has expressed that he does not need the city's health care benefits or vehicle allowance, which were significant components of the previous City Manager's compensation package. Instead, he prefers to take that money in salary or other forms of compensation that suit his needs. The city benefits by saving on those unused benefits, and Mr. Jones benefits by having more control over how his compensation is structured. Additionally, because he would be hired as a contractual employee, he can allocate his compensation in ways that make sense for him, whether that’s into retirement, deferred income, or other arrangements.

Councilmember Bagby further noted that he had already discussed these terms with Mr. Jones before the meeting and prior to making his motion.

Councilmember Schmidt voiced his support for the motion, noting that Mr. Jones has been doing a commendable job as the Interim City Manager and that the city should act quickly to secure his services full-time. He added that the contract terms are fair, stating that in the consulting world, it is common for businesses to offer lower rates to retain experienced professionals without the cost of benefits. It saves the city money while allowing them to hire someone with extensive experience.

Councilmember Destin emphasized the importance of the City Manager position being treated as a full-time job and stressed the time commitment required of the role.

Mr. Larry Jones expressed his gratitude to the council for considering him for the position. He acknowledged the council's concerns and reassured them of his commitment to the city.

The mayor called for a vote on the motion, which passes 6-0 (Council members Schmidt, Geile, Bagby, Destin, Trammell, and Braden voted "yes"; Councilmember Hebert was absent from the meeting).

E. Councilmember Hebert

F. Councilmember Geile
1) Projects Status / Updates

Councilmember Geile stated that last year, Mr. John Hodges from the Buccaneer Cruise Ship approached him regarding the dredging in the harbor. The previous City Engineer Ryan Scott had been spearheading that project before he left. He asked who is now responsible for managing or organizing this project to ensure that Mr. Hodges is not facing the same issues as in the past two years, especially with the upcoming tourist season.

Projects/Grants/Contract Manager Jeffrey Cozadd noted that he, along with the Public Works Deputy Director have been working on it. They have selected a contractor and will provide further updates soon.

Councilmember Geile expressed the need to review potential registration fees and inspection protocols for short-term rentals, citing research and conversations he had with neighboring municipalities. He emphasized that, as the city's Legislative Sponsor for this item, he had actively investigated how other cities, including Panama City Beach, handle short-term rental regulations, particularly regarding registration fees and occupancy limits. He shared details from his in-depth conversation with Panama City Beach's Captain of Fire Inspections, Shawn Legleiter

Councilmember Geile explained that several cities, including Bay County, Tampa, and Panama City Beach, have already implemented short-term rental registration fees. Additionally, those cities have adopted provisions requiring short-term rental owners to register their properties with the Florida Department of Business and Professional Regulation (DBPR) and adhere to Florida Administrative Code 69A-43.060, which sets maximum occupancy levels based on fire safety standards. He noted that this is something he would like the city to explore further. He proposed that Building Official Noel Bell and the city's fire inspector examine whether a similar approach could be implemented locally, including determining the costs associated with inspections and compliance enforcement. He added that having a consistent registration and inspection process across cities would benefit both municipalities and property owners by creating uniform standards, which could alleviate confusion caused by varying local codes. He also stated that he would like to delve deeper into this before the January meeting so that the council has a better understanding of what it could cost the city and what revenue they could potentially recover through a registration process.

Councilmember Geile also emphasized the importance of proactive inspections to ensure properties are compliant with city regulations, especially in cases where a home's original use might change to a short-term rental after it is built. He pointed out that there are instances where property owners initially claim a home will be used as a personal residence during the permitting process but later sell the property or convert it to a short-term rental without the city capturing the appropriate fees or conducting proper inspections.

Building Official Noel Bell provided additional input on the city's current inspection practices. She explained that the city already conducts inspections when a home undergoes a change of use to become a short-term rental prior to approving the change of use. She also noted that the city also requires sprinkler systems to be installed in newly constructed three-story homes if they are intended to be used as short-term rentals.

Councilmember Geile clarified that his concern is primarily with homes that are initially permitted for personal use and later converted to short-term rentals. He believes that annual inspections, like those conducted in Panama City Beach, could help the city better track these properties and ensure compliance with safety codes. He added that Panama City Beach conducts annual random inspections, not scheduled ones, which allows the city to verify that properties remain compliant with fire and safety regulations.

Councilmember Braden raised a question about the inspection process for new homes that are intended to be short-term rentals, specifically inquiring about sprinkler requirements. He noted that he believed Panama City Beach conducted quarterly inspections when short-term rentals are registered. He also raised concerns about the lack of sprinkler requirements in new construction, even for three-story homes that may later be used as short-term rentals. He pointed out that a property owner could easily avoid installing sprinklers by initially claiming that the home is for personal use, then later converting it to a short-term rental after construction is complete.

The Building Official acknowledged the concern and agreed that the city could consider adopting a local ordinance requiring that if a home undergoes a change of use to a short-term rental and does not have sprinklers, they would be required to install them as part of that change of use process. She added that it would be less costly for property owners to go through a change of use process than to retrofit a home with sprinklers after it is built, and that requiring sprinklers up front might be a more effective way to ensure compliance with safety regulations.

G. Councilmember Schmidt

Councilmember Schmidt requested a status update on the Norriego Point project and suggested that it would be helpful to receive a timeline update, especially as the city approaches spring break and summer.

Staff noted that the city receives a bi-weekly update on the project and confirmed that more details on its progress could be shared in January.

Councilmember Schmidt inquired about the progress of Joe’s Bayou project, mentioning that there had been considerable excitement about the project over the last six months, with many residents believing that it was close to beginning construction.

City staff reported that the project was at 60% completion with the permitting process still underway. It was noted that Community Development had a pre-application meeting with the project’s developer a few weeks ago and confirmed that the project is moving forward.

Additionally, the developer has created a project website that includes concept renderings, which staff offered to share with the council. They also explained that they did not have a definitive date for when the developer would submit their development order deviation but will follow up with him to get a more detailed timeline to clarify expectations.

Councilmember Schmidt also asked for updates on the Destin Crosstown Connector project, particularly the funding status, estimated costs, and progress toward starting construction.

City staff reported that the Destin Crosstown Connector project had recently received promising news regarding funding. The Tourist Development Council is expected to approve a $3.3 million allocation toward the project during their recent meeting, and that this amount has already been accounted for in the city's budget. Staff provided an updated cost estimate of $11.8 million to complete the project, including construction and related expenses. The city has secured funds from the following sources:

- $4.5 million loan proceeds (which are currently earning interest in a bank account).
- $2 million from the TRIP program (Transportation Regional Incentive Program), which will be available during the state's next fiscal year, likely by September.
- The anticipated $3.3 million from the TDC.

Staff expect to put the project out for bids within the next 30 to 90 days. Once the bids are received, the city will be ready to move forward with construction.

Councilmember Schmidt asked for clarification on whether the project's design was fully approved. Staff confirmed that the project is at 100% design completion and awaiting final permits, including environmental clearance. The environmental report will determine if any further adjustments to the design are required.

H. Mayor Wagner

The mayor announced that the governor extended the holiday season by closing state offices on December 23rd and December 31st, in addition to the regular closures. He asked the council if they wished to align with this decision by closing local offices on those dates as well.

Motion by Councilmember Bagby, seconded by Councilmember Destin, to close city facilities on December 23rd and December 31st passed 6-0 (Council members Schmidt, Geile, Bagby, Destin, Trammell, and Braden voted "yes"; Councilmember Hebert was absent from the meeting).

CITY OF DESTIN

AGENDA ITEM

COUNCIL MEETING DATE: February 3, 2025
TYPE OF AGENDA ITEM: Action Item
AGENDA OUTLINE NUMBER: 4.B.

TO: City Council

THRU: Larry Jones , City Manager
Kimberly Kopp, City Attorney

FROM: Jeffrey Cozadd, Projects, Grants and Contracts Manager
Krystal Strickland, Finance Director

DATE: January 13, 2025

SUBJECT: Confirmation of Appropriation Requests

I. BACKGROUND: Representative Maney has recently invited municipalities in his district to submit state appropriation requests through his office to be considered for inclusion in the state's next fiscal year's budget.

II. DISCUSSION: The city has been notified that the appropriation requests are due to Representative Maney's office by February 7th, 2025.

If requests are funded, they will be a part of the state's next fiscal year's budget, which does not begin until July 1, 2025. Grant agreements would then follow in September or October.

On November 4, 2024, Council directed staff to prepare appropriation requests for the Stahlmann Intersection Improvements project. One project recommendation that has been presented to staff recently to improve pedestrian and vehicular traffic at Stahlman intersection is a pedestrian overpass. Cost estimates came in at approximately $10.5M. This project would require a public/private partnership with the owners of the Emerald Grand property. Preliminary conversations with the owners suggest a strong interest in pursuing such a partnership. The next step to advance this effort would be to prepare design plans. The approximate cost of the design is $1,050,000. Staff recommends an appropriation request for $500K.

Additional discussion at the November 4th meeting highlighted the importance of consulting with the City Lobbyist (once hired) to identify and recommend projects that are most likely to receive favorable consideration for an appropriation request.

Heffley & Associates was hired on November 18, 2024, to act as the city lobbyist. Consultation with the lobbyist yielded the list of the following projects to be considered:
Stormwater Infrastructure Project: M. Kelly Outfall - request $1M
Capacity Project: Cross-Town Connector - request $3M
Recreational Project: Clement Taylor Park - request $1M

Staff are seeking council's confirmation that they approve the submission of these appropriation requests and direct the city lobbyist to lobby the state on the inclusion of these requests in the state's next fiscal year budget.

CITY OF DESTIN

AGENDA ITEM

COUNCIL MEETING DATE: February 3, 2025
TYPE OF AGENDA ITEM: City Manager Report
AGENDA OUTLINE NUMBER: 4.C.

TO: City Council

THRU: Larry Jones , City Manager

FROM: Lisa Firth, Parks & Rec Director

DATE: 1/28/25

SUBJECT: Fee Schedule for Parks and Recreation

I. BACKGROUND: At the December 2, 2024 City Council meeting a motion was passed for staff to bring back recommended updates to Resolution 23-21, Sections 347-220 and 347-520, with price comparisons to the City of Fort Walton Beach, City of Niceville, and Publix Sports Park and Frank Brown Park at Panama City Beach, by the end of January 2025. The current fee schedule that we use is Resolution 23-06, since Resolution 23-21 was not approved by City Council. Both Resolutions are attached.

II. DISCUSSION: After reviewing our current fees for Section 347-220 (Morgan Sports Center/Destin Sports Complex/Dalton Threadgill) and Section 347-520 (Community Center), in comparison with the applicable fees obtained from the other municipalities, we have modified our current sections to reflect updates. Also, we have done a cost comparison chart illustrating changes to renting Morgan Sports Complex for a tournament, as well as a room and gym rental at the Community Center.
Our recommended changes for Morgan Sports Center tournament function fees to become more in line with other areas centers around removing our current non-refundable deposit/cleaning fee. You will see in our proposed changes the removal of this and the amount being built into the field rental cost in order to avoid some confusion that it sometimes leads to. In addition, we believe it will give even more clarity to change from our current per field cost/different additional field cost to a standard hourly rate per field with max daily cost per field. Not only being much more straightforward, this will also hopefully encourage the smaller tournaments that for example might use three fields all day, but the other three fields only being needed for a few hours of the day. You will also see in our proposed changes we have maintained a discount for the non-profits/residents. Lastly, in the comparison chart for Morgan Sports Center you will see an example one day tournament cost and how our proposed fees would stack up against Preston Hood, Niceville, etc. The fees are very similar in this example and line up even closer when calculating other scenarios such as longer usage times/shorter usage times. In regard to the deposit that is currently reflected in our fee schedule, we plan to collect a 50% down payment of the primary cost of a tournament at Morgan Sports Center, which will be applied toward the total payment of the primary cost. The down payment will be refundable 60 days prior to event if cancelled by the renter. If the City cancels, the down payment will be 100% refunded.

Moving on to our proposed fee changes for the Destin Community Center, we are proposing less of a structure change in the fees there, but instead just also removing the deposit/cleaning fee and recouping that fee by increasing the per hour cost already in place. In the cost comparison for the gym and room rentals at the Destin Community Center you will notice the current fees being much lower than some of our neighbors. However, this was calculated without the deposit/cleaning fee which can heavily vary depending on the type of rental. Once again, we feel building that deposit into the hourly cost will make it much more straightforward and you can see with our proposed fee changes how closely we would align with especially Fort Walton Beach and Panama City Beach. Concerning the DCC, the areas other than FWB and PCB are difficult to compare to. FWB and PCB though are good comparisons in terms if room sizes and gym space. With our proposed changes we would be similar in our rental cost to both of those areas while still maintaining a price difference for non-profit/residents and commercial/non-residents, which we found is something we offer that our neighboring municipalities do not. With the removal of the non-refundable deposit/cleaning fee, we also plan to collect a down payment at the Community Center like Morgan's when necessary (50% down payment of the primary cost of a rental, which will be applied toward the total payment of the primary cost. The down payment will be refundable 60 days prior to event if cancelled by the renter. If the City cancels, the down payment will be 100% refunded.).

A. Link to Strategic Goals / Objectives: Financially sound city providing service excellence.

CITY OF DESTIN

AGENDA ITEM

COUNCIL MEETING DATE: February 3, 2025
TYPE OF AGENDA ITEM: Action Item
AGENDA OUTLINE NUMBER: 4.D.

TO: City Council

THRU: Larry Jones , City Manager
Kimberly Kopp, City Attorney
Krystal Strickland, Finance Director

DATE: January 14, 2025

SUBJECT: Building Permit Fees Update

I. BACKGROUND: The Building Division Permitting Fund is currently unable to generate sufficient revenue to cover operational costs, necessitating supplementation from the General Fund. In response, the City Council has directed the City Manager to update the Permit Fee Schedule to address the funding shortfall and simplify the fee structure, making it easier for citizens to understand and calculate their permitting costs.

II. DISCUSSION: On November 7, 2022, staff presented an Assessment Study of Building Permit Fees, Revenue, and Costs to the Council. The study evaluated the need to balance Building Division Permit Fees with the forecasted revenue and costs associated with staffing and operations. It included fees assessed by the Building, Planning, and Engineering Divisions and identified the need for an average 15% to 20% increase in permit fees. Following the review, the Council approved a 10% fee increase, with a directive to revisit the Permit Fee Schedule if necessary. The motion passed, and the updated Schedule of Fees was adopted through Resolution 23-21.

The new study concludes that revenue from Building Permit Fees has declined when comparing FY 2024, FY 2023, and FY 2022. This decline, coupled with rising labor and operating costs, has created financial pressure on the Building Fund. Forecast models provided by the Finance Director project a continued decline over the next five years, leading to an inability to maintain a positive fund balance and necessitating supplementation from the General Fund.

The report recommends raising only the Building Division Permit Fees, as outlined in the attached study, to prevent a revenue-to-cost imbalance and avoid the need for General Fund allocations to support Building Division staff and operations. This approach safeguards resources for other priorities. The proposed fee increase also simplifies the fee structure, aligns revenue with costs, reduces reliance on the General Fund, and makes cost calculations easier and less complex for citizens. (Fee structure adopted by Council on September 16, 2024). The simplification of the fee structure improves transparency with citizens and improves our ability to leverage technology for permit processing.

On November 18, 2024, Staff brought to Council a proposed permit fee increase based on the updated Assessment Study of Building Permit Fees, Revenue and Costs from 3TP Ventures, Inc. This study only reviewed the Building Division permit fees; the Planning and Engineering permit fees were not a part of this study, as the intent was to only address the Building Fund shortfall.

The Council's directive from that meeting was for staff to reassess the proposed fee increase and present a revised Building Permit Fee Increase, along with process improvement metrics implemented since the last fee adjustment.

The 2024 study recommended a fee increase of up to 48%; however, staff revised this to a 34% increase to balance operational costs while minimizing the impact on citizens. Although projections indicate a gradual decline in the fund balance, a 34% increase now will delay a negative fund balance until FY 2030. Should actual trends indicate an earlier shortfall, staff will return to the Council with updated fee recommendations

The assessment includes:

- The Building Permit and Inspection Utilization Report for the prior fiscal year (FY2023).
- The Table of Cost and Revenue of Fees evaluated under current Permit Fees Schedule
- New Permit Fee Structure, approved by council during the September 16th meeting.
- Building Division revised recommended Fee Increase.

A. Link to Strategic Goals / Objectives: I. Financially sound City providing service excellence
IV. Enhanced quality of life and safety for families.

B. Effect on Budget (EOB): Increased revenue to maintain a balanced Building Division budget. This will reduce the use of general taxpayer dollars paying for building inspections benefitting individuals and businesses.

C. Level of Service (LOS): N/A

D. Legislative Sponsor:

E. Business Impact Statement:

III. CONCLUSION: Staff recommend that the City Council approve the proposed overall 34% increase in Building Division Permit Fees. This adjustment balances the need for fiscal sustainability with operational cost recovery, as outlined in the Building Division's revised fee assessment. The updated fee schedule simplifies the structure for citizens and supports the City's strategic goals of financial stability and service excellence. Staff will monitor fund performance and present further recommendations if necessary.

IV. RECOMMENDED MOTION: I move that the City Council approve the proposed overall 34% increase in Building Division Permit Fees as presented and direct staff to bring back the updated Schedule of Fees Resolution for adoption at a future meeting.

Assessment of Building Permit Fees, Revenue and Costs

January 2025

JANUARY 2025 NOTES ON THIS ASSESSMENT

This report has been updated since its original publication. The fee recommendations have been revised from the original staff recommendation presented to City Council in 2024. The fee recommendations by category are shown in Attachment C of this document. A summary of the implications of this fee schedule on revenue generation and the fund balance is shown in Attachment D.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this assessment is to understand the current fee structure as it relates to the annual projected revenues and costs of the Building Division of the City of Destin Community Development Department. The assessment also includes recommendations for fee adjustments to maintain a balance between revenue and expenditures over the next few years while maintaining a modest reserve amount. A similar assessment was conducted in calendar year 2022 to support a rate adjustment that occurred at that time. This update is being conducted to evaluate the effects of that fee increase and to assess the need for additional permit fee adjustments to optimize the Building Division's ability to be funded to the maximum extent feasible by Division-generated fee revenue.

The City of Destin does not designate the Building Division as an enterprise but does have the goal of ensuring the fee structure and revenue collected for fees is calibrated to the costs of operating the Building Division. There are two primary desired outcomes for this goal. One is to have the Community Development Department's Building Division activities be self-sustaining through fee revenue and not requiring regular transfers of general funds. The second is to maintain fee levels that are reasonable relative to the services provided by the Building Division for the many and various types of customers that require permits from the City. It is important to note that these changes only effect the fee levels of the Building Division and do not impact the fee levels of Planning and Engineering review and inspection services.

STATE REPORTING REQUIREMENTS FOR PERMIT FEE ACTIVITIES AND FUNDS

In addition to the City's goals for the Building Division, the State of Florida requires local governments to track and report on building permit and inspection activities on an annual basis. Section 553.80 (7) (b) of the Florida Statues requires local governments to create this report yearly and post it on the local government's website. The information in the report is derived from relevant information available in the most recently completed financial audit. The Building Permit and Inspection Utilization Report includes the number of permits and inspections performed as well as the revenue generated from fees, costs to provide these services, and the fund balance carry over amounts for the prior year and reporting year. The City of Destin completed this report for fiscal year 2023 in April of 2024 and the results are included as Attachment A to this document.

The primary goal of the State's requirements for reporting is to ensure local governments are not setting building permit and inspection fees at levels that generate revenue that far exceeds the cost to deliver services. The statutory requirements state that a local government may not carry forward a fund balance amount from a prior year that exceeds the average of its departmental operating budget from enforcing the Florida Building Code for the previous 4 fiscal years.

CITY OF DESTIN BUILDING FUND AND 2023 REPORTING

In order to meet the State's reporting requirements and to track progress toward the City's goal of having a self-sustaining Building Division, the City established a building fund in 2021 to track revenues and expenditures for the Building Division and associated activities. The results of the 2023 Building Permit and Inspection Utilization Report show the fund activity as follows.

The following table shows the revenue for the fund and the carryover from the prior year.

2023 BUILDING FUND REVENUE

From fees	850,910
From fines	0
From other sources	45,455
Carry forward from prior year	446,494
TOTAL	1,342,859

The following table shows the expenditures for the Building Division. The operating costs include an internal fund transfer to cover the Building Division's proportionate share of City's technology costs. The table also shows the fund carryover from 2023 into 2024. The carry over amounts for 2023 and 2024 are well within the State's requirements of not exceeding more than the average of the last four years of operating costs.

CARRY FORWARD TO 2024	342,260

CURRENT FINANCIAL POSITION OF THE CITY'S BUILDING FUND

The fee adjustments adopted in calendar year 2022 had the effect of stabilizing the Building Fund through FY 2024. However, there has been a decline in fee revenue year over year when comparing FY 2023 to FY 2022 along with recent and projected rising labor and general operating costs. There is also planned capital expenditures on vehicles and equipment in FY 2024 totaling $116,000. Due to these factors, the financial position of the building fund is not stable beyond FY 2024, with a forecasted fund deficit of $113,085 at the end of FY 2024.

TREND FORECAST OF REVENUE AND EXPENDITURES FOR BUILDING FUND

As part of the ongoing budget tracking process and plan for the City's future financial position, the City's Finance Director maintains financial forecasts for each fund, including the Building Fund. The following is a summary of the forecasted revenue and expenditures based on maintaining the current fee schedule for the Building Division.

Building Fund Revenue

The Building Fund revenue forecast includes assumptions regarding the pace of revenue collection, which is affected by economic and building industry cycles. The forecast is responding to a natural building industry cycle where the early COVID Era backlog was being worked through into 2022 where revenue was high. While providing a short term boost to the Building Fund, that level of revenue generation is not anticipated to be reached again during the forecasted period from FY2025 through FY2028.

Absent adjustments to Building Division fees, revenue is forecasted to be relatively flat over the next several years as indicators in both the economic and building cycles suggest relatively slow growth in investment and development in Destin.

The following table shows the total building fund revenue, including the actual revenue for FY2021 to FY2023 and the FY2024 budget.

Building Fund Balance Trends and Forecast

The following table compares revenue to expenditures and accounts for transfers in from and out to other funds. The table also shows the fund balance at the beginning of the year and end of the year. The table shows that the combination of maintaining the trend of increasing revenue, assuming a full staffing plan in the Building Division, accounting for Community Development Department costs related to providing Building Division services and establishing an annual transfer from the building fund to the general fund for technology result in a declining trend in end of year fund balance. This declining trend results in a negative end of year fund balance by the end of fiscal year 2024 with a continuation of negative fund balance growth through 2028 per the long term forecast of revenue and expenditures.

ESTIMATION AND COMPARISON OF CURRENT COSTS AND REVENUE COLLECTION

In order to understand the underlying causes of the shortfall in revenue to cover costs of the Building Division, the estimated costs of providing services for individual fee types was evaluated relative to the revenue generated for each fee type. The following steps were taken to conduct the evaluation.

Estimating Hourly Costs for Staff

The first step in the process was estimating cost burdened hours for Building Division staff. Cost burdened, or "loaded" rates were calculated to include labor wage costs, benefits costs, general operating costs, equipment and technology costs. These loaded rates were calculated for two classifications: inspector and administrative. Based on actual salaries and wages plus benefits, the average effective hourly compensation rate for inspectors was estimated at $60 per hour and for administrative staff at $40 per hour.

In order to calculate a loaded labor rate, the actual FY2023 costs for the Building Division were used. Labor and benefits costs were added together to have an annual based rate. Then annual costs for operating the Division were summarized to generate an annual operating multiplier. The same was done for the technology cost transfer from the Building Division. The equipment multiplier is a function of the FY2024 budgeted vehicles, machinery and equipment. The $116,000 shown for those items was divided by ten to effectively annualize a ten year term of repayment that is captured in the loaded rates.

The following table shows the overhead rates by category, a total overhead rate and the calculation of average hourly rates with overhead costs included. It should be noted that the operating costs do not include building costs to house the Building Division staff.

OVERHEAD CALCULATION

	Annual Amount	Overhead Rate
Labor	$ 552,583.51
Benefits	$ 203,594.45
Operating	$ 159,498.70	0.211
Equipment	$ 11,600.00	0.015
Technology	$ 84,922.26	0.112
Total Overhead		0.338
Total Base Rate Multiplier		1.338

LOADED RATE CALCULATION

Rates	Base	Loaded
Inspector	$ 60.00	$ 80.31
Admin	$ 40.00	$ 53.54

Hours by Fee Categories

Hours required to perform services were estimated for all the fee categories and many of the subcategories within each fee type. This estimate was based on City staff estimates of average time spent. The hours by fee type were estimated as either administrative or inspector and the associated loaded rates were used to get a total cost to provide services for each fee.

Revenue by Fee Categories

The revenue for each fee category and subcategory was summarized based on records from the building permit database from the beginning of calendar year 2022 to the middle of calendar year 2024. This two and a half years of fee collection data was annualized. It was then used to calculate for each of the subcategories the number of fee collections, the average amount collected, and the estimated average annual revenue generated.

Costs by Fee Type Compared to Permit Revenue

There were 61 fee subcategories from the database where estimated costs to provide services were able to be compared to estimated revenue. Of those, only 8 had an average revenue that covered the estimated cost to provided services. The remaining 53 had less revenue than the estimated costs and 21 of those covered less than half the estimated costs to provide services. A table detailing the findings of this assessment can be found in Attachment B.

Importantly, the administrative processing fee was estimated to be covering only 51% of the administrative costs associated with permits, reviews and inspections. This fee currently accounts for approximately 26% of all revenue collected by the Building Division.

RECOMMENDED FEE ADJUSTMENTS FOR ANTICIPATED SHORTFALL IN BUILDING FUND

The following proposal includes fee adjustments based on the evaluation of costs and revenue and demonstrating what is needed to make the Division revenue neutral. They also include categorical consolidations to simplify the fee schedule, make it more customer friendly, and improve efficiency of fee tracking and accounting. To the greatest extent possible, the following proposed fee schedule is calibrated to actual costs to provide each administrative and inspector-based function, which will address the forecasted emergence of negative fund balance accumulation.

Recommended Changes to Fees

Attachment C shows a list of recommended fee adjustments for the Building Division based on an updated analysis conducted November 2024 through January 2025 based on actual FY 2024 revenue and expenditures. Justification for the fee adjustments includes increased cost of providing services since the last update of the fee structure, continued cost increases due to inflation, changes in the permit fee rate of collection, and the need to set fees that will sustain the Community Development Department's Building Division operations and staff costs over the next few years.

Recommended Reserve Goal for Building Fund Balance

Maintaining a building fund balance in the ranges shown above will have several benefits, with the overall goal of having the Building Division activities be self-sufficient and not require significant transfers in from the general fund in the foreseeable future. Maintaining a reserve in the building fund will provide insurance for covering operating and staff costs in the event there is a temporary and/or unforeseen decline in permit activity. The reserve fund can be drawn on or borrowed against in the case there are facilities or capital expenditures that are out of the ordinary and require funding above normal annual operations. The reserve fund will also be able to generate investment returns for the fund to support the maintenance of the reserve.

Modeling the Effect of a New Fee Schedule on Annual Revenue

For this assessment, a revenue model was created based on fee collection data from the beginning of calendar year 2022 through the middle of calendar year 2024. The revenue estimates for the proposed fee schedule in Attachment C were based on increasing the revenue from the analysis period by the increase in the fees. This was done for each of the fee categories and subcategories, making the revenue model a detailed, rather than top line, estimation tool. The revenue assumptions shown on the following table are based on the revenue model designed for this assessment.

ATTACHMENT C – BUILDING DIVISION RECOMMENDED FEE SCHEDULE

The following table is the recommended fee schedule based on an evaluation of FY 2024 actuals rather than the budgeted and forecasted expenses and revenue for that year. Proposed fees and the percentage increases for each are shown. This revised recommendation has been modified from the original proposed fee by decreasing +/-20% on any proposed fee 45% and over and a minimum 25% increase of those fees less than 45%. A max Increase of 100% for those fees over 100% and any proposed fee that was less than 25% was left as is. This was done this way to try and keep the fees balanced based on manhours for the permit types. The adjustments to the fees are anticipated to generate an average 34% increase in revenue above existing levels.

Notes on Fee Table Assumptions

Fees in the above table under $20 are project value based. All others are flat fees for services.

The change of contractor fee, review fee and rereview fee are based on the original permit fee. Percentages are not recommended to change although base fees will go up under proposed schedule.

The electrical, plumbing, mechanical, gas, solar and fire suppression categories have been significantly streamlined, with a recommendation to move away from a fixture/service count and a la carte fee structure to one that relies mostly on project valuation to estimate the fees. This valuation method already exists and it would go from a current $13.20 per $1,000 in value to $16.50 per $1,000 in value. Revenue estimates for the electrical category are based on the assumption that fee revenue would go up 25% across subcategories.

Sign fees include the elimination of an additional fee for illumination and consolidation of the additional costs into the one based fee.

Reinspection fees are a function of Florida Statutes where the second reinspection is required to be four times the original inspection fee. FS 553.80 on enforcement says “the local government shall impose a fee of four times the amount of the fee imposed for the initial inspection or first reinspection, whichever is greater, for each such subsequent reinspection.”

ATTACHMENT D – UPDATE BASED ON 2024 ACTUALS

After the original publication of this report and at the end of calendar year 2024, FY 2024 ended and actual expenditures were available to be included so as to update the fiscal impact analysis of the Building Fund. The following table shows the FY 2024 actuals and the FY 2025 budget numbers. These tables indicate what the carry forward would be for the fund at the end of FY 2025 without making any changes to the fee structure. If no action is taken to adjust the fees, it is likely general funds will be needed to subsidize the building fund at the end of calendar year 2025 or the beginning of 2026 depending on actual expenditures relative to the budget for FY 2025.

The difference in the FY 2024 expenditures budget and actual costs for FY 2024 is over $300,000. There has also been a decrease in the previously forecasted FY 2025 expenditures and the adopted FY 2025 budget.

Recommended Fee Increase Impact on Fund Balance

The fee schedule shown in Attachment C reflects recommended fee adjustments that respond to comments made by City Council on the fee structure as well as the analysis of the FY 2024 actuals versus budgeted and forecasted numbers. The result is a scenario where an approximately 34% across the board increase in fees will result in a forecasted positive fund balance through the end of FY 2027.

Please note the following:

Review times above include re-reviews when original documents and/or information submitted by applicant was insufficient for the review process.

Upticks in review times for FY 24 can be partly attributed to staff turnover and well as more stringent site plan requirements and new requirements such as Staging Plans.
